1. Introduction

a. The following agreement between Premier Life Sciences LLC (the "Company") and myself is voluntarily enteredinto and supersedes all previous agreements, if any, between myself and the Company. This agreement establishes the terms of my employment as well as my obligation to the Company with reference to ideas, inventions, patents, copyrights, confidential information and competition during and after termination of my employment with the Company. My obligations under this agreement are undertaken in consideration of my employment or continued employment by the Company and inconsideration of the wages, salary, commissions and/or other benefits paid to me by the Company.

b. I understand that the Company is presently engaged in providing technology staffing and consulting services, and related activities.

c. I have been advised and agree and understand that in order for the Company to remain viable and to grow in the face of competition, it is absolutely essential that the confidential information and trade secrets that have been developed by the Company with considerable expense and effort, be fully protected, and that the Company be further protected from unfair competition by former employees to whom the Company has imparted specialized training, as well as such confidential information and trade secrets. Such training, information and trade secrets may be imparted to me in the course of carrying out my dutiesas a valued employee, or otherwise.

d. I warrant and represent that I am not a party to or bound by any agreement which would interfere with my employment with the Company or my ability to carry out the duties and responsibilities of my position with the Company.

Conditions of Employment

2. Duties

a. Pre-Employment Requirements – This Agreement is subject to my having previously completed and passed, or completing and passing within a reasonable time after execution of this Agreement, a drug test and a background check acceptable to the Company. I authorize the Company to obtain and review my credit report, and this Agreement is subject to that report, in the Company's discretion, being acceptable.

b. Employment; Compliance with Instructions -During my employment I shall devote my best efforts and time to the performance of such duties as are assigned to me as a valued employee and shall comply with all policies and instructions of the Company. I shall not directly or indirectly engage in any other business or commercial venture during the continuance of my employment, except with the Company's written permission.

c. No Authority to Make Commitments - If I am an Officer of the Company, I understand that I have such authority as is normally associated with my position, unless and to the extent I am otherwise advised by the HR Manager of the Company. Subject to the foregoing, I understand that (i) I have no authority to make any commitment or promise, oral or written, which would or might obligate the Company to pay money to another person or Company, unless I receive prior written authorization to do so, signed by an officer of the Company; and (ii) I have no authority to reduce a customer's bill, issue a credit to a customer, or promise that a bill will be reduced, a credit will be issued or are fund will be made, unless I receive prior written authorization to do so, signed by an officer of the Company.

d. Customer Lists and Information - I may be entrusted with a list of the Company's customers. I may also be provided with historical information of customer activities and requirements. It is specifically agreed that all such customer records are to be and remain the property of the Company and the information contained therein is a Company trade secret and proprietary to the Company. I shall not copy or reproduce any such records. Upon termination of my employment, I will immediately return any such records in my possession or control to the Company and destroy any electronic copies on devices or media in my possession or under my control.

e. Non-Disparagement - I will not take any action or make any communication which is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to harm the Company or (physically or psychologically) injure any of its employees or its or their reputation; or which could reasonably be expected to lead to unwanted or unfavorable publicity to the Company. Nothing herein shall prevent me from making any truthful statement in response to an inquiry in any legal proceeding or investigation by the Company or any governmental authority.

f. Reporting Employment Solicitation - I will promptly report to the Company every oral, written or electronic communication I receive from a current or former employee, consultant, vendor or customer of the Company that offers or refers to the possibility of an employment or consulting position for me.

g. Termination – Subject to the other provisions of this Agreement and other agreements I have entered into with the Company, I may at any time terminate this agreement or any modification or extension thereof on two weeks' notice. In the event such notice is given, this agreement or any modification or extension thereof shall come to an end as of the fourteenth (14th) day next following the giving of such notice. This provision shall not impair the Company's right to terminate my employment without advance notice in the event of a breach by me of any of the provisions of the agreement or any Company rules, and the Company specifically reserves the right to terminate this agreement and my employment forthwith for cause in the event I violate any covenant in this agreement on my part to be performed or if I fail to comply with the directions of Company management or to perform the usual customary duties and responsibilities of my employment. All provisions of the agreement which are expressly or by implication to come into or remain in effect after the termination of this agreement shall survive the expiration or termination of this agreement, howsoever occasioned. The company may terminate this agreement, with or without cause, at any time.

3. Compensation

I agree to such salary, other compensation and methods of payment as may be established by the Company and communicated to me from time to time. I understand that the Company will give me at least two weeks' notice of all changes in my salary or other compensation; which changes shall go into effect on the date established by the Company.

4. Company Not Responsible for Loss of Orders or Customers

I shall not hold the Company liable in any way for any effect on any commissions or bonuses to which Imay have been entitled but for any omission, error, mistake or negligence on the part of the Company, deficient performance of services or for any other factor which may result in cancellation of orders or loss of a customer.

5. Action Required by Employee Upon Termination

a. Return of Company Property - Upon termination of my employment, I shall immediately return to the Company all property of the Company in as good condition as when received by me (normal wear and tear expected) including the memoranda, notes, records, reports, manuals, drawings, blueprints, promotional materials, computer printouts, disks, tapes, all copies of such documents and materials which I possess or have under my control, equipment and supplies; and destroy any electronic copies of Company information and data on devices or media in my possession or under my control. For my failure to do so, I may be liable to the Company at its option, for the monetary value of such items to the Company or the cost to the Company of replacing said items, whichever is applicable. I authorize the Company to charge any such amounts of liability against my account. Acceptance by the Company of payment for such items, however, shall in no way preclude the Company from thereafter requiring the return of said items, providing it tenders to me the amount of any such payment.

b. Referral of Inquiries etc. to Company- I agree that after any termination of my employment, all orders, requests for quotations and other inquiries with regard to the Company's products or services thereafter received by me shall be forwarded by me to the Company's office in New Jersey.

6. Final Compensation Payment(s) Upon Termination

Upon termination of my employment, my final compensation payment(s) shall be made as follows:

a. Salary - My final salary payment, prorated to the date of termination, shall be paid on the next regular pay day following such termination.

b. Commissions - If my compensation includes commissions or commission overrides, my final commission payment shall not be paid to me until a reasonable period of time not in excess of ninety (90) days following termination, to make necessary adjustments, where applicable. I shall receive full commissions for relevant orders shipped prior to termination.

c. Bonuses - If I leave the Company voluntarily or am discharged during the period a compensation plan applicable to me is in effect, for any reason other than the Company's decision to reduce the number of employees in a category which includes me, I will not be entitled to any bonus for that plan period in which my employment ends. However, I understand that upon the recommendation of the Company's President and with the approval of the Company's' Board of Directors, a full or partial bonus may be paid to me. If my employment terminates as a result of the Company's decision to reduce the number of its employees in a category which includes me, I will been titled to appropriate portion of the bonus payment for the month in which my employment ends.

Confidential Information and Unfair Competition

7. Restrictions on Disclosure and Competition

a. Definition and Treatment of Confidential Information - While employed by the Company, I will acquire confidential information regarding the Company's business, including but not limited to the following: the names and addresses and purchasing history of the Company's past, present and prospective customers; the name and other pertinent data concerning the persons responsible for purchasing for such customers; the particular needs and applications of such customers for the Company's products and services, whether presently marketed or in the process of development; research developments and other matters of technical nature; marketing practices and other matters of a business nature. I understand and agree that all information of a confidential nature acquired by me during the course of my employment, including but not limited to the information set forth in the preceding sentence and information designated elsewhere in this agreement as confidential, proprietary or a Company trade secret, that is acquired on behalf of the Company shall be the exclusive property of the Company. I agree to promptly disclose all such information to my immediate supervisor or the President of the Company.

b. Non-Disclosure of Confidential Information - I understand the aforementioned confidential information, whether acquired form the Company or from third parties in the course of my employment, is a valuable asset of the Company. Accordingly, I agree that I will not at any time either during or after my employment with Company disclose any such confidential information to any person. Nor will I use any such confidential information for my own purpose or for the benefit of anyone other than the Company, or make any use whatever of such confidential information in any manner detrimental to the Company, including but not limited to the use of such confidential information in connection with any business activities in competition with the Company.

c. One Year Limitation on Competition - I agree that I will not, without prior written consent of the Company, signed by an Officer of the Company, during the term of my employment and for a period of one years after the termination of my employment with the Company, become interested in (as an investor, director, stockholder, representative or otherwise), or render services directly or indirectly to (as an employee, consultant, contractor or otherwise) any person or organization which is engaged in or about to become engaged in research or development, production, marketing, or selling or any product, process or service in existence or under development, which resembles or competes with a product, process or service of the Company.

i. I shall be deemed interested in an organization if my spouse, any minor child of mine, or any person subject to my direction and control is interested therein. However, I shall not be deemed to be so interested in any publicly held corporation or partnership merely by virtue of stock ownership therein if the total combined interest of myself and the other persons mentioned in the preceding sentence does not exceed two percent (2%) of the outstanding shares of such corporation or partnership.

d. One Year Limitation on Solicitation of Customers and Diversion of Business; Damages – This subsection applies when I work for the Company as an embedded employee at the facilities of an end client.

i. During my employment with the Company and for a period of one (1) year after the termination of my employment (the "Non-Bypassing Period"), unless I have received prior written consent of the company, signed by an officer of the Company, I will not by myself or through any third party: (A) call on, contact or communicate with any customer(s) or former or prospective customer(s) of the Company (including other staffing companies and their end clients) in connection with products or services similar to or which compete with those of the Company; or (B) divert or cause to be diverted from the Company any business for the Company's products or services.

ii. During the Non-Bypassing Period I will not become an employee of, or consultant for, any staffing company or end client that the Company has directly or indirectly done business with during the term of my employment. Nor will I, during the Non-Bypassing Period, directly or indirectly, solicit, accept, engage, divert or otherwise take away from the Company any business and/or consulting contracts, or contact any Company client, customer, vendor, end client, supplier, employee, consultant, candidate or prospect for employment or engagement.

iii. During the Non-Bypassing Period I will not, directly or indirectly, induce or attempt to influence any Company client, end client, customer, employee, consultant, contractor, vendor, supplier, candidate or prospect of the Company to terminate his or her employment, contract or business relationship with the Company. Nor will I, during the Non-Bypassing Period, directly or indirectly solicit, or divert from the Company, any such individual.

iv. Injunctive Remedy. In the event of a breach by me of this subsection, I agree that the Company will be irreparably harmed, entitling the Company to injunctive relief in addition to any monetary damages. I therefore consent to the entry of an injunction in the event of a breach by me of this subsection, prohibiting a continuing breach. I further agree that the Company shall not be required to post a bond as a condition of the Court granting the injunction.

v. Liquidated Damages for Violation of Subpart ii. I understand and agree that in event I breach this subsection it will be very difficult or impossible to determine the amount of actual damages suffered by the Company. I therefore agree that in the event of a breach by me of this subsection by violation of subpart ii hereof, it shall be conclusively presumed that as a result the Company will have lost twelve (12) months of income from the contract (and an extension or extensions thereof) that was terminated as a result; and the Company shall be entitled to liquidated damages in an amount computed by multiplying the hourly markup it was making on my services by 40 hours per week by 50 weeks, i.e. multiplying the hourly markup by 2,000.

vi. Liquidated Damages For Failure to Give Two Weeks' Notice of Resignation. In the event I fail to give the Company at least Two weeks' notice of my resignation in the manner required by this Agreement, I understand and agree it will be very difficult or impossible to determine the amount of actual damages suffered by the Company. I therefore agree that in the event I fail to give such notice, the Company shall be entitled to liquidated damages in the amount of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) for each day the notice falls short of the required Two weeks.

e. One Year Limitation on Inducing Company Employees and Sales Representatives to Leave the Company

- While employed by the Company and for a period of one (1) years following the termination of my employment with the Company, I agree that I will not directly or indirectly, in any manner, requestor induce any employee, former employee or sales representative of the Company, or any of the Company's distributors, sales agents or licensees to leave his employment or sales representative capacity with the Company, or with any of such firms, or recommend any such employee or sales representative for employment by or other business arrangement with third parties.

f. Non- Disclosure to Company of Confidential Information Belonging to Others - I agree that I will not disclose to the Company or induce the Company to use any confidential information belonging to others.

8. Extension of One-Year Non-Competition Period Upon Violation By Employee

I agree that in the event I violate the unfair competition provisions of this agreement, the running of the one-year non-competition period set forth herein shall be automatically stayed and I agree that in such event the term of such period shall be automatically extended for a period of fifteen (15) months from the date of the entry by a court of competent jurisdiction of a final order or judgment enforcing such unfair competition provisions or for the full-time period of non- competition specified therein, whichever time period is longer.

9. Liability for Damages, Attorney and other Legal Fees and Costs

I understand that the Company may hold me personally liable for any damage which it suffers as a breach of any of the confidential information, unfair competition, or other provisions set forth in Section 7 of this agreement. In the event that the Company establishes that I have violated any provision of Section 7 in any action brought against me to enforce the same or for damages respecting the same, I agree to pay all of the reasonable attorney's and other legal fees, expenses and costs incurred by the Company in connection with said action - even if the action includes claims by the Company relating to other provisions of the agreement and other matters as well.

Ideas, Copyrights, Inventions and Patents

10. Assignment of Rights

I hereby assign and agree to assign to the Company or its successor or nominee, my entire right, title and interest in all writings, articles, copyrights, business and technical ideas, contributions and inventions made and conceived by me, alone or jointly with others, during the period of my employment after the effective date of this agreement (including any periods of authorized leave of absence), which relate to the business or interests of the Company or any business in which the Company has an interest or result from tasks assigned to me by the Company, including without limitation administrative procedures, marketing ideas and sales plans, which assignment shall include, among other things, (i) the right to file and prosecute copyright and patent applications on such writings, articles and inventions in any and all countries, and (ii) the copyright and patent applications filed and the copyrights and patents issuing thereon.

11. Disclosure and Assistance

I agree promptly and fully to disclose all such writings, articles, copyrights, ideas, contributions and inventions to the Company and to assist the Company in every proper way, but at the Company's expense, to obtain and protect rights therein, including copyright registrations and patents thereon, in any or all countries, such writings, articles, ideas, contributions and inventions, however, to be in the property of the Company whether copyrighted, patented or not.

12. Prior Inventions and Computer Software to be excluded

a. I represent that the inventions and computer software described in the attached papers (if any) comprise all the unpatented and uncopyrighted inventions and computer software which I made or conceived prior to my employment with the Company, or since my employment and prior to the effective date of this agreement, which inventions and computer software shall be excluded from this agreement:

(i) Number of inventions to be excluded:
(If there are no such unpatented inventions, write "None" above.)

(ii) Number of computer software items to be excluded:
(If there are no such uncopyrighted items, write "None" above.)

(iii) Number of pages and drawings attached:

Inventions to be Excluded - Instructions:

b. As the employee is to assign inventions which he makes after the effective date of this agreement, then for his own protection as well as the interests of the Company, records should be made of the unpatented inventions and uncopyrighted computer software items he possesses on the effective date of this agreement, which shall be excluded from the operation thereof.

c. It is not necessary to record issued patents, pending patent applications, computer software items for which copyrights have been registered, or prior inventions previously assigned or agreed to be assigned to others.

d. If the exclusion of inventions are made, the employee shall attach to this agreement an adequate description of each such invention. The description shall comprise (i) title, (ii) purpose of the invention or computer program, (iii)mode of operation, and (iv) drawings, if any. The description to be acceptable should be sufficiently complete to enable qualified persons to distinguish between the invention or program made or conceived by the employee prior to the effective date of this agreement and any invention or program made by him, or another employee, along the same line or work during the course of his employment by the Company after the effective date.

e. Photocopies of the employee's original disclosure papers and drawings will be accepted in lieu of the foregoing description if they adequately disclose the excluded invention.

Remedies and Miscellaneous Provisions

13. No Authority to Bind Company

Subject to the provisions of Section 2(b) of this agreement, I understand that I shall have no authority to enter into any contract or agreement on behalf of the Company except where I am given specific authorization by an officer or authorized representative of the Company.

14. Obligations Binding on Heir sand Legal Representatives; Injunctive Relief Available to Company

I agree that my obligations under this agreement shall be binding upon my heirs and legal representatives. I further believe and agree that the obligations and restrictions placed upon me by this agreement are fair and reasonable, in that they give the Company the protection to which it is entitled and yet do not impair my ability to earn a livelihood. Further, since a violation by me of these obligations and restrictions would result in immediate and irreparable damage to the Company, I hereby express consent to and waive any objections to the Company's obtaining immediate injunctive relief in a court of law or equity in the event of such violation, such injunctive relief to be in addition to any rights to damages and to any other rights available to the Company under the law.

15. New Jersey Jurisdiction

This agreement shall become effective only after counter-signature by the Company at its offices in New Jersey of a copy of this agreement first signed by me. It is the intention of the Company and myself that this agreement shall be deemed to have been executed in the State of New Jersey, and that the appropriate courts of New Jersey shall have jurisdiction over my person and property with respect to all matters arising under this agreement, including without limitation all controversies respecting breach or alleged breach of this agreement during or after termination of my employment with the Company. Any lawsuit I bring must be brought in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Somerset County or in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, Newark vicinage.

16. Construction; Partial Invalidity

The validity, interpretation and performance of this agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey. The invalidity of any provision of this agreement shall not impair the validity of any other provision. If any court shall not agree that my obligations hereunder are reasonable, then the court shall establish obligations which it deems reasonable for the protection of the Company.

17. Non-Waiver

The Company's failure to enforce the terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of this agreement shall in no way affect its rights thereafter to enforce the same, nor shall the waiver by the Company of the breach in any term, provision, covenant or condition hereof be taken or held to be a waiver of any succeeding breach.

18. Right of Publicity

I hereby consent to the use by the Company during and after my employment, for promotional and publicity purposes, of the reproduction in whole or in part of my name and/or photographs containing any picture or pictures of me taken prior to or during my employment with the Company.

19. Entire Agreement; Modifications to be in Writing

It is agreed that the provisions of this agreement contain the entire agreement between myself and the Company and cannot be changed, modified or added to except in writing and signed by myself and an officer of the Company; provided, however, that all provisions of any other agreement relating to the non-disclosure of trade secrets and confidential information and relating to my obligations after the termination my employment shall remain in effect, except as modified or amended herein.

20. Definition of "Company"

The term "Company" as used in this agreement, includes Premier Life Sciences LLC and its field offices, divisions,subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns, whether now existing or hereafter created.

21. Notices

a. Any notice or request given by the Company to me, or by me to the Company under this agreement must be in writing and may be given by personal delivery or mail; and shall be deemed to have been sufficiently addressed when sent to the address given on the first page of this agreement by Certified Mail or Express Mail, return receipt requested, or by Federal Express, UPS Next Day Air or other nationally recognized overnight delivery service.

b. The date of mailing shall be deemed to be the date on which such notice or request has been given.

c. Either the Company or I may give written notice of a change of address and after such notice of change has been given, any notice or request thereafter shall be given as above provided at the changed address.

22. Reference to Compensation Agreement and Rider

a. The annexed Compensation Agreement and Rider between the Company and myself is incorporated in this agreement by reference and is considered to be part of this agreement.

b. If there are any inconsistencies between the Compensation Agreement and Rider and this agreement, the provisions of the Compensation Agreement and Rider shall prevail.

c. I have had sufficient time to carefully read and consider the above provisions. I understand that this agreement places personal obligations and restrictions on me which continue after my employment and that judgment may be obtained and enforced against my personal assets for any damage suffered by the Company and for legal expenses incurred by the Company as a result of my breach of this agreement. I also understand that the President of the Company is available to answer any questions I may have concerned this agreement and that I should consult legal counsel in the event that I am unclear in any respect whatsoever as to the meaning or effect of any portion of this agreement.

Subject: Mandatory Instructions for SEVIS Updates and Form I-983 Submission (F-1 STEM OPT Employees)

Dear Employee,

As part of your employment with our organization under OPT or STEM OPT, you are required to comply with all U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) regulations related to your F-1 status. The following instructions outline what you must do to maintain your status while employed with our company. Please read these requirements carefully and follow them exactly.

1. Mandatory SEVIS Reporting

You must notify your Designated School Official (DSO) within 10 days if any of the following occur:

- Change in employer
- Change in worksite location (including remote work arrangement changes)
- Change in job title or job responsibilities
- Change in work hours or compensation
- Change in supervisor
- Loss of employment or termination
- Any material change to your job or training plan

Your SEVP Portal account must remain accurate and up to date at all times.

Failure to report changes may put your F-1 status at risk.

2. Submission of Updated I-20 to Human Resources

Whenever your school issues you an updated I-20 that lists our company as your employer, you are required to submit a copy of the updated I-20 to Human Resources within 10 working days.

This includes:

- Initial I-20 showing OPT or STEM OPT employer information
- Any subsequent I-20 reflecting changes to your employment
- I-20s issued due to revised I-983 submissions
- I-20s issued at the start of STEM OPT

Providing this document to HR is a mandatory internal compliance requirement.

3. Form I-983 Requirements (STEM OPT Employees Only)

If you are participating in STEM OPT, you must complete the following:

a. Initial Form I-983 Submission

Submit a completed Form I-983 to your DSO when:

- You begin STEM OPT
- You begin employment with our company under STEM OPT

The student sections must be completed by you. HR will assist with the employer sections.

b. Revised Form I-983 for Material Changes

You must submit a revised Form I-983 if any of the following change:

- Job duties
- Worksite location
- Compensation or weekly hours
- Supervisor
- Employer (new I-983 required)
- Any other significant change to your training plan

c. Student Evaluations

Submit the required 6- month or 12-month evaluation (page 5 of Form I-983) to your DSO on time.

d. Final Evaluation

When your employment ends or your status changes (e.g., STEM OPT to H-1B or another work authorization), you must submit the final evaluation on page 5 of Form I-983 within 10 days of your last day of employment. Our company will complete the employer sections of Form I-983 and provide any required information. However:

It is your responsibility to complete the student sections and submit all forms and evaluations to your DSO by the required deadlines.

If you need assistance completing Form I-983 or have questions regarding compliance requirements, please contact Human Resources immediately.

Compliance with these requirements is mandatory as a condition of your employment under OPT or STEM OPT.

Employee Acknowledgment

I acknowledge that I have received, read, and understand the Mandatory Instructions for SEVIS Updates and Form I-983 Submission. I understand that:

- I am responsible for reporting required information to my DSO on time.
- I must submit all updated I-20s to Human Resources within 10 working days.
- I must comply with all STEM OPT reporting requirements, including submission of initial, revised, annual, and final I-983 evaluations.
- Failure to comply may affect my immigration status and my eligibility for continued employment.

Employee Information Authorization

Important! Please read and sign before completing and submitting.

I hereby voluntarily authorize the Company named above (hereafter "Employer"), either directly or through its payroll service provider, to deposit any amounts owed me, by initiating credit entries to my account (s) at the financial institution (s) of my choice (hereinafter "Bank") indicated on this form. Further, I authorize Bank to accept and to credit any credit entries indicated by Employer, either directly or through its payroll service provider, to my account. To the extent permitted by law, in the event that Employer or its payroll service provider deposits funds erroneously into my account (s), I authorize Employer, either directly or through its payroll service provider, to debit my account for an amount not to exceed the original amount of the erroneous credit.

To the extent permitted by law, I understand that I have the right to refuse consent or revoke authorization of direct deposit at any time without fear of retaliation, and I have the right to receive any payment owed to me by other means. This authorization is to remain in full force and effect until Employer and Bank have received written notice from me of its termination in such time and manner as to afford Employer and Bank reasonable opportunity to act on it.

Deposit/Account Information

For a checking account, attach a voided check, not a deposit slip. If you don't have a check, ask your bank to give you the Routing Number (the nine-digit American Bankers Association (ABA) number that identifies both the Company's bank and the Federal Reserve Bank) for your account.

Note: If you have a paycard, set it up as a checking account, not a savings account. Contact the paycard issuer for the account number/routing number information.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
Give Form W-4 to your employer.
Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information

(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
Dinesh Chandra	Gaddam	481674981

Address: 814 8th st SE

City or town, state, and ZIP code: Minneapolis, MN 55414

Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov.

(c) [X] Single or Married filing separately
[ ] Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse
[ ] Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Caution: To claim certain credits or deductions on your tax return, you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) are required to have a social security number valid for employment. See page 2 for more information.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if you: are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than Step 2(b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, Step 2(b) is more accurate . . . . . [ ]

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits

If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):

(a) Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,200 . . . . . 3(a) $

(b) Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 . . . 3(b) $

Add the amounts from Steps 3(a) and 3(b), plus the amount for other credits. Enter the total here . . . . . 3 $

Step 4: Other Adjustments

(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income . . . . . 4(a) $

(b) Deductions. Use the Deductions Worksheet on page 4 to determine the amount of deductions you may claim, which will reduce your withholding. (If you skip this line, your withholding will be based on the standard deduction.) Enter the result here . . 4(b) $

(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . . 4(c) $

Exempt from withholding

I claim exemption from withholding for 2026, and I certify that I meet both of the conditions for exemption for 2026. See Exemption from withholding on page 2. I understand I will need to submit a new Form W-4 for 2027 . [ ]

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2026 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2025 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2026. You had no federal income tax liability in 2025 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2025 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2026 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions by checking the box in the Exempt from withholding section. Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2027.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;

2. Expect to work only part of the year;

3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;

4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or

5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount of tax withheld will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

CAUTION

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain credits. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4.

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 15, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2026 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest; student loan interest; IRAs; and seniors. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain deductions. For additional eligibility requirements, see Pub. 501.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe when you file your tax return.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 . . . . . 1 $ _____ a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a . . . . . 2a $ _____

2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5 and enter this amount on line 2b . . . . . 2b $ _____

c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c . . . . . 2c $ _____

3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. . . . . 3 _____

4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (plus any other additional amount you want withheld) . . . . . 4 $ _____

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

See the Instructions for Schedule 1-A (Form 1040) for more information about whether you qualify for the deductions on lines 1a, 1b, 1c, 3a, and 3b.

1 Deductions for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest.

- a Qualified tips. If your total income is less than $150,000 ($300,000 if married filing jointly), enter an estimate of your qualified tips up to $25,000 . . . . . 1a $
- b Qualified overtime compensation. If your total income is less than $150,000 ($300,000 if married filing jointly), enter an estimate of your qualified overtime compensation up to $12,500 ($25,000 if married filing jointly) of the "and-a-half" portion of time-and-a-half compensation . . . . . 1b $
- c Qualified passenger vehicle loan interest. If your total income is less than $100,000 ($200,000 if married filing jointly), enter an estimate of your qualified passenger vehicle loan interest up to $10,000 1c $

2 Add lines 1a, 1b, and 1c. Enter the result here . . . . . 2 $

3 Seniors age 65 or older. If your total income is less than $75,000 ($150,000 if married filing jointly):

- a Enter $6,000 if you are age 65 or older before the end of the year . . . . . 3a $
- b Enter $6,000 if your spouse is age 65 or older before the end of the year and has a social security number valid for employment . . . . . 3b $

4 Add lines 3a and 3b. Enter the result here . . . . . 4 $

5 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, educator expenses, alimony paid, and certain other adjustments from Schedule 1 (Form 1040), Part II. See Pub. 505 for more information . . . . . 5 $

6 Itemized deductions. Enter an estimate of your 2026 itemized deductions from Schedule A (Form 1040). Such deductions may include qualifying:

- a Medical and dental expenses. Enter expenses in excess of 7.5% (0.075) of your total income . 6a $
- b State and local taxes. If your total income is less than $505,000 ($252,500 if married filing separately), enter state and local taxes paid up to $40,400 ($20,200 if married filing separately) . 6b $
- c Home mortgage interest. If your home acquisition debt is less than $750,000 ($375,000 if married filing separately), enter your home mortgage interest expense (including mortgage insurance premiums) . . . . . 6c $
- d Gifts to charities. Enter contributions in excess of 0.5% (0.005) of your total income . . . . 6d $
- e Other itemized deductions. Enter the amount for other itemized deductions . . . . . 6e $

7 Add lines 6a, 6b, 6c, 6d, and 6e. Enter the result here . . . . . 7 $

8 Limitation on itemized deductions.

- a Enter your total income . . . . . 8a $
- b Subtract line 4 from line 8a. If line 4 is greater than line 8a, enter -0- here and on line 10. Skip line 9 8b $

9 Enter:
- $768,700 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse
- $640,600 if you're single or head of household
- $384,350 if you're married filing separately

. . . . . 9 $

10 If line 9 is greater than line 8b, enter the amount from line 7. Otherwise, multiply line 7 by 94% (0.94) and enter the result here . . . . . 10 $

11 Standard deduction.

Enter:
- $32,200 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse
- $24,150 if you're head of household
- $16,100 if you're single or married filing separately

. . . . . 11 $

12 Cash gifts to charities. If you take the standard deduction, enter cash contributions up to $1,000 ($2,000 if married filing jointly) . . . . . 12 $

13 Add lines 11 and 12. Enter the result here . . . . . 13 $

14 If line 10 is greater than line 13, subtract line 11 from line 10 and enter the result here. If line 13 is greater than line 10, enter the amount from line 12 . . . . . 14 $

15 Add lines 2, 4, 5, and 14. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4 . . . . . 15 $

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

1:3 History of the Company

Founded in 2018, Premier Life Sciences LLC envisions growing large enough as a company to provide exemplary service in every phase of a customer's project, yet remain small enough to allow it to provide a high level of personal attention to every project. At Premier Life Sciences LLC, we recognize that each client/project has its unique needs and deadlines. Our staff thoroughly analyzes and understands these requirements and thrive to accomplish these goals and to deliver quality work on schedule. Our professionals have successfully completed several projects. We are quite capable of undertaking diverse projects and bring them to a timely finish without compromising quality.

1:4 Purpose of This Handbook

This Handbook provides an overview of employment policies and general work rules pertaining to your employment with Premier Life Sciences LLC In addition, this Handbook provides a general overview of the benefits available to eligible Premier Life Sciences LLC employees. The policies provide details on how we conduct business and how we expect all employees to conduct themselves as representatives of the Premier Life Sciences LLC Every employee is responsible for reading this Handbook as these policies apply to every employee.

The Employee Handbook is for your use and reference while employed by Premier Life Sciences LLC and should be considered proprietary and confidential. Premier Life Sciences LLC expressly reserves the right to revise, delete, or add policies to this Handbook at any time at its discretion, and to change or modify any of the employee benefits which are described herein without prior notice to employees.

This Handbook supersedes and replaces all previous Handbooks and policies and procedures, including, but not limited to, all email communications or written policies which may have previously been issued, and all inconsistent oral or written statements, on the subjects covered in this Handbook.

1:5 Be Sure to Check Out Our Bulletin Board

You can find important information about this Company and your employment posted on the office bulletin board. This is also the place where we post important information regarding your legal rights, including information about equal employment opportunity laws and wage and hour laws. We expect all employees to periodically read the information on the bulletin board. Because this bulletin board is our way of communicating with employees, we do not allow anyone but managers and Company officials to post information there.

Section 2
The Employment Relationship

2:1 Employment Is At Will

We are happy to welcome you to Premier Life Sciences LLC We sincerely hope that your employment here will be a positive and rewarding experience. However, we cannot make any guarantees about your continued employment at Premier Life Sciences LLC Your employment here is at will. This means that you are free to quit at any time, for any reason, with a 15 day notice period with or without cause. Premier Life Sciences LLC may terminate the employment relationship at any time, for any reason – except for an illegal reason – with or without cause, and with or without advance notice.

Nothing in this Handbook is intended to or creates an employment agreement, express or implied. Nothing contained in this, or any other document provided to the employee, is intended to be, nor should it be, construed as a contract that employment or any benefit will be continued for any period of time. The only exception to this policy is a written employment contract, signed by an Officer, which govern the specific terms and conditions of employment.

Section 3
Hiring

3:1 Commitment to Equal Opportunity

Premier Life Sciences LLC's Equal Employment Opportunity Policy is to apply to all employees and applicants.

Policy

1. It is the Company's policy to provide equal employment opportunity to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, disability (physical or mental), sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, genetic information, parental status, marital status, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law, in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations of federal, state and local entities. This policy applies to all the terms and conditions of employment including, but not limited to hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, transfer, leave of absence, compensation and training. Advancement to positions of greater responsibility is based on an individual's abilities and demonstrated performance.

2. The Company is committed to Equal Employment Opportunity and we shall:

   (a) Recruit, hire, upgrade, train and promote in all job classifications, without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, disability (physical or mental), sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, genetic information, parental status, marital status, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law, in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations of federal, state and local entities;
   (b) Base employment decisions on the principles of Equal Employment Opportunity;
   (c) Ensure that all terms and conditions of employment such as compensation, benefits, layoff, return from layoff, Company-sponsored training, educational tuition assistance, social and recreation programs, shall be administered without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, disability (physical or mental), sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, genetic information, parental status, marital status, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law, in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations of federal, state and local entities;
   (d) Ensure that promotion decisions will be made in accordance with the principles of Equal Employment Opportunity by imposing only valid requirements for promotional opportunities;
   (e) Take action to prevent harassment including sexual harassment or intimidation of all employees.

3. Management performance in this program will be evaluated, as is performance in other company goals.

3:2 Recruitment

We know that we are only as good as our employees, so we search as widely as possible for talented and motivated individuals to fill vacant positions in our Company. We encourage our employees to share with us their ideas as to what more we can do to find and recruit talented and motivated individuals. We conduct all recruiting in a fair and nondiscriminatory manner.

3.3 Internal Application Procedures

Sometimes, the best person for a job is right under our Company's nose. As a result, we encourage current employees to apply for vacant positions that interest them. We generally post all internal job openings on the company bulletin board. To apply for a position, give a cover letter, current resume and copy of the job posting to Office Manager.

3.4 Employment of Relatives

Although we value all of our employees and, by extension, their families, we do not generally allow family members of current employees to take jobs with our Company. We believe the risk of morale problems, security problems and conflict of interest problems is too great. However, the Board of Directors, at their discretion, may overrule this policy. If a relative relationship is established after employment between employees, it is the responsibility and obligation of the employees involved in the relationship to disclose the existence of the relationship to the HR Manager.

Under this policy, the term "relatives" encompasses husbands, wives, live-in partners, parents, children, siblings, in-laws, cousins, aunts and uncles. This policy covers biological relationships, marriage relationships and step relationships.

3.5 Bulletin Boards

To maintain an effective avenue for communicating with our employees, the Company maintains bulletin boards. Bulletin boards are located throughout our facilities in areas that employees frequently visit in order to ensure that employees have constant access to posted information.

The Company bulletin boards are used to communicate federal and state mandated documents regarding equal employment opportunity, wage and hour regulations, health and safety regulations, and other employment issues. They are also used to communicate information about the Company's policies and its business announcements, including, but not limited to, safety rules, health items, benefit programs, and notices announcing special events.

The Company's bulletin boards may not be used by employees or outside parties for the posting of commercial notes and advertisements, announcements, sales of personal property, or any other matters, work related or not. The HR Manager is responsible for maintaining the bulletin boards and should be contacted if you have any questions regarding the posted information or bulletin board use. Employees and outside parties are also prohibited from distributing literature and soliciting other employees as set forth in the Company's solicitation and distribution of literature policy. (Please see this policy, set forth in this Handbook, for details.)

Section 4
New Employee Information

4:1 New Employee Orientation

Within a day or two of starting work, you will be scheduled for a new employee orientation meeting. During this meeting, you will receive important information about our Company's policies and procedures. You will also be asked to complete paperwork and forms relating to your employment, such as tax withholding forms, emergency contact forms and benefits paperwork.

Please feel free to ask any questions you might have about the Company during the orientation meeting. If additional questions come up after the meeting, you can ask your supervisor or Office Manager.

4:2 Proof of Work Eligibility

Within three business days of your first day of work, you must complete Federal Form I-9 and show us documentation proving your identity and your eligibility to work in the United States. The federal government requires us to do this. If you have worked for this Company previously, you need only provide this information if it has been more than three years since you last completed an I-9 Form for us or if your current I-9 Form is no longer valid. The HR Manager will give you an I-9 Form and tell you what documentation you must present to us.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

4:3 Child Support Reporting Requirements

Federal and state laws require us to report basic information about new employees, including your name, address and Social Security number, to a state agency called the State Directory of New Hires. The state collects this information to enforce child support orders. If the state determines that you owe child support, it will send us an order requiring us to withhold money from your paycheck to pay your child support obligations.

Section 5
Employee Classifications

5:1 Temporary Employees

Periodically, it becomes necessary for us to hire individuals to perform a job or to work on a project that has a limited duration. Typically, this happens in the event of a special project, special time of year, abnormal workload or emergency. Individuals whom we hire for such work are temporary employees. They are not eligible to participate in any of our Company benefit programs, nor can they earn or accrue any leave, such as vacation leave or sick leave, unless otherwise required by law. The only way a temporary employee's status can change is through a written notification signed by an Officer of the Company.

Like all employees who work for this Company, temporary employees work on an at-will basis. This means that both they and this Company are free to terminate their employment at any time for any reason that is not illegal—even if they have not completed the temporary project for which they have been hired.

5:2 Part-Time and Full-Time Employees

Depending on the number of hours per week you are regularly scheduled to work, you are either a part-time or a full-time employee. It is necessary that you understand which of these classifications you fit into, because it will be important in determining whether you are entitled to benefits and leave. (See Section 9 of this Handbook for information about who is entitled to benefits and leave.). Part-time employees are those who are regularly scheduled to work fewer than 35 hours per week. Full time employees are those who are regularly scheduled to work at least 35 hours per week.

5:3 Exempt and Non-Exempt Employees

Exempt employees:

Exempt (salaried) employees are not eligible to receive additional payment for overtime work, regardless of the number of hours worked during the work week.

The Company pays exempt employees on a salary basis and makes only deductions from salary which comply with state and federal law. Further, exempt employees should be aware that workplace misconduct may result in unpaid suspensions from work.

Exempt employees shall not have their regular salary reduced based on the quality or the quantity of their work in any work week in which they perform any work, except for those deductions allowed by law. If you believe that you have had monies improperly deducted from your pay based on the quality or quantity of your work in violation of this policy, you may bring your concern to the HR Manager for review. If a determination is made that an improper deduction was made, you will be reimbursed for the amount of the deduction. Please note that variations in the quality or quantity of an employee's work may subject the employee to counseling and/or discipline.

Non-Exempt employees:

All non-exempt (hourly) employees are required to punch the time clock just prior to commencing work and immediately after ceasing to work for the day. Employees must also punch out prior to taking their lunch period and punch in upon their return.

Non-exempt employees shall be compensated for hours worked over forty (40) in any work week at a rate of 1 ½ times the employee's regular rate. Please note that employees are not permitted to work overtime without prior management authorization and that engaging in unauthorized overtime work may result in discipline. Scheduled holidays, paid time off (PTO) or any other time in which the employee performs no work will not count as hours worked for the purposes of overtime.

Non-exempt employees are NEVER required to and NOT permitted to work "off-the clock" (performing unpaid work.) If you believe that you have been or are being required to work "off the clock", you must bring your concern to the HR Manager for review.

Section 6
Hours

6:1 Hours of Work

Our Company's regular hours of business are from 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM Monday through Friday, with an hour off of unpaid time for lunch. You may be entitled to additional breaks as required by law. Your supervisor will let you know your work schedule, including the time when you will be expected to start and finish work each day. Work hours at client sites may vary. Whenever an employee is assigned to a client site, s/he is expected to work during the regular business hours of operation at the client site.

6:2 Flexible Scheduling

We understand that many employees have to balance the demands of their job with the needs of their families and other outside commitments. Therefore, we offer our employees the opportunity to work a flexible schedule. When there are situations that an employee needs to work onsite from another client location, the employee needs to follow the regular business hours of the client. If you would like to change your work schedule — for example, to come in and leave a couple of hours earlier or to work more hours on some days and fewer on others — please talk to your supervisor. The Company will try to accommodate your request, to the extent practical. Because not all jobs are suitable to flexible scheduling, and because we must ensure that our staffing needs are met, we cannot guarantee that the Company will grant your request.

6:3 Meal Breaks

Employees who work at least 8 hours in a day are entitled to take a 60-minute meal break. Meal breaks are generally unpaid. However, employees who are required to work or remain at their stations during the meal break will be paid for that time. You may be entitled to additional breaks as required by law.

6:4 Timesheets

Timesheets are the basis for recording hours worked and are the Company's primary source of documenting the number of hours to invoice clients. As such, timesheets are important documents which must be completed accurately and submitted in a timely fashion. On occasion, non-exempt employees might need to work beyond their regular scheduled hours and all extra hours must be pre-approved, by the employee's supervisor. All employees and subcontractors are responsible for preparing their timesheets and obtaining approval from their supervisor for hours worked. Supervisor's approval must be in the form of an actual signature or an online approval on the timesheet, certifying that the hours recorded are the hours actually worked. On a case-to-case basis, at times, the approval can be obtained via email confirmation. If a client supervisor is unavailable by the due date for submitting a timesheet, the unsigned timesheet should be submitted on time and should indicate that approval was unobtainable. A signed copy must be submitted as soon as possible.

The acceptable means of submitting Payroll timesheets: -

- Upload timesheets to the Ceipal portal.

Any person who misrepresents hours worked or falsifies timesheets will be subject to appropriate disciplinary and corrective action, up to and including termination of employment.

Section 7
Pay Policies

7:1 Pay Periods

Unless otherwise required by law, employees are paid monthly; paychecks are issued every month. If the pay date falls on a weekend or holiday, the paycheck will be issued on the day before the weekend or holiday. Payroll advances are not available.

7:2 Automatic payroll Deposit

Automatic payroll deposit is available to all employees. Initiation of automatic payroll deposit will take one full pay cycle to become effective. If you wish to enroll in, or have questions regarding, the automatic payroll deposit program, contact the HR Manager. If you do not elect automatic deposit, a payroll check will be mailed to the last known address that was provided by the employee. You are responsible for ensuring your address is accurate.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

7:3 Payroll Deductions

Your paycheck reflects your total earnings for the pay period, as well as any mandatory or voluntary deductions from your paycheck. Mandatory deductions are deductions that we are legally required to take. Such deductions include federal income tax, Social Security tax (FICA) and any applicable state and city taxes. Voluntary deductions are deductions that you have authorized. Such deductions might include Employee Liability of Health Insurance Premium, advances taken etc. These deductions will be itemized on your check stub. The amount of the deductions may depend on your earnings and on the information you furnish on your W-4 form regarding the number of dependents/exemptions you claim. Some states and/or cities may require other payroll deductions.

Any change in name, address, telephone number, marital status, or number of exemptions must be reported to our Human Resource Department immediately to ensure proper credit for tax purposes. The W-2 form you receive for each year indicates precisely how much of your earnings were deducted for these purposes. If you have any questions about your deductions, or wish to change your federal withholding form (Form W-4), contact the HR Manager.

If you believe that an improper deduction has been made from your pay, or that there are any discrepancies or mistakes in your paycheck, raise the issue with the HR Manager immediately. The Company will promptly investigate. If the investigation reveals that you were subjected to an improper deduction from pay, you will be reimbursed promptly.

7:4 Wage Garnishments

A wage garnishment is an order from a court or a government agency directing us to withhold a certain amount of money from an employee's paycheck and send it to a person or agency. Wages can be garnished to pay child support, spousal support or alimony, tax debts, outstanding student loans or money owed as a result of a judgment in a civil lawsuit. If we are instructed by a court or agency to garnish an employee's wages, the employee will be notified of the garnishment at once. Please note that we are legally required to comply with these orders. If you dispute or have concerns about the amount of a garnishment, you must contact the court or agency that issued the order.

7:5 Expense Reimbursement

From time to time, employees may incur expenses on behalf of Premier Life Sciences LLC We will reimburse you for the actual work-related expenses you incur, as long as those expenses are pre-approved. You must follow these procedures to get reimbursed:

- Get permission from your supervisor before incurring an expense.
- Keep a receipt or some other proof of payment for every expense.
- Submit your receipts, along with an expense report, to accounts@Premier Life Sciences LLC.com.

Remember that you are spending the Company's money when you pay for business-related expenses. We expect you to save money wherever possible. Your supervisor can assist you in deciding whether an expense is appropriate.

Section 8
Employee Benefits

8:1 Employee Benefit Plans

As part of our commitment to our employees and their well-being, Premier Life Sciences LLC provides employees with group health insurance policies for its eligible employees, their spouses and dependent children. Information regarding employee contributions and other specific plan provisions are outlined in the official plan documents for each of the benefit plans that we offer and will be made available to all eligible employees.

The Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to alter, amend, or terminate company benefits. The Company will attempt to inform employees as promptly as possible of any changes in benefits; however, this is not always practical or possible, and, where this is the case, the Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to make changes in the benefits without prior notice.

In all cases, the rights and benefits of employees under these plans are governed solely by the terms and conditions of the plan documents. Interpretation and application of a plan to particular circumstances will be made by the Company and/or the plan's administrator and is within the Company's and/or administrator's sole and absolute discretion.

8:2 Workers' Compensation

A. Insurance for Work Related Injuries or Accident

Each employee of the Company is covered under the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Law applicable to the state of their employment. The Company pays insurance premiums in order to ensure that an employee who suffers a work related injury receives needed medical and hospitalization benefits at no cost to the employee.

B. Requirement to Notify Employer of Injury or Accident

In order to protect you, it is imperative that if you are injured or have an accident while working on the job, that you immediately report the accident or injury to your supervisor, no matter how minor the injury may seem. All details of the accident or injury must be reported in writing on the appropriate insurance forms. Immediate reporting of the work related accident or injury is necessary to insure your coverage under Workers' Compensation. If you fail to report the injury or accident, you may lose benefits or even be denied coverage for the injury.

Section 9
Leave and Accommodations

9:1 Holidays

Our Company observes the following holidays each year: New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day. If a holiday falls on a weekend, the Company will inform you when the holiday will be observed. Ordinarily, holidays falling on a Saturday will be observed the preceding Friday; holidays falling on a Sunday will be observed the following Monday.

9:2 Sick/Personal Leave

Our Company provides paid sick/personal leave to Regular Full time Employees and, as required by law, to other employees. (For information on employee classifications, see Section 5 of this Handbook.) Eligible employees accrue 5 sick/personal days per year at the rate of 1 day per quarter, unless otherwise required by law. Benefits provided by state law, if any, are detailed in each employee's State Supplement. The Company will not pay employees for sick days that have accrued but have not been used when employment ends, unless otherwise required by law. Employees may use sick/personal leave when they are unable to work due to illness or injury. Any employee who abuses sick leave may be subject to discipline. You must report to your supervisor if you will need to take sick/personal leave. We ask that employees call in as soon as they realize that they will be unable to work, before the regular start of their workday. You must report to your supervisor by phone each day you are out on leave. Employees may roll over unused sick/personal leave from one year to the next. Employees may not accrue more than 5 days of sick/personal leave, unless otherwise required by law.

9:3 Disability Accommodation Policy

The Company does not discriminate based on disability and will make reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with known disabilities unless doing so would result in an undue hardship. Qualified applicants or employees who inform the Company that they have a physical or mental disability, which requires accommodation in order for them to perform the essential functions of their jobs should inform the HR Manager in order that there be a discussion as to available and appropriate accommodations.

Procedure for reasonable accommodation requests:

1. You inform the HR Manager that you are requesting a reasonable accommodation.
2. On receipt of your request we will meet with you to discuss your request.
3. We may ask for information from your health care provider(s) regarding the nature of your disability and your limitations, or take other steps necessary to help us determine viable options for reasonable accommodation, including requesting a medical certification.
4. We will then work with you to determine whether your disability can be reasonably accommodated, and if it can be reasonably accommodated, we will explore alternatives with you and endeavor to implement a mutually agreeable accommodation.

5. The Company considers all requests but reserves the right to offer its own accommodation to the extent permitted by law, or to deny accommodations based on undue hardship or any other reason permitted by law.

9:5 Pregnancy and Breastfeeding Accommodation Policy

The Company complies with state and federal law requiring accommodations for pregnancy and breastfeeding. Qualified applicants or employees who inform the Company that they are pregnant, have a medical condition related to pregnancy, giving birth or recovering from childbirth, and based on the advice of her physician requests an accommodation, should inform the HR Manager in order that there be a discussion as to available and appropriate accommodations. Qualified applicants or employees who inform the Company that they are breastfeeding an infant child shall be entitled to reasonable break time each day and a suitable private room that is not a bathroom in close proximity to her work area to express milk for the child unless such accommodation would be an undue hardship on the Company's business operations.

9:6 Family and Medical Leave/State Leave Laws

Because of the Company's size, employees may not be eligible for benefits under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). An employee should contact the HR Manager to determine whether they may be eligible for leave under FMLA or their State's leave laws.

Notwithstanding, we recognize that our employees not eligible for FMLA may occasionally need to take unpaid leave to care for a new child, to care for a seriously ill family member or to handle an employee's own medical issues. If you anticipate that you might need time off to deal with family and medical issues, please talk to your supervisor. We can't guarantee that we'll grant every request, but we will seriously consider every request on a case-by-case basis.

Employees who are eligible for FMLA benefits are entitled by law to an unpaid leave of absence, for up to twelve (12) weeks in any twelve (12) month period, for the birth, adoption or foster placement of a child, the care of the child following birth or placement, or the serious health condition of the employee or a family member (i.e., child, parent, or spouse) or, for any qualifying exigency (pertaining to the active duty military service or call of certain relatives) as described below.

Employees may also be eligible for up to 26 weeks of FMLA leave during a single 12-month period for a spouse, son, daughter, parent, or nearest blood relative caring for a recovering service member. Such leave shall be referred to as Service Member Caregiver Leave. A recovering service member is defined as a member of the Armed Forces who suffered an injury or illness while on active-duty that may render the person unable to perform the duties of the member's office, grade, rank or rating. The provisions of the FMLA detailed below will apply to this type of FMLA leave, including employer coverage, employee eligibility requirements, health insurance continuation, and reinstatement rights. During the single 12-month period in which you may use Service Member Caregiver Leave to care for an injured service member, the combined total of FMLA leave that may be taken by the employee for any reason is 26 weeks.

Eligible employees may be entitled to take FMLA leave because of "any qualifying exigency" arising out of the fact that the spouse, son, daughter, or parent of the employee is on active duty, or has been notified of an impending call to active duty status, in the Armed Forces of the United States in support. The term "any qualifying exigency" shall have the meaning set forth in the regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Labor.

Not all of our employees are eligible for this leave benefit. New hires and some part time employees cannot be covered by this policy. First, any employee employed in a location in which there are not at least 50 employees within 75 miles are not eligible. Further, some executives may not be subject to reinstatement under the law. Generally speaking, for employees working at location with 50 or more employees within 75 miles, and you have been with the Company for at least one (1) year, and have worked one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hours in the twelve (12) months preceding the leave request, you are eligible for FMLA leave.

The Company shall measure leave entitlement by using a rolling twelve (12) month period, beginning on the date the employee uses any leave and looking back through the preceding twelve (12) months. Employees may only take the maximum twelve (12) weeks during this rolling 12 month period (or 26 weeks with respect to service member caregiver leave under the FMLA).

Where leave is requested for a reason which qualifies under both FMLA and State law, these leaves run at the same time and cannot be "stacked", unless required by law. In certain circumstances, employees may be able to add State leave time to leave provided under the FMLA.

Leave granted due to the serious health condition of you or a family member, service member caregiver leave or for any qualifying exigencies may be taken consecutively, intermittently, or on a reduced leave (part time) schedule with certain restrictions. Intermittent or reduced leave schedule requested for the birth, adoption or foster placement of a child that is covered by the FMLA only is not permitted except with the agreement of the Company. Leave for the birth, adoption or foster placement of a child must be completed within one year of the birth, adoption or foster placement.

If eligible, you must provide thirty (30) days advance written notice for leave due to the birth, adoption or foster placement of a child, your own serious medical condition, to care for a family member with a serious health condition, or FMLA service member caregiver leave. Where the need for leave is not foreseeable or where the leave is for a qualifying exigency under the FMLA, employees should give notice of the need for FMLA leave as soon as practicable, with the expectation that such notice will be given within two working days of learning of the need for leave absent extraordinary circumstances. Where written notice is impractical, employees should provide oral notice, and later confirm the notice in writing. This notice must be provided to the Human Resources Department. Employees must provide a certification issued by a licensed health care provider demonstrating the need for leave, prior to the start of leave, where possible. The failure to provide such certification may result in the denial of leave. The Company may require periodic recertification for longer leaves. The Company may also require, at its expense, a second or third opinion concerning the need for leave.

Employees may automatically be placed on FMLA leave (without first completing an FMLA Request Form or FMLA Certification Forms) if the Company has reason to know that your absence is due to an FMLA-qualifying condition (e.g. you undergo emergency surgery or suffer a work-related injury that is a serious health condition or you present a doctor's note which, in the Company's sole discretion and judgment, demonstrates that the absence was due to an FMLA-qualifying reason). In such cases, the Company will unilaterally designate the leave as FMLA leave to the extent permitted by law. In addition, the Company will subsequently provide written notification of the designation of FMLA leave to the employee.

While on leave, employees are requested to report periodically (at least monthly) to the HR Manager regarding your intent to return to work. If you are taking family or medical leave under this policy you will be returned to your former position or a substantially equivalent position upon return from leave, to the extent required by law. Employees taking leave for their own serious health condition will be required to present a fitness for duty report prior to being returned to work. The failure to return from leave at the leave's expiration may result in termination of employment. An employee requesting an extension of leave must give at least two business days' notice where possible. An employee who fails to return to work after an approved FMLA leave and who has not obtained authorization to take any additional leave will be subject to termination.

The Company will continue to provide employees taking family and medical leave under the FMLA with health insurance benefits as if they had continued to work during the leave period. Employees on leave will continue to be responsible for their co-pays and other insurance costs as if they had remained working. If the co-payment for the health insurance is more than 30 days late, an employee's health care coverage may be dropped for the duration of the leave. If you fail to return from leave you will generally be required to reimburse the Company for the cost of benefits continued during leave, unless the failure to return to work was caused by the continuation, recurrence, or the onset of a serious health condition or certain other circumstances beyond the employee's control.

Once an employee exhausts FMLA entitlement, the employee will not be eligible to continue to receive employer paid health insurance benefits, although the employee may purchase continued coverage under COBRA, as applicable.

Except as otherwise expressly provided by this policy, employees must use unused vacation time during a family or medical leave (including any qualifying exigency leave) and must use unused sick/personal time during any medical leave (including service member caregiver leave). However, for periods during which employees are actually receiving Worker's Compensation salary payments or other paid leave (such as state mandated disability benefits), this requirement does not apply. Further, paid sick time will be applied concurrently with FMLA leave only where the reason for such leave is covered by the Company's sick leave plan.

No employee shall, during any period of family leave, perform services on a full-time basis for any person for whom the employee did not provide those services immediately prior to commencement of the leave. For more details about the type of leave, eligibility requirements, the type of certification needed, or any other aspect of the family and medical leave laws, please contact the HR Manager.

9:7 Bereavement Leave

The Company allows up to three paid days, unless otherwise required by law, for bereavement for full-time salaried employees who lose a member of their immediate family (i.e. grandparents, parents, mother-in-law, father-in-law, spouse, siblings, children and grandchildren, including "step" relatives). Employees must notify their supervisor prior to taking bereavement leave.

9:8 Military Leave

Our Company supports those who serve in the armed forces to protect our country. In keeping with this commitment, and in accordance with state and federal law, employees who must be absent from work for military service are entitled to take a military leave of absence. This leave will be unpaid. When an employee's military leave ends, that employee will be reinstated to the position he or she formerly held, or to a comparable position, as long as the employee meets the requirements of federal and state law. Employees who are called to military service must tell their supervisors as soon as possible that they will need to take military leave. An employee whose military service has ended must return to work or promptly inform the Company that he or she wants to be reinstated in accordance with these guidelines: For a leave of 30 or fewer days, the employee must report back to work on the first regularly scheduled workday after completing military service, allowing for travel time. For a leave of 31 to 180 days, the employee must request reinstatement within 14 days after military service ends. For a leave of 181 days or more, the employee must request reinstatement within 90 days after military service ends.

9:9 Voting

Our Company encourages employees to exercise their right to vote. If your work schedule and the location of your polling place will make it difficult for you to get to the polls before they close, you are entitled to take up to one hour off work, at the beginning or end of your shift, to cast your ballot, unless otherwise required by law. Up to One hour of this time will be paid. Employees who will need to take time off work to vote must inform their supervisors at least one day in advance. Employees must work with their supervisors to ensure that their absence doesn't negatively impact Company operations.

9:10 Jury Duty

If you are called for jury duty, you are entitled to take time off, as necessary, to fulfill your jury obligations. This leave will be unpaid unless required by law. No employee will face discipline or retaliation for jury service. You must immediately inform your supervisor when you receive your jury duty summons. If you are chosen to sit on a jury, you must inform your supervisor how long the trial is expected to last. You must also check in with your supervisor periodically during your jury service, so the Company knows when to expect you back at work.

Employees on jury duty must report to work on workdays, or parts of workdays, when they are not required to serve. Either the Company or the employee may request an excuse from jury duty if it is determined that the employee's absence would create serious operational difficulties.

Section 10
Use of Company Property

10:1 Company Property

We have invested a great deal of money in the property and equipment that you use to perform your job. It is a senseless and avoidable drain on this Company's bottom line when people abuse Company property, misuse it or wear it out prematurely by using it for personal business. We ask all employees to take care of Company property and to report any problems to the Office Manager. If a piece of equipment or property is unsafe for use, please report it immediately. Please use property only in the manner intended and as instructed. We do not allow personal use of Company property unless specifically authorized in this Handbook. Failure to use Company property appropriately, and failure to report problems or unsafe conditions, may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

10:2 Stationery Supplies & Equipment

Company stationery, supplies and equipment are to be used for Company business purposes only. This includes, but is not limited to, copy machines; fax machines, computers, printers, stationery, office supplies and postage. Its applicable even if an employee is assigned to work at a client site.

10:3 Telephone Systems

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

The Company's telephone system is for business use only. Employees must keep personal calls to a minimum. If you must make or receive a personal call, please keep your conversation brief. Extensive personal use of Company phones is grounds for discipline. This policy is applicable even if an employee is assigned to work at a client site. See Section 14 of this Handbook for information on privacy and telephones.

10:4 Return of Company Property

When your employment with this Company ends, you must promptly return all Company property, clean and in good repair. This includes documents, phones, computers, equipment, keys and tools. If an employee is assigned to work at a client site, the employee must return all client equipment, devices, badges, documents, manuals, equipment keys, tools etc. to the supervisor prior to leaving the client site after the completion of the assignment. We reserve the right to take any lawful action to recover or protect our property.

Section 11
Job Performance

11:1 Performance Review & Appraisals

The success of the Company in achieving its business objectives is only possible as a result of the high performance of its employees. Supervisors are responsible for objectively assessing employees' performance during the previous review period. This formal review process generally occurs once a year. The performance appraisal and development process is designed to be a two-way discussion that allows the employee and supervisor to exchange views regarding past performance, to plan for the future and to discuss individual and departmental objectives. The completed performance appraisal form reflects the supervisor's evaluation of the employee's performance in terms of skills and standards specific to the job. The employee is given an opportunity to review and discuss the form with the supervisor. Additionally, Supervisors are encouraged to give Employees informal performance feedback between formal reviews.

The appraisal and development process also serve as the basis for salary review. Once the appraisal is completed and approved, the supervisor, together with the company officer, will review the current salary to determine whether an adjustment is warranted.

Section 12
Workplace Behavior

12:1 Please Act Professionally

People who work together have an impact on each other's performance, productivity and personal satisfaction in their jobs. In addition, how our employees act toward customers and vendors will influence whether those relationships are successful for our Company. Because your conduct affects many more people than just yourself, you must act in a professional manner whenever you are on Company property, conducting Company business or representing the Company at business or social functions.

Although it is impossible to give an exhaustive list of everything that professional conduct means, it does, at a minimum, include the following:

- following all of the rules in this Handbook that apply to you
- refraining from rude, offensive or outrageous behavior
- refraining from ridicule and hostile jokes
- treating coworkers, customers and vendors with patience, respect and consideration
- being courteous and helpful to others, and
- communicating openly with supervisors, managers and coworkers.

Individuals who act unprofessionally will face discipline, up to and including termination.

12:2 Punctuality and Attendance

You are important to the effective operation of this business. When you are not present at expected times or on expected days, someone else needs to do your job or delay doing his own job while he waits for you to arrive. If you work with customers, vendors or assigned client locations, they may grow frustrated if they can't reach you during your scheduled work times. As a result, you must keep regular attendance and be on time and ready to work at the beginning of each scheduled workday. (In Section 6 of this Handbook, you can find a description of this Company's work hours, time-keeping and scheduling policies.). Of course, things will sometimes happen that will prevent you from showing up to work on time. For example, you may be delayed by weather, a sick child or car trouble. If you are going to be more than 30 minutes late, please call your supervisor. Please give this notice as far in advance as possible. If you must miss a full day of work for reasons other than vacation, sick leave or other approved leave (such as leave to serve on a jury or for a death in a family), you must notify Office Manager as far in advance as possible. If you are late for work or fail to appear without calling in as required by this policy or by other policies in this Handbook, you will face disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

12:3 Employee Appearance and Dress

We believe that a professional image enhances our work product and makes us more competitive in the marketplace. In part, we convey that image through the appearance of our employees. Employees must wear attire that is professional and appropriate to specific client location, and maintain a neat and clean appearance at all times. If you have any questions about the proper attire for your position, please contact the Office Manager.

12:4 Pranks and Practical Jokes

Although we want our employees to enjoy their jobs and have fun working together, we cannot allow employees to play practical jokes or pranks on each other. At best, these actions disrupt the workplace and dampen the morale of some; at worst, they lead to complaints of discrimination, harassment or assault. Employees who play pranks or practical jokes will face disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

12:5 Threatening, Abusive or Vulgar Language

We expect our employees to treat everyone they meet through their jobs with courtesy and respect. Threatening, abusive and vulgar language has no place in our workplace. It destroys morale and relationships, and it impedes the effective and efficient operation of our business. As a result, we cannot tolerate threatening, abusive or vulgar language from employees while they are on the worksite, conducting Company business or attending Company-related business or social functions. Employees who violate this policy will face disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

12:6 Horseplay

Although we want our employees to have fun while they work, we don't allow employees to engage in horseplay— which is fun that has gotten loud and boisterous and out of control. Horseplay disrupts the work environment and can get out of hand, leading to fighting, hurt feelings, safety hazards or worse. Employees who engage in horseplay will face disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

12:7 Fighting

Verbal or physical fighting among employees is absolutely prohibited. Employees shall not engage in, provoke or encourage a fight. Those who violate this policy will be disciplined, up to and including termination.

12:8 Sleeping on the Job

When our employees arrive at work, we expect them to be physically prepared to work through their day. Employees who sleep on the job dampen morale and productivity and deprive us of their work and companionship. As a result, we do not allow any employees to sleep while at work. Employees who feel sick or unable to finish the day because of weariness should talk to the Office Manger about using sick leave to take the rest of the day off. (See Section 9 of this Handbook for information about our sick leave policy.)

12:9 Solicitations and distributions of Literature

In the interest of maintaining a proper business environment and preventing interference with work and inconvenience to others, employees may not distribute literature, petitions or other printed materials of any kind, sell merchandise, solicit financial contributions, or solicit for any other cause during working time. Employees who are not on working time (e.g., those on lunch hour or other breaks) may not solicit employees who are on working time for any cause or distribute literature of any kind. This policy also prohibits solicitations via the Company's E-mail and other telephonic or electronic communication systems. Furthermore, employees may not distribute literature or printed material of any kind in working areas at any time. Non-employees or subcontractors are likewise prohibited from distributing material or soliciting employees on the Company's premises at any time.

12:10 Media inquiries and disclosure of Information

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Employees are not authorized to speak or communicate with the media on behalf of the Company. All telephone calls, letters or other such contact from any media source (e.g., newspapers, television, etc.) should be directed to the President or assigned company representative who is designated as the Company's primary spokesperson. Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

12:11 Discipline

The Company generally uses a policy of progressive discipline to correct unacceptable employee behavior and performance. Employees will generally be reprimanded orally or in writing and may be subject to suspension without pay. However, progressive discipline is NOT appropriate in every case and the Company will, in its complete discretion, review each case on its own facts. If you have any questions as to what is or is not appropriate conduct, speak with your supervisor or manager.

AS EXPLAINED EARLIER IN THIS HANDBOOK, EVERY EMPLOYEE OF THIS COMPANY IS AN EMPLOYEE AT-WILL AND THE COMPANY CAN TERMINATE ANY EMPLOYEE AT ANY TIME WITH OR WITHOUT NOTICE AND WITH OR WITHOUT CAUSE.

Section 13
Health and Safety

13:1 Safety Policy

Our Company takes employee safety very seriously. In order to provide a safe workplace for everyone, every employee must follow our safety rules:

- Horseplay, rough-housing and other physical acts that may endanger employees or cause accidents are prohibited.
- Employees must follow their supervisors' safety instructions.

13:2 Workplace Security

It is every employee's responsibility to help keep our workplace secure from unauthorized intruders. Every employee must comply with these security precautions. After-hours access to the workplace is limited to those employees who need to work late. If you are going to be working past our usual closing time, please let your supervisor know. Employees are allowed to have an occasional visitor in the workplace, but workplace visits should be the exception rather than the rule. If you are anticipating a visitor, please let the Office Manager know. Do not leave your visitor unattended in the workplace. If you have a visitor, you must accompany your visitor at all times. This includes escorting your visitor to and from the entrance to our Company. If you are the last to leave the workplace for the evening, you are responsible for doing all of the following:

1. Lock all doors/Windows
2. Switch off all lights, Office equipment, etc.

13:3 What to Do in an Emergency

In case of an emergency, such as a fire, earthquake or accident, your first priority should be your own safety. In the event of an emergency causing serious injuries, IMMEDIATELY DIAL 9-1-1 to alert police and rescue workers of the situation. If you hear a fire alarm or in case of an emergency that requires evacuation, please proceed quickly and calmly to the fire exits. Remember that every second may count — don't return to the workplace to retrieve personal belongings or work-related items.

13:4 No Smoking

For the health, comfort and safety of our employees, smoking is not allowed in Company buildings or work areas at any time. Smoking includes the use of any tobacco products, electronic smoking devices, and e-cigarettes containing nicotine cartridges. Smoking is only allowed outside, beyond 15 feet of any Company building.

13:5 Violence Is Prohibited

We will not tolerate violence in the workplace. Violence includes physical altercations, coercion, pushing or shoving, horseplay, intimidation, stalking and threats of violence. Any comments about violence will be taken seriously and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. Please do not joke or make offhand remarks about violence. No weapons are allowed in our workplace. Weapons include firearms, knives, brass knuckles, martial arts equipment, clubs or bats and explosives. If your work requires you to use an item that might qualify as a weapon, you must receive authorization from your supervisor to bring that item to work or use it in the workplace. Any employee found with an unauthorized weapon in the workplace will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination.

What to Do in Case of Violence

If you observe an incident or threat of violence that is immediate and serious, IMMEDIATELY DIAL 9-1-1 and report it to the police. If the incident or threat does not appear to require immediate police intervention, please contact Office Manager and report it as soon as possible, using the Company's complaint procedure. All complaints will be investigated and appropriate action will be taken. You will not face retaliation for making a complaint.

Section 14
Employee Privacy

14:1 Search Policy

Employees do not have a right to privacy in their workspaces or any other Company property. The Company reserves the right to search Company premises at any time, without warning, to ensure compliance with our policies on employee safety, workplace violence, harassment, theft, drug and alcohol use and possession of prohibited items. The Company may search Company property, including but not limited to lockers, desks, file cabinets, storage areas and workspaces. If you use a lock on any item of Company property (a locker or file cabinet, for example), you must give a copy of the key or combination to the Office manager. The Company may also search personal property brought onto Company premises, including but not limited to toolboxes, briefcases, backpacks, purses and bags.

14:2 Telephone Monitoring

The Company reserves the right to monitor calls made from or received on Company telephones. Therefore, no employee should expect that conversations made on Company telephones would be private.

Section 15
Information Systems

15:1 Email

The electronic mail (e-mail) systems at Premier Life Sciences LLC and its clients are the property of the Company and its clients, respectively. As such, individuals should be aware of, and must comply with, the following:

- E-mail systems are designed to facilitate business-related communications and are not to be used for communication of personal, private or nonbusiness matters (e.g. "chain" letters).
- E-mail systems, including the use of authorization or password codes, are the property of the Company.
- In accordance with applicable laws, e-mail messages are subject to search and/or monitoring at any time.
- E-mail systems are an extension of the office and all behavior that is prohibited or would be deemed inappropriate in the workplace, is also prohibited on the e-mail system.
- The Company's policies prohibiting harassment and discrimination in their entirety apply to the use of the electronic communications systems. As such, individuals are prohibited from displaying or transmitting any sexually explicit images, messages, cartoons, text or other images.
- Individuals are prohibited from transmitting confidential proprietary or privileged information via e-mail because of a less than optimal standard of confidentiality.

15:2 Internet Use

Access to the Internet is provided solely to facilitate the performance of Employees' professional responsibilities. Unacceptable uses include but are not limited to:

- Engaging in activities unrelated to assignments and/or job responsibilities;
- Transmitting threatening, obscene or harassing materials or correspondence; Interfering with or disrupting other network users, services or equipment;
- Promoting personal activities (e.g. marketing or advertising of products or services); Soliciting for religious and political causes; promoting not-for-profit activities; Fostering personal gain; Revealing or publicizing proprietary or confidential information;
- Uploading or downloading commercial software in violation of its copyright; Uploading or downloading pornographic material;

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

- Visiting inappropriate sites that deal with pornography, racism, illegal sites, etc.;
- Downloading any software or electronic files without appropriate virus protection measures in place; and
- Engaging in illegal activities.

Any person violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary and corrective action, up to and including termination of employment.

15:3 Other Information Systems

All records created on the Company's information systems including, but not limited to, personal computers, internal electronic mail, electronic mail connections made through a third party, and telephone voice mail messages are Company property. Accordingly, and in accordance with applicable laws, an authorized company official can review, audit, or observe all data (as well as paper documents) stored on or produced by and maintained on Company systems and premises.

In addition, the intentional introduction of viruses or malicious tampering with any computer or information system is expressly prohibited. Files that are downloaded from e-mail or the Internet must be scanned with virus protection software before installation or execution. All appropriate precautions should be taken to avoid the introduction of a virus to the system and, if necessary, to prevent its spread. Alternate Internet Service Provider connections to the Company's internal network are not permitted unless expressly authorized and the connection is properly protected by a firewall or other appropriate security device(s).

In keeping with the Company's no solicitation policy, the Company's information systems may not be used for the distribution of any literature, petitions or surveys, fund-raising or requesting of support for any charitable, religious, political or other cause, or for the sale of merchandise or raffle tickets. No e-mail or other electronic communication may be sent that attempts to hide the identity of the sender or represent the sender as someone else or from another company. Using a computer account or obtaining a password that you are not authorized to use is prohibited. Use of an employee's e-mail or Internet account by any person who is not a Company employee is also forbidden. No employee should allow any visitor, whether friend, family member, customer or vendor, to use the employee's e-mail address to send a message.

Section 16
Employee Records

16:1 Your Personnel File

This Company maintains a personnel file on each employee. The purpose of this file is to allow us to make decisions and take actions that are personally important to you, including notifying your family in case of an emergency, calculating income tax deductions and withholdings and paying for appropriate insurance coverage. Your personnel file is physically kept at the office premises.

16:2 Confidentiality of Personnel Files

Because the information in your personnel file is by its nature personal, we keep the file as confidential as possible. We allow access to your file only on a need-to-know basis.

16:3 Please Notify Us If Your Information Changes

Because we use the information in your personnel file to take actions on your behalf, it is important that the information in that file be accurate. Please notify Office Manager whenever any of the following changes:

- your name
- your mailing address
- your phone number
- your dependents
- the number of dependents you are designating for income tax withholding
- your marital status
- the name and phone number of the individual whom we should notify in case of an emergency
- restrictions on your driver's license if driving is necessary for your position.

16:4 Work Eligibility Records

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

In compliance with federal law, all newly hired employees must present proof that they are legally eligible to work in the United States. We must keep records related to that proof, including a copy of the Form I-9 that each employee completes for us. Those forms are kept as confidential as possible.

Section 17
Substance Abuse Policy

17:1 Policy Against Illegal Drug and Alcohol Use

The Company is committed to protecting the health and safety of others and establishing a drug-free work place. To further these interests, the Company has adopted the following Substance Abuse Policy, in accordance with the federal Drug Free Workplace Act.

The Company strictly forbids the possession or unsanctioned use, and prohibits individuals from being under the influence of alcohol on Company premises or the premises of our clients while acting as an agent of the Company. The Company also prohibits unsanctioned use of alcohol while conducting Company business. Even where employees are authorized to use alcohol while conducting Company business (such as entertaining clients), such use must be reasonable. The Company strictly forbids the possession or use, and prohibits individuals from being under the influence, of controlled substances (unless prescribed to that individual by a physician) on Company premises, our clients' premises or while conducting Company business.

The Company views any violation of this policy as extremely serious. As a condition of employment, employees must abide by the terms of this policy and must report any criminal drug statute conviction to their supervisor no later than five (5) days after such conviction.

17:2 Drug Screening

At the present time, the Company does not require prospective and active employees to submit to drug screening. The Company has clients who may require that before a Company employee begins to provide services to the client, the employee submit to drug screening. The Company reserves the right to require its employees and prospective employees to submit to drug screening in accordance with applicable laws. Moreover, the Company assumes no liability or responsibility for drug screening employed by a client.

Section 18
Trade Secrets and Conflicts of Interest

18:1 Confidentiality and Trade Secrets

Information is part of what makes this company competitive. During your employment here, whether you are at the office premises or another assigned client site, you will periodically learn sensitive information, either because you help to develop that information or because you need that information to do your job. It is important for the health of this business—and for the well-being of employees who depend on this business for their livelihood—that you keep information you learn through your employment confidential. Employees who improperly disclose sensitive information, confidential information, proprietary information or trade secret information to anyone outside the Company or assigned client will face disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Therefore, we encourage you to contact the Office Manager if you would like to learn more about this policy or if you have any questions. After you leave this Company or a particular client site, you are still legally prohibited from disclosing sensitive, proprietary, trade secret or confidential information. If you disclose such information, we will seek legal remedies.

18:2 Conflicts of Interest

Our Company's success depends on the hard work, dedication and integrity of everyone who works here or at assigned client sites. In turn, our employees' livelihood depends on the success of our company. Because we depend so much on our employees, and because they depend so much on us, employees must devote their energies and loyalties to our Company. We do not allow employees to engage in any activities or relationships that create either an actual conflict of interest or the potential for a conflict of interest.

Although we cannot list every activity or relationship that would create either an actual or potential conflict of interest, examples of activities that violate this policy include the following:

- working for a competitor or customer or vendor as a part-time employee, full-time employee, consultant, independent contractor or in any other capacity

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

- owning an interest in a competitor, customer, vendor or anyone else who seeks to do business with this Company or the assigned client.
- using the resources of this Company or assigned client for personal gain
- using your position in this Company or assigned client for personal gain.

Employees who violate this policy face disciplinary action, up to and including termination. If you are unsure about whether an activity might violate this policy, or if you have any questions at all about this policy, please talk to Your Supervisor.

Section 19
Discrimination and Harassment

19:1 Our Commitment to Equal Employment Opportunity

Premier Life Sciences LLC is strongly committed to providing equal employment opportunities for all employees and all applicants for employment. For us, this is the only acceptable way to do business. All employment decisions at our Company – including those relating to hiring, promotion, transfers, benefits, compensation, placement and termination – will be made without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, disability (physical or mental), sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, genetic information, parental status, marital status, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law, in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations of federal, state and local entities.

Any employee or applicant who believes that he or she has been discriminated against in violation of this policy should immediately file a complaint with the HR Manager, as explained in our Complaint Policy. We encourage you to come forward if you have suffered or witnessed what you believe to be discrimination – we cannot solve the problem until you let us know about it. The Company will not retaliate, or allow retaliation, against any employee or applicant who complains of discrimination, assists in an investigation of possible discrimination or files an administrative charge or lawsuit alleging discrimination. Managers are required to report any discriminatory conduct or incidents, as described in our Complaint Policy. Our Company will not tolerate discrimination against any employee or applicant. We will take immediate and appropriate disciplinary action against any employee who violates this policy, up to and including termination.

19:2 Harassment Will Not Be Tolerated

It is our policy and our responsibility to provide our employees with a workplace free from harassment. Harassment on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, disability (physical or mental), sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, genetic information, parental status, marital status, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local law, undermines our workplace morale and our commitment to treat each other with dignity and respect. Accordingly, harassment will not be tolerated at our Company. Harassment can take many forms, including but not limited to touching or other unwanted physical contact, posting offensive cartoons or pictures, using slurs or other derogatory terms, telling offensive or lewd jokes and stories and sending email messages with offensive content. Unwanted sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and sexually suggestive gestures, jokes, propositions, email messages or other communications all constitute harassment.

If you experience or witness any form of harassment in the workplace, you should immediately notify the Company by following the steps outlined in our Complaint Policy (see Section 20 of this Handbook). We encourage you to come forward with complaints as soon as possible – the sooner we learn about the problem, the sooner we can take steps to resolve it. The Company will not retaliate, or allow retaliation, against anyone who complains of harassment, assists in a harassment investigation or files an administrative charge or lawsuit alleging harassment. All managers are required to immediately report any incidents of harassment, as set forth in our Complaint Policy. Complaints will be investigated quickly. Those who are found to have violated this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Section 20
Complaint Policies

20:1 Complaint Procedures

Premier Life Sciences LLC is committed to providing a safe and productive work environment, free of threats to the health, safety and well-being of our workers. These threats include, but are not limited to, harassment, discrimination, violations of health and safety rules and violence. Any employee who witnesses or is subject to inappropriate conduct in the workplace may complain to any Company officer.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Any supervisor, manager or Company Officer who receives a complaint about, hears of or witnesses any inappropriate conduct is required to immediately notify the President. Inappropriate conduct includes but is not limited to any conduct prohibited by our policies about harassment, discrimination, discipline, workplace violence, health and safety, and drug and alcohol use. In addition, we encourage employees to come forward with any workplace complaint, even if the subject of the complaint is not explicitly covered by our written policies.

We encourage you to come forward with complaints immediately, so we can take whatever action is needed to handle the problem. All reports of harassment will be investigated promptly and thoroughly by a person who is not involved in the alleged harassment. To the extent practical and appropriate under the circumstances, confidentiality will be maintained throughout the entire investigation to protect the privacy of the individuals involved.

If the Company's investigation confirms that harassment or other improper behavior has occurred, the company will take swift, appropriate action. Such action may include, for example, training, referral to counseling, or disciplinary action, such as warnings, reprimands, reassignment, suspension, or discharge.

The complaining individual will be informed of the results of the company's investigation.

We will not engage in or allow retaliation against any employee who makes a good faith complaint or participates in an investigation. If you believe that you are being subjected to any kind of negative treatment because you made or were questioned about a complaint, report the conduct immediately to the HR Manager.

20:2 Our Doors Are Open to You

We want to maintain a positive and pleasant environment for all of our employees. To help us meet this goal, Premier Life Sciences LLC has an open-door policy, by which employees are encouraged to report work-related concerns. If something about your job is bothering you, or if you have a question, concern, idea or problem related to your work, please discuss it with your immediate supervisor as soon as possible. If for any reason you don't feel comfortable bringing the matter to your supervisor, feel free to raise the issue with any Company officer. We encourage you to come forward and make your concerns known to the Company. We can't solve the problem if we don't know about it.

20:3 Whistleblower Protection

The Company shall not take or tolerate any retaliatory action (e.g. demotion, suspension, termination or other retaliatory action) against any employee who: discloses or threatens to disclose to a supervisor or public body a practice or policy of the Company which the employee in good faith believes to be a violation of a Federal or State statute or regulation; a violation of a political subdivision ordinance or regulation; or a violation of a code of conduct or ethics designed to protect the interest of the public of the Company.

If an employee has knowledge of or a concern about an activity of the Company they in good faith believe to be in violation of this policy, the employee is to contact the HR Manager.

The identity of an employee who engages in protected whistleblowing activity will, to the extent practicable, be kept confidential. However, identity may have to be disclosed to conduct a thorough investigation, to comply with the law and to provide accused individuals their legal rights of defense. The Company will not retaliate against a whistleblower. This includes, but is not limited to, protection from retaliation in the form of an adverse action such as termination, compensation decreases, or poor work assignments and threats of physical harm.

Any whistleblower who believes they are being retaliated against must immediately contact the HR Manager. All complaints will be taken seriously and promptly addressed. Any employee who is found to have engaged in retaliation contrary to this policy will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Of course, the right of a whistleblower to protection from retaliation does not include immunity for any personal wrongdoing that is found to have occurred. Further, all employees should exercise sound judgment to avoid baseless allegations. An employee who intentionally files a false report of wrongdoing will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination.

Employees with any questions regarding this policy should contact the HR Manager.

Section 21
Termination of Employment

21:1 Ending Employment

Employment at the Company is "at will"; therefore, each party has the absolute right to terminate the employment relationship for any or no reason, at any time, with or without good cause .

You must submit your last signed and approved timesheet and expense report, if applicable, as of your last day of work. You must also return all Company and/or client property including, but not limited to: keys, identification cards, cell phones, pagers, laptop computers, software, hardware, files and documentation materials.

Should an employee decide to end their employment with the Company, as a courtesy and in order that your resignation be considered in good standing, we ask you to submit your letter of resignation to the Company a minimum of 30 days of your last day of employment. Vacation time does not serve as any part of this notice period.

21:2 Final Paychecks

Employees who quit or are terminated will receive their final paycheck on the closest normal payroll day, unless otherwise provided by law. Final paychecks will include all compensation earned but not paid through the date of termination, as required by law.

21:3 No Severance Pay

Our Company does not have a policy of paying severance to terminated employees, whether they quit, are laid off or are fired for any reason.

21:4 Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA)

Federal laws, commonly known as COBRA and HIPAA, require the Company to offer employees and their families the opportunity for a temporary extension of health coverage ("continuation coverage") at group rates in certain instances where coverage would otherwise end.

An employee will be permitted to continue their group medical coverage when his or her insurance would otherwise terminate due to a reduction in work hours or termination of employment (other than for reasons of gross misconduct). An employee's spouse and dependent children will also be permitted to purchase continued coverage where they lose eligibility for coverage as a result of divorce or legal separation; loss of dependent child status; the death of the employee; the termination of the employee's employment (for reasons other than gross misconduct) or the reduction of the employee's work hours; or the employee becoming entitled to Medicare.

The period for which continuation coverage may be purchased varies with the reason for the termination of coverage and can be either 18, 29 or 36 months.

The cost of continuation coverage must be paid by the employee, spouse or dependent and will be at the group rate plus an administrative fee.

21:5 Exit Interviews

We will hold an exit interview with every employee who leaves the Company, for any reason. During the interview, you will have the opportunity to tell us about your employment experience here – what you liked, what you didn't like and where you think we can improve. We greatly value these comments. The exit interview also gives us a chance to handle some practical matters relating to the end of your employment. You must return all Company property at the interview. You will also have an opportunity to ask any questions you might have about insurance, benefits, final paychecks, references or any other matter relating to your employment.

21:6 References

When we are contacted by prospective employers seeking information about former employees, we will release the following data only: the position(s) the employee held and the dates the employee worked for our Company.

STATE SPECIFIC POLICY SUPPLEMENTS

The Company employs employees in various states. Certain states in which the Company employs employees have specific laws requiring the provision of certain benefits or information to employees in those states. To ensure legal compliance with the laws in each state in which the Company employs employees, the Company's handbook is supplemented with policies applicable only to employees in the states which have such additional requirements. If any policy in the handbook contradicts with the state supplement, the policy most favorable to the employee will be controlled.

Each state specific policy supplement in this manual only applies to employees actually working in that state and who are considered employees subject to that state's laws.

Nothing in the supplement changes the at-will employment status of employees. At all times, employees are employed at-will, unless otherwise stated in a written employment contract.

The Company provides paid sick leave benefits to all employees for periods of temporary absence for the following reasons:

- To care for an employee's own mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition, need for medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition; or for their preventative care.
- To care for a family member's mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition, need for medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; or for their preventative care.
- When the employee or employee's family member needs treatment or counseling because they are victims of domestic violence, abuse, sexual violence, or stalking.
- When businesses or schools are closed because of a public health emergency.
- When care is required for the employee or a family member who has been exposed to a communicable disease.

"Family member" includes spouses, registered domestic partners, children (regardless of age, including a biological, adopted or foster child, stepchild or legal ward, a child of a domestic partner, a child to whom the employee stands in loco parentis, or an individual to whom the employee stood in loco parentis when the individual was a minor), parents (including stepparents, foster parents, adopted parents, legal guardians, and parents-in-law), grandparents, grandchildren, siblings, and any other individual whose relationship with the employee is equal to a familial relationship.

Paid sick leave benefits will begin accruing on an employee's hire date. For hourly employees, paid sick leave will accrue at a rate of one hour for every 30 hours worked. Worked hours do not include holidays, vacation, or time on unpaid leaves of absence. For salaried exempt employees, paid sick leave will accrue at varying rates, depending on a number of factors, but in no case shall the accrual be less than 1.33 hours for every workweek in which the employee performs work. For hourly employees, there is a maximum annual accrual of 40 paid sick leave hours per calendar year. Employees can request use of paid sick leave after 90 days of employment.

Paid sick leave accruals will be tracked on all employees' paystubs. Unused paid sick leave benefits will be allowed to roll over to the following calendar year. Regardless of and in addition to any rollover, hourly employees will be able to accrue up to 40 hours of paid sick leave in a new calendar year. Paid sick leave taken that exceeds the amount of any paid sick leave accrual will not be paid. Paid sick leave can be used in minimum increments of one full hour.

When the need for paid sick leave is foreseeable, the employee must make a good faith effort to request the time off in advance and must make every effort to schedule the time off in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the Company's business.

If the need for paid sick leave is not foreseeable, the employee must contact their supervisor as soon as possible, which, absent exigent circumstances, generally means within hours of when the need for leave arose, but in any event, prior to the start of an employee's shift.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

The Company prohibits employees from being retaliated or discriminated against for exercising their rights to paid sick leave.

If applicable, a doctor's note certifying any illness, injury, or health condition is required for any absence in excess of three consecutive workdays.

Accrued but unused paid sick leave, no matter the amount, will not be paid out at the conclusion of employment.

Paid sick leave will not count as hours worked toward the calculation of overtime pay.

California

Sick leave
Employees who complete 30 days of employment in California are eligible to accrue paid sick leave starting with their first day of employment. This policy applies to all employees, including exempt and nonexempt employees in full-time, part-time, temporary, seasonal, or per diem positions, with limited exceptions. Certain employees may be entitled to additional paid sick leave benefits under local law. For any questions or concerns about the Company's sick leave policy, including any applicable local sick leave laws, please contact the HR Manager.

Accrual Rate
Employees accrue paid sick leave at the rate of one hour for every 30 hours of work, up to the maximum amount set in this policy. Exempt employees are treated as working 40 hours per workweek, unless their usual workweek is less than 40 hours in which case they would accrue paid sick leave based on the number of hours worked in their usual workweek.

Use of Accrued Sick Leave and Annual Use Cap
On and after their 90th day of employment, employees may use their accrued paid sick leave in a minimum amount of one hour each time. In one year of employment, employees may use up to a maximum of 40 hours or five days, whichever is of greater benefit to the employee. For example, employees regularly working a six-hour or eight-hour shift may use an annual maximum of 40 hours, and those regularly working a ten-hour shift, an annual maximum of 50 hours or five days.

Reasons to Use and Designation of Paid Sick Leave
An employee may use paid sick leave for any reason allowed under California law, including for:

- The employee's care, preventive care, diagnosis, or treatment;
- The care, preventive care, diagnosis, or treatment of the employee's family member and the employee's designated person, as defined below;
- An employee who is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking to take time off to: (1) obtain or attempt to obtain any relief to help ensure the health, safety, or welfare of the employee or the employee's child, such as a temporary restraining order, restraining order, or other injunctive relief; (2) seek medical attention; (3) obtain services from a shelter, program, rape crisis center, or victim services organization or agency; (4) obtain psychological counseling or mental health services; or (5) participate in safety planning or take other actions to increase safety from future incidents; or
- The employee to attend judicial proceedings related to a crime that is a serious or violent felony or a felony involving theft or embezzlement, when the employee is a victim of that crime or an immediate family member, registered domestic partner, or child of a registered domestic partner of a victim of that crime.

For purposes of this policy, "family member" means a child, spouse, registered domestic partner, parent, grandparent, grandchild, and sibling. A "designated person" means a person identified by the employee at the time the employee requests paid sick days. The Company limits employee to one designated person per 12-month period for paid sick days. A "child" includes a biological, adopted, or foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or a child to whom the employee stands in place of a parent (in loco parentis). A "parent" includes a biological, adoptive, or foster parent, stepparent, or legal guardian of an employee or the employee's spouse or registered domestic partner, or a person who stood in place of a parent (in loco parentis) when the employee was a minor child.
Employees have the right to designate sick leave for any of these permitted reasons.

Accrued Sick Leave: Annual Carryover and Total Accrual Cap
Unused accrued sick leave will carry over from one year to the next. However, the total amount of paid sick leave that can be accrued at any time is 80 hours or ten days, whichever is greater. If an employee reaches this cap, no further paid sick leave will accrue until the employee uses sick leave to fall below the cap. The total amount of paid sick leave that can be accrued at any time is 80 hours or ten days, whichever is greater.

Employee Notification to Take Paid Sick Leave
Employees are allowed to use their paid sick leave by providing an oral or written request. If the need for paid sick leave is foreseeable (such as for scheduled medical appointments), employees must provide reasonable advance notice. If the need is not foreseeable, employees must provide notice of the need for the leave as soon as practicable. Employees must provide notice to the HR Manager.

Payment of Sick Leave Taken
Employees will be paid for sick leave not later than the payday for the next regular payroll period after the sick leave is taken. For nonexempt employees and commissioned employees, paid sick leave will be compensated at the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee takes paid sick time. For exempt employees, paid sick leave will be compensated in the same manner as the Company calculates wages for other types of paid leave. Once an employee has exhausted their paid sick leave bank but needs to be out for sick leave purposes, then their vacation pay bank will be deducted accordingly.

Sick Leave at Employment Termination and on Rehire
Any remaining paid sick leave that is not used before the last day of employment is forfeited and is not paid out upon the termination of employment. If an employee is rehired within one year of the date of termination, any paid sick leave that was forfeited upon termination will be reinstated and available for the employee to use.

No Retaliation or Discrimination
The Company prohibits any form of retaliation or discrimination against an employee for attempting to use or using paid sick leave under this policy, and for any other reason prohibited by applicable law. Employees who believe they have been discriminated or retaliated against should report their concerns using the Complaint procedure described in this handbook.

California Family Rights Act
The Company provides leave under the California Family Rights Act (CFRA), which provides unpaid, job-protected leave to covered employees in certain circumstances.

Eligibility
To qualify for CFRA leave, employees must have worked for The Company for at least 12 months and have worked at least 1,250 hours in the 12-month period before the date leave begins. If you have any questions about your eligibility for CFRA leave, please contact the HR Manager

Leave Entitlement
This leave may be up to 12 workweeks in a 12-month period, which uses a “rolling” method that is measured backward from the date you use any CFRA leave for any of the following reasons:

- The birth, adoption, or foster care placement of your child.
- To care for your own serious health condition.
- To care for the serious health condition of your child, spouse, domestic partner, parent, including parent-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, or sibling.
- A qualifying exigency related to the covered active duty or call to covered active duty of an employee’s spouse, registered domestic partner, child, or parent, including parent-in-law in the US Armed Forces.

Substitution of Paid Leave
While the law provides only unpaid leave, employees are required to substitute accrued and unused leave while taking CFRA leave under certain circumstances.

Pregnancy Disability Leave
Even if you are not eligible for CFRA leave, if you are disabled by pregnancy, childbirth, or a related medical condition, you are entitled to take pregnancy disability leave (PDL) of up to four months, depending on your period(s) of actual disability.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Right to Reinstatement
If you are CFRA-eligible, you have certain rights to take both PDL and CFRA leave for reason of the birth of your child. Both leaves contain a guarantee of reinstatement – for pregnancy disability it is to the same position, and for CFRA it is to the same or a comparable position – at the end of the leave, subject to any defense allowed under the law.

Notice of Leave
You must provide at least 30 days' advance notice for foreseeable events (such as the expected birth of a child or a planned medical treatment for yourself or of a family member). For events that are unforeseeable, you must notify the Company, at least verbally, as soon as you learn of the need for the leave. When possible, your notice must include the estimated time and duration of the reasonable accommodation, transfer, or leave required.
Failure to comply with these notice requirements is grounds for, and may result in, deferral of the requested leave until you comply with this notice policy.

Certification of Need for Leave
Medical certification from your health care provider may be required if you are requesting leave for either:

- Your serious health condition.
- Reasonable accommodation, transfer, or leave for your pregnancy disability.

If you are requesting leave to care for the serious health condition of your covered family member, including a designated person, medical certification from their health care provider may be required.

Intermittent Leave and Reduced Work Schedule
When medically necessary, leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced work schedule. If you are taking a leave for the birth, adoption, or foster care placement of a child, the basic minimum duration of the leave is two weeks, and you must conclude the leave within one year of the birth or placement for adoption or foster care.

Medical and Other Benefits
During approved CFRA or PDL leave, your health insurance benefits are maintained as if you continued to be actively employed. Employees approved for CFRA or PDL leave will be informed in writing of the terms and conditions under which health insurance and other benefits will be continued during their leave.

Return-to-Work Release
Employees on leave for their own serious health condition or returning from PDL will be required to obtain a release to return to work from their healthcare provider that the employee is able to resume work. This is a requirement of all employees returning from other types of medical leave. Otherwise, the employee will not be permitted to resume work until it is provided.

Contact Information
For more information regarding this policy, including your eligibility for a leave and/or the impact of leave on your benefits and seniority, please contact the HR Manager. If you have been subjected to discrimination, harassment, or retaliation at work, or have been improperly denied PDL or CFRA leave, please contact the HR Manager.

You may also contact the California Civil Rights Department (CRD) to file a complaint at www.calcivilrights.ca.gov/complaintprocess, toll-free at (800) 884-1684, TTY (800) 700-2320. If you have a disability that requires a reasonable accommodation, the CRD can assist you with your complaint or, for individuals who are Deaf or Head of Hearing or have speech disabilities, through the California Relay Service (711).

Nonexempt employees
Overtime
Employees designated as nonexempt are entitled to overtime pay at a rate of 1.5 times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked over eight in a workday or 40 in a workweek, as required by applicable federal, state, and local law. Nonexempt employees are also entitled to overtime pay at a rate of 1.5 times their regular rate of pay for the first eight hours worked on the seventh consecutive workday, and two times their regular rate of pay for time worked beyond 12 hours in a workday or more than eight hours worked on the seventh consecutive workday.

Meal Periods

Nonexempt employees who work more than five hours in a workday are entitled to take an unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period during which they are relieved of all duties. The employee must take this meal period no later than the end of the employee's fifth hour of work.

Nonexempt employees who work more than ten hours in a workday are entitled to a second unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period during which they are relieved of all duties. Employees must take this second meal period no later than the end of the employee's tenth hour of work.

Rest Breaks

Nonexempt employees are entitled to paid rest breaks based on an employee's total hours worked daily at a rate of ten minutes rest time for every four hours of work or major fraction of four hours. That is, nonexempt employees working:

- Less than 3.5 hours are not entitled to a rest break.
- 3.5 hours up to six hours are entitled to a ten-minute rest break.
- More than six hours up to ten hours are entitled to 20 minutes of rest time.
- More than ten hours up to 14 hours are entitled to 30 minutes of rest time.

These paid rest breaks:

- Must be at least ten consecutive minutes for each four hours worked or major fraction thereof.
- Are to be taken in the middle of the employee's work period to the extent that is feasible.

Nonexempt employees who do not take meal periods or rest breaks as scheduled, take unauthorized meal periods or rest breaks, or do not return on time from meal periods or rest breaks may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Sick Leave

The Company provides employees with one hour of paid sick leave for every 30 hours worked, up to a maximum of 48 hours each benefit year.

Paid sick leave may only be used for:

- the diagnosis, care, or treatment of an employee's own mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition;
- the diagnosis, care, or treatment of the mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition of an employee's family member (defined below);
- attending an appointment with a health care provider for the care of the employee or the employee's family member, including preventive care;
- to seek medical attention or other assistance if the employee or employee's family member has been the victim of domestic abuse, sexual assault, or harassment;
- bereavement leave, including the need to grieve, attend funeral services or a memorial, or deal with financial and legal matters arising after the death of a family member;
- a public health emergency when a public official has ordered closure of the employee's place of business or the school or place of childcare for the employee's child;
- the employee's need to care for a family member whose school or place of care has been closed due to inclement weather, loss of power, heat, water, or other unexpected occurrence or event;
- the employee's need to evacuate the employee's place of residence due to inclement weather, loss of power, heat, water, or other unexpected occurrence or event.

For purposes of this policy, family member means a person related by blood, marriage, civil union, or adoption, any individual with whom the employee has or had an in loco parentis relationship, or any individual for whom the employee is responsible for providing or arranging health- or safety-related care.

For purposes of this policy, leave related to domestic abuse, sexual assault, or harassment may be taken for an employee or employee's family member to seek medical attention for a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition caused by the abuse, obtain services from a victim services organization, obtain mental health or other counseling, seek relocation, or seek legal services, including preparation for or participation in a civil or criminal proceeding.

Employees accrue one hour of paid sick leave for every 30 hours worked up to a maximum of 48 hours per benefit year. Paid sick leave accrues beginning at the commencement of employment

Employees may begin using available paid sick leave immediately. Employees may not use more than 48 hours of paid sick leave each benefit year. Paid sick leave must be used in no smaller than one-hour increments.

Any employee who needs to take sick leave must contact the HR Manager before the start of their shift, except in emergency circumstances, in which the employee should contact their supervisor as soon as practicable.

Any employee who takes four or more consecutive sick days must provide a certification by their health care provider attesting that the employee's leave was taken for a reason permitted by this policy and attesting to the employee's fitness to return to work.

Employees may carry over accrued but unused sick leave to the following benefit year. Employees may carry over accrued but unused sick leave to the subsequent benefit year, up to a maximum of 48 hours. Notwithstanding, employees may only use up to 48 hours of sick leave in a single benefit year.

On termination of employment for any reason, employees forfeit any accrued but unused sick leave. If rehired within six months of an employment termination, previously accrued unused sick leave will be reinstated and available for immediate use.

Overtime

Nonexempt employees will receive overtime at a rate of 1.5 times the employee's regular rate of pay for work over either:

- 40 hours per workweek;
- 12 hours per workday;
- 12 consecutive hours.

The Company will use the overtime calculation that results in the largest payment to the employee.

Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance

The Company provides leave in compliance with the Colorado Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (FAMLI) Act.

Employees are eligible for FAMLI Act leave if they have earned $2,500 in wages that were subject to FAMLI Act premiums. Eligible employees may take up to 12 weeks of paid family or medical leave under the FAMLI Act. Employees with a serious health condition related to pregnancy or childbirth complications may be entitled up to an additional four weeks of paid FAMLI Act leave.

While on FAMLI Act leave, the Company will maintain employees' group health insurance coverage at the same level and under the same circumstances as when the employee was actively working.

Upon returning from approved FAMLI Act leave, employees have the right to be restored to the same job or an equivalent position subject to the terms, limitations, and exceptions provided by law if the employee has worked with the Company for at least 180 days before the start of the leave.

Leave Entitlement

Employees may take up to 12 weeks of paid family or medical leave in an application year, which is a 12-month period measured forward from the date an employee requests any leave, for any of the following reasons:

- The birth of a child and in order to care for that child (leave to be completed within one year of the child's birth).
- The placement of a child with you for adoption or foster care and in order to care for the newly placed child (leave to be completed within one year of the child's placement).
- To care for a family member with a serious health condition.
- A qualifying exigency of a family member who is a military member on covered active duty or called to covered active duty status (or has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active duty).
- For safe leave to address immediate safety needs and the impact of domestic violence or sexual assault.

FAMLI Act leave taken under this policy runs concurrent with FMLA leave and leave taken under the Family Care Act, if applicable. FAMLI Act leave taken under this policy will not run concurrently with any accrued sick leave or other paid time off provided by the Company unless an employee chooses to use such leave to supplement FAMLI leave benefits up to 100% of the employee's average weekly salary.

Intermittent or Reduced Schedule Leave

Leave under the FAMLI Act may be taken intermittently or on a reduced schedule leave. Intermittent leave may be taken in increments of one-quarter hour, however benefits are not payable until an employee accumulates at least eight hours of family and medical leave insurance benefits.

When scheduling intermittent or reduced schedule leave, employees must make a reasonable effort not to unduly disrupt the operations of the Company. The Company's scheduling and notice requirements apply to each absence.

Notice of Leave

If an employee's need for FAMLI Act leave is foreseeable, the employee must give the HR Manager at least 30 days' prior written notice. If this is not possible, the employee must at least give notice as soon as practicable

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

(within one to two business days of learning of your need for leave). Failure to provide this notice may be grounds for delaying FAMLI-protected leave, depending on the particular facts and circumstances.

Additionally, if an employee is planning a medical treatment or a series of treatments or is taking military caregiver leave, the employee must consult with the Company first regarding the dates of this treatment to work out a schedule that best suits the needs of the employee or the covered military member, if applicable, and the Company.

Where the need for leave is not foreseeable, the employee is expected to notify the Company within one to two business days of learning of your need for leave, except in extraordinary circumstances.

Certification of Need for Leave

A request for FAMLI Act leave must include a supporting certification that the leave is for a qualifying reason.

Reporting While on Leave

If an employee takes leave because of his or her own serious health condition or to care for a covered relative, the employee must contact the HR Manager every other week regarding the status of the condition and the employee's intention to return to work. In addition, the employee must give notice as soon as practicable (within two business days if feasible) if the dates of leave change, are extended, or initially were unknown.

If there is a change in circumstances requiring an extension, reduction, or other modification of a FAMLI Act leave period or amount of benefits, notification must be made to the Division of Family and Medical Leave Insurance within ten days of the change.

Pay

While on paid family and medical leave under the FAMLI Act, employees will be entitled to 90% of their average weekly wage that is equal to or less than 50% of the state average weekly wage and 50% of their weekly wage that is more than 50% or the state's weekly wage up to a maximum weekly benefit amount established by the Division of Family and Medical Leave Insurance.

Employees may use any accrued but unused sick leave to supplement his or her paid family leave benefits up to their full salary/wages. In no case can the use of paid sick leave result in an employee's receipt of more than 100% of their salary/wages.

Meal Periods

If you work more than five consecutive hours in a workday, you are entitled to an unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period during which you are relieved of all duties.

Rest Periods

You are entitled to paid rest periods based on total hours worked daily at a rate of ten minutes rest time for every 4-hour segment, or major portion thereof, worked. For example, if you work more than six but not more than ten hours, you must take to two 10-minute rest breaks. During your break, you will be relieved of all duties. Your break must be taken at approximately the middle of each 4-hour segment of working time (to the extent permitted by the nature of the work), and may not be added to the meal period to make the meal period longer or deducted from the beginning or end of the workday to shorten your workday.

Meal and rest periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal and rest periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal and rest periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work and must report the time worked. Employees do not need to record paid rest periods.

Nonexempt employees who do not take meal or rest periods, take unauthorized meal or rest periods, or do not return on time from meal or rest periods may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

Connecticut

Sick Leave

Employees may be eligible for sick leave under Connecticut law. The Company provides eligible employees with up to 40 hours of paid sick leave per year. Sick leave is accrued at a rate of one hour for every 40 hours worked. You are entitled to use your accrued sick leave days after you have completed 680 hours of employment and have worked an average of at least ten hours per week for the Company in the most recently completed calendar quarter.

Connecticut Family and Medical Leave

The Company provides leave to all eligible employees for medical and family reasons. You may take leave for up to 12 weeks in any 12-month period for any of the following reasons:

- The birth of your child.
- The placement of a child with you by adoption or foster care arrangement.
- To care for any of the following family members with a serious health condition:
    - a spouse;
    - a child;
    - a parent or parent-in-law;
    - a sibling;
    - a grandparent;
    - a grandchild; or
    - any person related to you by blood or affinity who has a close association to you, equivalent to a family relationship.
- Your own serious health condition.
- To serve as an organ or bone marrow donor.
- A qualifying exigency arising from the fact that your spouse, child, or parent:
    - is on active duty; or
    - has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty in the armed forces.

All requests for a medical leave of absence must be in writing accompanied by a doctor's statement that indicates your expected return date. During your leave of absence, you must take all accrued paid time available to you, such as vacation, sick, or personal days, except that you will be able to retain two weeks of paid time off. You must also keep your supervisor up to date on your condition by calling in at least once a week unless you and your supervisor have agreed on other arrangements.

If your need for leave is foreseeable, you must request leave at least 30 days in advance. If the leave is not foreseeable, you must provide notice as soon as is possible and practical.

If the leave is for your serious health condition, the Company requires a doctor's release for you to return to work. You must be able to perform the essential functions of your job to return to work after leave for your serious health condition.

If you believe that your rights to this leave have been violated, you can either file a complaint directly in Superior Court or with the Connecticut Department of Labor.

To file a complaint with the Connecticut Department of Labor, complete and submit the appropriate CTFMLA complaint form found on the Department's website (https://portal.ct.gov/DOLUI/newfmlaguidance).

Connecticut Paid Family Leave

Employees who are eligible for family and medical leave may also be eligible for paid leave through the Connecticut Paid Family and Medical Leave Program. You are eligible for paid leave for 12 weeks in a 12-month period, or 14 weeks for a serious health condition that results in incapacitation during pregnancy, if you:

- Have earned at least $2,325 within the time frame required under the law.
- Either are currently employed or were employed in the previous 12 weeks.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Employees submit applications for paid leave benefits directly to the Connecticut Paid Leave Authority.

The Company may require that you use accrued vacation or other paid time off before using paid leave, in which case, you will be allowed to retain two weeks of paid time off.

Meal Periods

If you work more than seven and a half (7.5) hours in a workday, you are entitled to an unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period during which you are relieved of all duties. The meal period must be taken after the first two hours of work and before the last two hours of work.

Meal periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work.

Nonexempt employees who do not take meal periods, take unauthorized meal periods, or do not return on time from meal periods may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

DELAWARE SEXUAL HARASSMENT NOTICE

The Delaware Discrimination in Employment Act

The Delaware Discrimination in Employment Act protects all individuals against discrimination in the workplace based on gender. Sexual harassment is a form of gender discrimination. A new law against sexual harassment passed in 2018 extends protections to all individuals, in all workplaces, including employees, applicants, apprentices, staffing agency workers, independent contractors, elected officials and their staff, agricultural workers, domestic workers, and unpaid interns.

Sexual Harassment and the Law

Sexual harassment of an employee is unlawful when the employee is subjected to conduct that includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when: (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an employee's employment; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting an employee; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an employee's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

Some Examples of Sexual Harassment

- unwelcome or inappropriate touching
- threatening or engaging in adverse action after someone refuses a sexual advance
- making lewd or sexual comments about an individual's appearance, body, or style of dress
- conditioning promotions or other opportunities on sexual favors
- displaying pornographic images, cartoons, or graffiti on computers, emails, cell phones, bulletin boards, etc.
- making sexist remarks or derogatory comments based on gender

Retaliation Is Prohibited Under the Law

It is a violation of the law for an employer to take action against you because you oppose or speak out against sexual harassment in the workplace. The Delaware Discrimination in Employment Act prohibits employers from retaliating or discriminating against any person because that person opposed an unlawful discriminatory practice. Retaliation can occur through direct actions, such as demotions or terminations, or more subtle behavior, such as an increased work load or being transferred to a less desirable location. The Delaware Discrimination in Employment Act protects individuals against retaliation who have a good faith belief that their employer's conduct is illegal, even if it turns out that they were mistaken.

Report Sexual Harassment

If you have witnessed or experienced sexual harassment inform a manager, the equal employment opportunity officer at your workplace, or human resources as soon as possible.

Report sexual harassment to the Delaware Department of Labor Office of Anti-Discrimination. Call 302-761-8200 or 302-424-1134 or visit https://dia.delawareworks.com/discrimination/to learn how to file a complaint or report discrimination. The Department can investigate or mediate your complaint and may be able to help you collect lost wages and other damages.

PREGNANCY and your RIGHTS in the WORKPLACE

A. In January 2015, P.A. 98-1050 amended the Illinois Human Rights Act (775 ILCS 5/1 et seq.) to create additional protections for pregnant employees.

- Public Act 98-1050 applies to any employer employing 1 or more employees.
- Public Act 98-1050 protects part-time, full-time, and probationary employees, as well as job applicants.
- Public Act 98-1050 covers employees who are pregnant, have recently given birth, or who have a medical or common condition related to their pregnancy or childbirth.

B. Under Public Act 98-1050, it is illegal for an employer to:

- Refuse to hire, to segregate, or to act with respect to recruitment, hiring, promotion, renewal of employment, selection for training or apprenticeship, discharge, discipline, tenure or terms, privileges or conditions of employment, fringe benefits on the basis of pregnancy;
- Fail to reasonably accommodate a pregnant employee unless the accommodation will impose an undue hardship;
- Deny employment opportunities or benefits to or take adverse action against an otherwise qualified job applicant or employee if the denial or adverse action is based on the need of the employer to make reasonable accommodations to a pregnant employee;
- Require a pregnant employee to accept an accommodation which the employee did not request and the employee chooses to decline;
- Require an employee to take leave under any leave law or policy of the employer if another reasonable accommodation can be provided to the employee;
- Fail to reinstate the pregnant employee to her original job or to an equivalent position with equivalent pay and accumulated seniority, retirement, fringe benefits, and other applicable service credits upon her signifying her intent to return or when her need for reasonable accommodation ceases unless the employer can demonstrate that the accommodation of reinstating the employee will impose an undue hardship on the ordinary operations of the employer;
- Fail to post or keep posted in a conspicuous location on the premises of the employer, or fail to include in any employee handbook information concerning an employee's rights under P.A. 98-1050; and
- Retaliate against an employee because the employee requested or was provided a reasonable accommodation.

C. Reasonable accommodation

- The burden is on the employee to make the request;
- Once the employee makes the request, the burden shifts to the employer to grant the accommodation unless that employer can show that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the ordinary operation of the business of the employer;
- An accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the ordinary operation of the business of the employer if granting the accommodation would be prohibitively expensive or disruptive when considered in light of the following factors:
  (1) The nature and cost of the accommodation needed;
  (2) The overall financial resources of the facility or facilities involved in the provision of the reasonable accommodation, the number of persons employed by the facility, the effect on expenses and resources, or the impact otherwise of the accommodation upon the operation of the facility;
  (3) The overall financial resources of the employer with respect to the number of its employees, and the number, type, and location of its facilities; and
  (4) The type of operation or operations of the employer, including the composition, structure, and functions of the workforce of the employer, the geographic separateness, administrative, or fiscal relationship of the facility or facilities in question to the employer.
- A reasonable accommodation is a reasonable modification or adjustment to the job application process or work environment, or to the manner or circumstances under which the position desired or held is customarily performed, that enable an applicant or employee affected by pregnancy to be considered for the position or to perform the essential functions of that position. Examples include:

(1) More frequent or longer bathroom breaks;
(2) Breaks for increased water intake;
(3) Breaks for periodic rests;
(4) Private non-bathroom space for expressing breast milk and breastfeeding;
(5) Seating;
(6) Assistance with manual labor;
(7) Light duty;
(8) Temporary transfer to a less strenuous or hazardous position;
(9) The provision of an accessible worksite;
(10) Acquisition or modification of equipment;
(11) Job restructuring;
(12) A part-time or modified work schedule;
(13) Appropriate adjustment or modifications of examinations, training materials, or policies;
(14) Reassignment to a vacant position;
(15 Time off to recover from pregnancy; and
(16) Leave necessitated by pregnancy.

- The employer and the employee must engage in a timely, good faith, and meaningful exchange to determine effective reasonable accommodation.
- An employer is not required to create additional employment that the employer would not otherwise have created, unless the employer does so or would do so for other classes of employees who need accommodation.
- An employer is not required to discharge any employee, transfer any employee with more seniority, or promote any employee who is not qualified to perform the job, unless the employer does so or would do so to accommodate other classes of employees who need it.

D. Medical Documentation

- In response to a request for an accommodation, an employer can ask that the employee provide documentation from the employee's healthcare provider if:
  (1) The employer also requests similar documentation for conditions related to a disability;
  (2) The request is job-related and consistent with business necessity; and
  (3) The request is limited to information concerning:
    (i) The need or medical justification for the requested accommodation;
    (ii) A description of the reasonable accommodation medically advisable;
    (iii) The date the reasonable accommodation became medically advisable; and
    (iv) The probable duration of the reasonable accommodation.
- If an employer requests documentation which it is entitled to under P.A. 98-1050, an employee requesting the accommodation must submit to the employer the documentation requested.
- Nothing in P.A. 98-1050 prohibits an employer from requesting documentation from the employee's healthcare provider to determine compliance with other laws.

ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF Human Rights

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO BE FREE FROM JOB DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT.

The Illinois Human Rights Act states that you have the right to be free from unlawful discrimination and sexual harassment. This means that employers may not treat people differently based on race, age, gender, pregnancy, disability, sexual orientation or any other protected class named in the Act. This applies to all employer actions, including hiring, promotion, discipline and discharge.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

You also have the right to reasonable accommodations based on pregnancy and disability. This means you can ask for reasonable changes to your job if needed because you are pregnant or disabled.

RETALIATION

It is also unlawful for employers to treat people differently because they have reported discrimination, participated in an investigation, or helped others exercise their right to complain about discrimination.

REPORT DISCRIMINATION

To report discrimination, you may:

1. Contact your employer's human resources or personnel department.
2. Contact the Illinois Department of Human Rights (IDHR) to file a charge.
3. Call the Illinois Sexual Harassment and Discrimination Helpline at 1-877-236-7703 to talk to someone about your concerns.

Maine Earned Paid Leave Policy

Purpose of Policy

Earned paid leave time can be used for any purpose, including but not limited to illness or other sudden necessity.

Eligibility and Benefits Waiting Period

All employees are eligible to accrue earned paid leave time beginning on their date of hire. Employees must have been employed for at least 120 days before they are eligible to use earned paid leave.

Amount of Earned Paid Leave Time

Earned paid leave is accrued at the rate of one hour for every 40 hours worked, up to a total of 40 hours earned per year. Earned paid leave time is accrued on all hours worked, including overtime hours. Earned paid leave time is not accrued on paid vacations or holidays.

Use of Earned Paid Leave Time

Earned paid leave time may be used only after it has been accrued and an employee has reached 120 days of employment. Employees may not draw against future accruals or maintain a negative leave balance. Earned paid leave time may be used in one-hour or greater increments. Earned paid leave may be used for scheduled or unscheduled time off in the event of emergencies. Employees must submit the request of earned paid leave time on the time off request slip.

To allow for continued client servicing, requests for earned leave for planned purposes must be received and approved by management at least four (4) weeks in advance. If an employee requires leave for an emergency or other unforeseen circumstance, such as an illness, they must give as much notice as is possible and reasonable.

When used, earned paid leave time will be paid at the employee's base rate of pay based on earnings from the previous pay period and will be subject to applicable state and federal withholding taxes. For salaried exempt employees, the base rate of pay is equal to the employee's salary amount. For non-exempt employees, the base rate of pay is equal to the regular rate of pay, as defined in the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Accrued and Unused Earned Paid Leave Time

Accrued and unused earned paid leave will be carried over into the following calendar year for the employee to use. The total number of hours the employee accrues in the following year will be reduced by the number of hours the employee carries over. For example, an employee who carries eight hours over from a previous year will be eligible to earn only 32 hours in the following year.

Breaks in Service

In the event an employee leaves the company and returns within one year (e.g. a seasonal layoff), all accrued and unused earned paid leave time will remain in their balance for use upon re-hire, as long as the employee is rehired within one year.

Termination

Accrued and unused earned paid leave time is not paid out upon termination, regardless of the reason for termination.

Maine Family and Medical Leave

The Maine Family and Medical Leave law (MFML) applies to employees who work at a permanent worksite in Maine that has at least 15 or more employees.

Employees who have been employed by the Company for 12 consecutive months are entitled to up to ten work weeks of family medical leave in any two-year period under the following circumstances:

- A serious health condition of the employee.
- The birth of the employee's or employee's domestic partner's child.
- The placement of a child 16 years of age or younger with the employee in connection with the adoption of the child by the employee or the employee's domestic partner.
- A parent, child, grandchild, domestic partner's grandchild, spouse or domestic partner, or sibling with a serious health condition.
- The donation of an organ of that employee for a human organ transplant.
- If the employee's spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, or child is a member of the state military forces or the United States Armed Forces, including the National Guard and Reserves, and dies or incurs a serious health condition while on active duty.

The two-year leave period is measured on a rolling basis from the date that any family or medical leave begins. The leave may be taken in consecutive weeks or intermittently.

"Serious health condition" means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either:

- Inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility.
- Continuing treatment by a health care provider.

"Domestic partner" means your partner who meets all of the following criteria:

- Is a mentally competent adult.
- Has been legally domiciled with you for at least 12 months.
- Is not legally married to or legally separated from another individual.
- Is your sole partner and expects to remain so.
- Is not your sibling and is jointly responsible with you for each other's common welfare as evidenced by joint living arrangements, joint financial arrangements, or joint ownership of real or personal property.

"Sibling" means your sibling with whom you are jointly responsible for each other's common welfare as evidenced by joint living arrangements and joint financial arrangements.

You must give 30 days' notice of the intended date on which family medical leave will begin and terminate, unless prevented by medical emergency from giving that notice.

The Company may require certification from a health care provider to verify the need for and the amount of leave requested. You may also be required to provide verification of the relevant family relationship or domestic partnership.

The family medical leave is unpaid and must begin and run concurrently with any paid benefit to which an employee is entitled. Employees may substitute accrued, unused sick pay, personal days, and vacation days for unpaid leave under this policy. During any family medical leave, employees may continue their employee benefits at the employee's expense.

The taking of family medical leave will not result in the loss of any employee benefit accrued before the date on which the leave began.

Employees who take family medical leave in accordance with this policy ordinarily will be restored to their former position or to a position with equivalent seniority status, employee benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment. Restoration may be denied for reasons unrelated to your exercise of family medical rights, such as a business downturn or reorganization.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Employees who would like to request a family medical leave, or who would like more information regarding the company's policy, should contact the HR Manager.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is a category of workplace harassment and is a violation of Section 4572 of the Maine Human Rights Act. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

A. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
B. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or
C. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

Examples of sexual harassment include: behavior that is verbal and sexual in nature – such as comments about a person's looks, personal inquiries, sexual jokes; use of derogatory sexual stereotypes; uttering sexually suggestive sounds; writing sexual notes, use of State computer equipment to send, receive and/or download material of a sexual nature; non-verbal sexual behavior – such as looking someone up and down; staring or leering at someone's body; deliberate blocking of a person's path; displaying sexual visuals; making sexual gestures; or physical – such as pinching, patting, grabbing, sexual assault or any physical contact of a sexual nature.

Internal Complaint Process

The Company is committed to preventing harassment prohibited by this policy through education and dissemination of information as well as employee accountability. Such harassment may be reported by any employee, regardless of whether that employee is the recipient of the harassment, a witness or otherwise becomes aware of harassment prohibited by this policy.

Please follow the procedure in the Reporting Policy in the Handbook to make a report. Specifically, if an employee believes in good faith that they have information indicating any suspected violation of this policy, the employee should immediately report to the HR Manager. If the matter involves any member of the Human Resources team, please report to any member of the Company's Executive Team. If the employee is unsure if the information should be reported, the employee should contact the HR Manager for support and direction.

Any investigation will be conducted promptly and with as much confidentiality as possible, respecting the rights of all parties involved.

External Complaint Processes

In addition to initiating the internal complaint procedure, a discrimination complaint alleging illegal harassment on the basis of a person's protected class or protected activity may also be submitted to the Maine Human Rights Commission at any time within 300 days of the alleged discriminatory incident. They can be contacted at (207) 624-6290. For information regarding legal recourse and complaint process available through the Commission, see https://www.maine.gov/mhrc/file. In instances where the prior workers' compensation claim or right is made against the State of Maine, the complaint may be submitted to the Maine Workers' Compensation Board. They can be contacted at (207) 287-3751.

It is not required that any of the above procedures be utilized first or in any sequence, nor is it required that any procedure be exhausted before the other is used.

Retaliation

Any form of retaliatory action or threat or suggestion of retaliation by either employees or supervisors against any person filing a complaint under this policy or assisting in an investigation is a violation of State policy and a violation of the Maine Human Rights Act.

Any discriminatory action against any individual because the individual has opposed a practice that would be a violation of the Maine Human Rights Act, Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Genetic Information

Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act or because the individual has made a charge, testified or assisted in any investigation, proceeding or hearing under the Maine Human Rights Act, Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act is illegal.

A complainant and any witnesses are protected from retaliation regardless of the merits of the original complaint. Retaliation should be reported in the same manner as described below for complaints of harassment and will be promptly investigated. Such retaliatory conduct may be grounds for disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

Meal Periods

If you work more than six (6) consecutive hours in a workday, you are entitled to an unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period during which you are relieved of all duties. The meal period must be taken after the first two hours of work and before the last two hours of work.

Meal periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work.

Nonexempt employees who do not take meal periods, take unauthorized meal periods, or do not return on time from meal periods may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

Maryland Flexible Leave Act

The Maryland Flexible Leave Act ("MFLA") allows employees to use accrued paid leave to: (1) care for an immediate family member who is ill, or (2) for bereavement leave on the death of an immediate family member under the same terms, conditions, and policy rules that apply when the employee takes leave for the employee's own illness. Immediate family member, for purposes of this section, includes a child, spouse, or parent. If using leave under this policy to care for a child who is ill, the child must be under the age of 18 years or at least 18 years old and incapable of self-care due to mental or physical disability. Qualifying leave must be accrued at the time of the request.

Sexual harassment policy

Introduction

It is the goal of the Company to promote a workplace that is free of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment of employees occurring in the workplace or in other settings in which employees may find themselves in connection with their employment is unlawful and will not be tolerated by this organization. Further, any retaliation against an individual who has complained about sexual harassment or retaliation against individuals for cooperating with an investigation of a sexual harassment complaint is similarly unlawful and will not be tolerated. To achieve our goal of providing a workplace free from sexual harassment, the conduct that is described in this policy will not be tolerated and we have provided a procedure by which inappropriate conduct will be dealt with, if encountered by employees.

Because the Company takes allegations of sexual harassment seriously, we will respond promptly to complaints of sexual harassment and where it is determined that such inappropriate conduct has occurred, we will act promptly to eliminate the conduct and impose such corrective action as is necessary, including disciplinary action where appropriate.

Please note that while this policy sets forth our goals of promoting a workplace that is free of sexual harassment, the policy is not designed or intended to limit our authority to discipline or take remedial action for workplace conduct which we deem unacceptable, regardless of whether that conduct satisfies the definition of sexual harassment.

Definition of Sexual Harassment

In Massachusetts, the legal definition for sexual harassment is this: "sexual harassment" means sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

a. submission to or rejection of such advances, requests or conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment or as a basis for employment decisions; or
b. such advances, requests or conduct have the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating or sexually offensive work environment.

Under these definitions, direct or implied requests by a supervisor for sexual favors in exchange for actual or promised job benefits such as favorable reviews, salary increases, promotions, increased benefits, or continued employment constitutes sexual harassment.

The legal definition of sexual harassment is broad and in addition to the above examples, other sexually oriented conduct, whether it is intended or not, that is unwelcome and has the effect of creating a work place environment that is hostile, offensive, intimidating, or humiliating to male or female workers may also constitute sexual harassment.

While it is not possible to list all those additional circumstances that may constitute sexual harassment, the following are some examples of conduct which if unwelcome, may constitute sexual harassment depending upon the totality of the circumstances including the severity of the conduct and its pervasiveness:

- Unwelcome sexual advances -- whether they involve physical touching or not
- Sexual epithets, jokes, written or oral references to sexual conduct, gossip regarding one's sex life; comment on an individual's body, comment about an individual's sexual activity, deficiencies, or prowess
- Displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons
- Unwelcome leering, whistling, brushing against the body, sexual gestures, suggestive or insulting comments
- Inquiries into one's sexual experiences, and
- Discussion of one's sexual activities

All employees should take special note that, as stated above, retaliation against an individual who has complained about sexual harassment, and retaliation against individuals for cooperating with an investigation of a sexual harassment complaint is unlawful and will not be tolerated by this organization.

Complaints of Sexual Harassment

If any of our employees believes that he or she has been subjected to sexual harassment, the employee has the right to file a complaint with our organization. This may be done in writing or orally.

If you would like to file a complaint you may do so by contacting the HR Manager. The HR Manager is also available to discuss any concerns you may have and to provide information to you about our policy on sexual harassment and our complaint process.

Sexual Harassment Investigation

When we receive the complaint we will promptly investigate the allegation in a fair and expeditious manner. The investigation will be conducted in such a way as to maintain confidentiality to the extent practicable under the circumstances. Our investigation will include a private interview with the person filing the complaint and with witnesses. We will also interview the person alleged to have committed sexual harassment. when we have completed our investigation, we will, to the extent appropriate inform the person filing the complaint and the person alleged to have committed the conduct of the results of that investigation.

If it is determined that inappropriate conduct has occurred, we will act promptly to eliminate the offending conduct, and where it is appropriate we will also impose disciplinary action.

Disciplinary Action

If it is determined that inappropriate conduct has been committed by one of our employees, we will take such action as is appropriate under the circumstances. Such action may range from counseling to termination from employment, and may include such other forms of disciplinary action as we deem appropriate under the circumstances.

State and Federal Remedies

In addition to the above, if you believe you have been subjected to sexual harassment, you may file a formal complaint with either or both of the government agencies set forth below. Using our complaint process does not prohibit you from filing a complaint with these agencies. Each of the agencies has a short time period for filing a claim (EEOC - 300 days; MCAD - 300 days).

Paid Family and Medical Leave

The Massachusetts Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) law provides eligible Massachusetts employees the right to paid family and medical leave. These rights are described further below and include both (1) job protection when the employee returns to work and (2) partial wage-replacement benefits while the employee is out of work.

I. Explanation of Benefits

Leave Allotments. Under the PFML Law, you may be entitled to up to:

- 12 weeks of paid family leave in a benefit year for the birth, adoption, or foster care placement of a child; to care for a family member with a serious health condition; or because of a qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that a family member is on active duty or has been notified of an impending call to active duty in the Armed Forces;
- 20 weeks of paid medical leave in a benefit year if they have a serious health condition that incapacitates them from work;
- 26 weeks of paid family leave in a benefit year to care for a family member who is a covered service member undergoing medical treatment or otherwise addressing consequences of a serious health condition relating to the family member's military service;
- 26 total weeks, in the aggregate, of paid family and medical leave in a single benefit year.

A "benefit year" is the 12 months preceding the Sunday immediately before your leave begins.

Qualifying Reasons for Leave. You can take leave for one of the following qualifying reasons:

- Caring for your own serious health condition. This must be certified by a health care provider. This may include illness, injury, childbirth, or serious health conditions related to pregnancy.
- Caring for a family member with a serious health condition. This must be certified by a health care provider. This may include illness, injury, or pregnancy/childbirth.
- Bonding with your child during the first 12 months after birth, adoption, or placement.
- Caring for a family member who is a covered service member with a serious health condition that was received or aggravated while they were deployed on active duty.
- Managing affairs while a family member is deployed or about to be deployed on active duty.

A serious health condition is a physical or mental condition that prevents you from doing your job for more than 3 consecutive days. It requires one of the following:

- Overnight stay in a medical facility;
- 2 or more treatments by a health care provider within 30 days of whatever prevented you from doing your job; or
- At least 1 treatment by a health care provider within 30 days of whatever prevented you from doing your job, with plans for continued treatment, including prescriptions.

Other Leaves. Any leave you take under a separate policy or law – paid or unpaid – for the same qualifying reasons listed above will count towards your amount of leave for that benefit year.

Eligibility. You will be eligible for leave and wage-replacement benefits if you meet the earnings test. You must have earned at least 30 times the expected benefit amount and met the minimum earnings requirement established annually by the Department of Unemployment Assistance (DUA) during the last 4 completed calendar quarters. (This is the amount calculated in the "Wage Replacement Payments" section below.)

Wage Replacement Payments. When you take leave for any of the reasons described above, you will be eligible to apply to the Department for wage replacement benefits. These benefits will be a proportion of your average weekly earnings. Your maximum potential benefit amount will be as follows:

- 80% of earnings up to 50% of the State Average Weekly Wage
- 50% of earnings above the State Average Weekly Wage
- In no event more than a maximum amount. This amount will be adjusted annually based on increases in the State Average Weekly Wage.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Concurrent Benefits Payments. If you receive benefits from other sources while you are also receiving benefits from the Department, the benefits you receive from the Department may be reduced. Certain types of other benefits will cause a one-for-one reduction in benefits you receive from the Department. This means that for each dollar you receive from these benefits, your benefit from the Department will decrease by a dollar. Benefits that will have this effect include:

- Workers' Compensation
- Unemployment Insurance
- Permanent Disability Policies or Programs
- Extended Illness Leave Bank Leave

Other forms of benefits will not reduce the benefits you receive from the Department unless you are receiving more than your average weekly wage in total benefits. Benefits that will have this effect include:

- Temporary Disability Policies or Programs (including both Short-Term Disability and Long-Term Disability)
- Employer-run Family and/or Medical Leave Policies or Programs

Supplementing PFML benefit payments. In general, you may use your paid leave (sick time, vacation, or other PTO) to supplement your PFML benefits up to a certain amount, but you will need to follow the Company's policies regarding earning and using time off. The Company's policies will not discriminate against you for exercising a right to which you are entitled under the PFML program. For employees who choose to supplement their PFML benefits in this way, the combined weekly sum of PFML benefits and employer-provided paid leave benefits cannot exceed the employee's Individual Average Weekly Wage (IAWW).

II. Employee Rights and Protections

Job Protection. Generally, if you take family or medical leave, once you return to work, the Company will restore you to your previous position or to an equivalent position, with the same status, pay, employment benefits, length-of-service credit, and seniority as of the date you started your leave. This may not apply if your position was eliminated due to economic reasons unrelated to your use of leave.

Continuation of Health Insurance. The Company will continue to provide for and contribute to your employment-related health insurance benefits, if any, at the level and under the conditions coverage would have been provided if you had continued working for the duration of such leave. The Company may require you to continue to pay your portion of your health insurance premium on the same terms and conditions as before your leave.

No Retaliation. The Company will not discriminate or retaliate against you for exercising any right to which you are entitled under the paid family and medical leave law. An employee or former employee who is retaliated against for exercising rights under the law may, not more than three years after the violation occurs, institute a civil action in the superior court.

III. Notifying The Company

BEFORE you take leave or apply for benefits, you MUST notify the Company that you need to take leave. You are required to provide at least 30 days' notice of your need for leave. If 30 days' notice is not possible due to circumstances beyond your control, you must provide notice as soon as practicable, and in any event, before you file any application for benefits.

When you notify the Company of your need for leave, you must provide the following information:

1. The anticipated start date of leave;
2. The anticipated length of the leave;
3. The expected date of return from leave;
4. Whether you will need intermittent leave (leave taken in separate blocks of two or more) or reduced leave (leave that involves a reduced schedule of fewer hours or days per week), and;
5. If you need intermittent or reduced leave schedule, the expected frequency of leave and expected duration of each instance of leave.

If any of this information changes, you must tell the Company as soon as you are aware of the change.

Pregnancy and Parental Leave Policy

The Company recognizes that employees may need to be absent from work to care for or bond with a newborn child or a newly adopted or newly placed foster child (referred to as parental leave in this policy), or due to a pregnancy-related or childbirth-related condition (referred to as pregnancy leave in this policy). The Company provides pregnancy and parental leaves of absence to all eligible employees in accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), Pregnancy Discrimination Act (PDA), Pregnant Workers Fairness Act (PWFA), Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and Massachusetts law.

Procedures

If you need to take parental leave following the birth of your child or to care for or bond with your newly adopted or newly placed foster child, you should provide advance notice to your supervisor or the HR Manager. When possible, you should give at least 30 days' notice of your request for leave. If 30 days' notice is not possible because of medical necessity or for other reasons, you should give as much advance notice to The Company as practicable. Written notice is preferred, but not required.

If you have a pregnancy-related or childbirth-related limitation or disability and require reasonable accommodation (which may include leave) for this purpose, please contact HR Manager to discuss a reasonable accommodation.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees may request unpaid leave for a pregnancy-related medical condition or disability as an accommodation under the PWFA, PDA, or ADA. Please inquire with the HR Manager for information about eligibility requirements under these laws. This leave may run concurrently with other leave, including under the FMLA, Massachusetts Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) law, Massachusetts Parental Leave Act, and paid time off, where permitted by state and federal law.

Employees are eligible for up to 20 weeks of paid medical leave for pregnancy and prenatal care, and up to 12 weeks of paid family leave to care for or bond with a newborn or newly placed adopted or foster child, up to a combined maximum of 26 weeks of leave, under the PFML law if they meet the earning requirements in the 12 months preceding the leave.

Parental leave under the MPLA, PFML law, and FMLA leave generally runs concurrently.

You may be required to use any accrued and unused sick time while on FMLA leave, and you may voluntarily use any paid vacation or sick leave for PFML or MPLA leave. For more information, see the Company's FMLA Policy.

Please contact HR Manager with any questions about your eligibility for MPLA, FMLA, or PFML law leave.

Compensation During Leave

Pregnancy and parental leave is unpaid. However, employees may use any or all of their accrued but unused vacation or other paid time off during their pregnancy or parental leave.

Sick Leave

Accrual of Sick Time

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Employees are eligible to accrue and use paid sick time. Sick time accrues at the rate of 1 hour for every 30 hours worked per calendar year, up to a maximum of 40 hours. For accrual purposes, exempt employees will be assumed to work 40 hours per week, unless they are normally scheduled to work fewer than 40 hours, in which case earned sick time accrues based on their regular schedule.

Use of Sick Time

Employees may use up to 40 hours of accrued sick time per calendar year. Accrual of sick time begins on the employee's first date of actual work, but employees may not use such earned sick time until 90 calendar days after their start date.

Sick time is provided to allow employees to:

1. care for the employee's own physical or mental illness, injury, or other medical condition that requires home, preventative, or professional care;
2. care for a child, parent, spouse, or parent of a spouse who is suffering from a physical or mental illness, injury, or other medical condition that requires home, preventative or professional care;
3. attend routine medical and dental appointments for themselves or for their child, parent, spouse, or parent of a spouse;
4. address the psychological, physical, or legal effects of domestic violence;
5. address the employee's own physical and mental health needs, and those of their spouse, if the employee or the employee's spouse experiences pregnancy loss or a failed assisted reproduction, adoption or surrogacy; or
6. travel to and from an appointment, a pharmacy, or other location related to the use of sick time.

Use of sick time for other purposes is not allowed and may result in an employee being disciplined.

Employees may not use sick time if the employee is not scheduled to be at work during the period of use. An employee may not accept a specific shift assignment with the intention of calling out sick for all or part of that shift.

Earned sick time may be used for full or partial day absences. The smallest amount of sick time that an employee can take is one hour. For uses beyond one hour, employees can use sick time in 6 minute increments.

Sick time cannot be used as an excuse to be late for work without an authorized purpose.

If an employee's absence from work requires the Company to call in a replacement worker to cover the absent employee's job functions, the Company may require the absent employee to use an equal number of hours of sick time as were worked by the replacement. If the employee lacks sufficient accrued sick time to cover all such time worked by the replacement, the employer will provide sufficient job-protected unpaid leave to make up the difference in that shift.

Up to 40 hours of unused sick time may be carried over into the following benefit year.

Absence Notification Procedures

If an employee needs to be absent, to be late or to leave work early (for purposes that are permissible under the earned sick time law), the employee must give advance notice to his or her supervisor, except in an emergency.

Notice should be provided through a notification system established by the Company in a manner that the employee customarily uses to communicate with the employer for absences or requesting leave. If the absence is foreseeable (for example, if the employee will be absent to attend a previously scheduled appointment), the employee must provide up to seven days' advance notice, unless the employee learns of the need to use earned sick time within a shorter period of time.

If the absence is not foreseeable, the employee must provide notice to his or her supervisor as soon as practicable.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

If an employee is going to be absent on multiple days, the employee or the employee's surrogate (e.g., spouse, adult family member or other responsible party) must provide notice of the expected duration of the leave or, if unknown, provide notice of continuing absence on a daily basis, unless the circumstances make such notice unreasonable.

Documentation of Use of Sick Time

The Company will generally require an employee to submit a doctor's note or other documentation to support the use of sick time if the absence:

1. exceeds 24 consecutively scheduled work hours or three consecutive days on which the employee is scheduled to work;
2. occurs within two weeks prior to an employee's final scheduled day of work (except in the case of temporary employees); or
3. occurs after four unforeseeable and undocumented absences within a three month period.

Required documentation must be submitted within seven days of the absence. Additional time will be allowed for good cause shown. If an employee fails to timely comply with the sick time law's documentation requirements, the Company may recoup the sick time paid from future wages.

Company Expectations Regarding Attendance

Employees should remember that regular, reliable attendance and timeliness is expected. If an employee commits fraud or abuse by engaging in an activity that is not consistent with allowable purposes for sick time, the employee may be subject to disciplinary action. If an employee is exhibiting a clear pattern of taking leave on days just before or after a weekend, vacation, or holiday, the Company may discipline the employee for misuse of earned sick time, unless the employee provides verification of authorized use.

Payout of Sick Time

Sick time is not payable on termination of employment.

Interaction with Other Types of Leave

If any time off covered under this policy is also covered under the Company's other leave of absence policies, sick time shall run concurrently with such leave. Employees may choose, and the Company may also require employees, to use earned sick time to receive pay for absences under other leave policies if those absences would otherwise be unpaid.

Meal Period

If you work more than six hours in a workday, you are entitled to a 30-minute meal period. For nonexempt employees, uninterrupted meal periods of 30 minutes or more are unpaid.

Meal periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

Employees who take unauthorized meal periods, or do not return on time from meal periods may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Sick Leave

Employees shall accrue one hour of paid earned sick time for every 30 hours worked but shall not be entitled to use more than 72 hours of paid earned sick time per year. For purposes of earned sick time accrual under this act, a salaried employee who is exempt from overtime requirements is assumed to work 40 hours in each workweek unless the employee's normal work week is less than 40 hours, in which case earned sick time accrues based upon that normal workweek. All unused earned sick time carries over from year to year; however, an employee may not use more than 72 hours of paid sick leave in a 12-month period.

A new employee must wait until the 90th calendar day after commencing employment before using accrued earned sick time. Otherwise, an employee may use earned sick time as it is accrued regardless of the pay period. Once 30 hours have been worked, an employee is entitled to use one hour of earned sick time for use under ESTA. Earned sick time may be used in one-hour increments.

An employee may use earned sick time for the following reasons:

- The employee's or the employee's family member's mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of the employee's or the employee's family member's mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; or preventative medical care for the employee or the employee's family member.
- If the employee or the employee's family member is a victim of domestic violence or sexual assault, for medical care or psychological or other counseling for physical or psychological injury or disability; to obtain services from a victim services organization; to relocate due to domestic violence or sexual assault; to obtain legal services; or to participate in any civil or criminal proceedings related to or resulting from the domestic violence or sexual assault;
- For meetings at a child's school or place of care related to the child's health or disability, or the effects of domestic violence or sexual assault on the child; and
- For closure of the employee's place of business by order of a public official due to a public health emergency; for an employee's need to care for a child whose school or place of care has been closed by order of a public official due to a public health emergency; or when it has been determined by the health authorities having jurisdiction or by a health care provider that the employee's or employee's family member's presence in the community would jeopardize the health of others because of the employee's or family member's exposure to a communicable disease, regardless of whether the employee or family member has actually contracted the communicable disease.

For purposes of this section, "family members" include:

- Biological, adopted or foster child, stepchild or legal ward, a child of a domestic partner, or a child to whom the employee stands in loco parentis.
- Biological parent, foster parent, stepparent, or adoptive parent or a legal guardian of an employee or an employee's spouse or domestic partner or a person who stood in loco parentis when the employee was a minor child.
- Grandparent.
- Grandchild.
- Biological, foster, or adopted sibling.
- Any other individual related by blood or affinity whose close association with the employee is the equivalent of a family relationship.

"Domestic partner" means an adult in a committed relationship with another adult, including both same-sex and different-sex relationships. "Committed relationship" means one in which the employee and another individual share responsibility for a significant measure of each other's common welfare, such as any relationship between individuals of the same or different sex that is granted legal recognition by a state, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia as a marriage or analogous relationship, including, but not limited to, a civil union.

Notice

If the need for earned sick time is foreseeable, employees must notify their supervisor at least seven days prior to the date the earned sick time is to begin. If the need for earned sick time is not foreseeable, employees must give notice of the intention to take earned sick leave as soon as practicable.

For earned sick leave of more than three consecutive days, employees must provide documentation that the earned sick leave has been used for a permissible purpose. Upon request, the employee must provide this documentation in a timely manner.

Minnesota

Earned sick and safe time employee notice

Employees in Minnesota are entitled to earned sick and safe time, a form of paid leave. Employees must accrue at least one hour of earned sick and safe time for every 30 hours they work, up to at least 48 hours in a year. A year for purposes of the employee's earned sick and safe time accrual is the calendar year. Accrued but unused sick and safe time is carried over from year to year, until an 80-hour maximum accrual is reached.

At the end of each pay period, employers must provide employees with the number of earned sick and safe time hours used by the employee during the pay period and available for future use. Earned sick and safe time must be paid at the same base rate employees earn from employment. Employees are not required to seek or find a replacement for their shift to use earned sick and safe time. They may use earned sick and safe time for all or part of a shift, depending on their need.

Earned sick and safe time can be used for:

- an employee's mental or physical illness, treatment or preventive care;
- the mental or physical illness, treatment or preventive care of an employee's family member;
- absence due to domestic abuse, sexual assault or stalking of an employee or their family member;
- closure of an employee's workplace due to weather or public emergency or closure of their family member's school or care facility due to weather or public emergency;
- when determined by a health authority or health care professional that an employee or their family member is at risk of infecting others with a communicable disease; and
- making funeral arrangements, attending a funeral service or memorial or addressing financial or legal matters that arise after the death of a family member.

Notifying employer, documentation

An employer can require their employees to provide up to seven days of advance notice when possible (for example, when an employee has a medical appointment scheduled in advance) before using sick and safe time. An employer can also require their employees to provide certain documentation regarding the reason for their use of earned sick and safe time if they use it for more than three consecutive scheduled workdays.

If an employee plans to use earned sick and safe time for an appointment, preventive care or another permissible reason they know of in advance, inform the HR Manager as far in advance as possible, but at least two days in advance. In situations where an employee cannot provide advance notice, the employee should contact the HR Manager as soon as they know they will be unable to work.

Retaliation, right to file complaint

It is against the law for an employer to retaliate, or to take negative action, against an employee for using or requesting earned sick and safe time or otherwise exercising their earned sick and safe time rights under the law. If an employee believes they have been retaliated against or improperly denied earned sick and safe time, they can file a complaint with the Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry. They can also file a civil action in court for earned sick and safe time violations.

Minnesota Paid Leave

Minnesota Paid Leave provides payments and job protections when you need time off to care for yourself or your family.

You can take leave for the following qualifying events:

Medical Leave:

- To care for your own serious health condition, including care related to pregnancy, childbirth, and recovery

Family Leave:

- Bonding Leave – to care for and bond with a child welcomed through birth, adoption, or foster placement
- Caring Leave – to care for a family member with a serious health condition
- Military Family Leave – to support a family member called to active duty
- Safety Leave – to respond to issues related to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking for yourself or a family member

Am I covered by Paid Leave?

Most workers in Minnesota are covered by Paid Leave. You are covered no matter the size of your employer, or the hours or days you work. Independent contractors and self-employed individuals are not automatically covered, but may opt in. You may qualify for payments if you've been paid a minimum amount for work in Minnesota in the last year ($3,900 for the start of Paid Leave in 2026).

What are my employment protections?

- Job protections: Generally, you must be restored to your job or an equivalent position when returning from leave. Job protections take effect 90 days after your date of hire.
- Health insurance continuation: Generally, employers must continue to fund their portion of healthcare insurance and other group insurance premiums while you are on leave. You will be responsible for any portion of health insurance and other group insurance premiums that you pay.
- No retaliation or interference: Employers must not interfere with or retaliate against you if you apply for or use Paid Leave. Employers cannot take your Paid Leave payments.

For inquiries related to Paid Leave, please contact Minnesota Paid Leave at 651-556-7777 or visit the State's website. If you think your employer is violating employment protections, contact the Labor Standards Division at the Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry.

Who pays for Paid Leave?

Paid Leave is funded by premiums paid by employees and employers. The initial premium rate is 0.88% of wages up to the cap set by Social Security's Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance program (currently $185,000). Your employer may deduct up to 0.44% of your wages to fund your portion of the premium. This total premium covers both Medical Leave (0.61%) and Family Leave (0.27%).

Employers are responsible for sending premiums to Paid Leave on behalf of all employees.

How do I take Paid Leave?

1. Notify your employer.
2. Apply with Paid Leave. You will be able to apply for Paid Leave at paidleave.mn.gov. You can also apply over the phone if needed.

After you apply, you will receive a determination from Paid Leave, which is the official decision from the program about whether your application was approved or denied.

If you are approved for Paid Leave payments, they will be sent to the bank account or prepaid debit card selected in your application.

Pregnancy And Parental Leave Policy

The Company recognizes that employees may need to be absent from work to care for or bond with a newborn child or a newly adopted or newly placed foster child (referred to as parental leave in this policy), or due to a pregnancy-related or childbirth-related condition (referred to as pregnancy leave in this policy). The Company provides pregnancy and parental leaves of absence to all eligible employees in accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), Pregnancy Discrimination Act (PDA), Pregnant Workers Fairness Act (PWFA), Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and Minnesota law.

Procedures

If you need to take parental leave following the birth of your child or to care for or bond with your newly adopted or newly placed foster child, you should provide advance notice to your supervisor or the HR Manager. When possible, you should give at least 30 days' notice of your request for leave. If 30 days' notice is not possible because of medical necessity or for other reasons, you should give as much advance notice to the Company as possible.

Written notice is preferred, but not required.

If you have a pregnancy-related or childbirth-related medical condition or disability and require reasonable accommodation (which may include leave) for this purpose, please contact the HR Manager to discuss a reasonable accommodation.

Eligibility Requirements

All employees may request unpaid leave for a pregnancy-related medical condition or disability as an accommodation under the PWFA, PDA, or ADA. Please inquire with the HR Manager for information about eligibility requirements under these laws. This leave may run concurrently with other leave, including under the FMLA and paid time off, where permitted by state and federal law.

Compensation During Leave

Pregnancy and parental leave is unpaid. However, employees may use any or all of their accrued but unused vacation or other paid time off during their pregnancy or parental leave.

Benefits During Leave

During pregnancy and parental leave, all benefits provided under an employee benefit plan are governed by the terms and conditions of the applicable employee benefit plan documents in accordance with applicable law. For all other benefits, an employee on pregnancy or parental leave will receive the same rights and benefits as employees on an unpaid leave of absence.

Reemployment

Your job will be held for you in accordance with applicable law while you are on pregnancy or parental leave.

If you are on pregnancy-related disability leave, when you are able to return to work, you must submit a certification from your health care provider stating you are medically able to return to your normal duties.

Your continued absence from work beyond your required disability leave period (as determined by your health care provider) and exhaustion of all other available leave may be deemed a voluntary abandonment of your job.

Nothing in this policy requires the Company to reemploy individuals who are not eligible for reemployment rights under applicable law.

Discrimination and Retaliation Prohibited

The Company prohibits and will not tolerate discrimination or retaliation against any employee or applicant because of that person's pregnancy or parental leave. Specifically, no one will be denied employment, reemployment, promotion, or any other benefit of employment or be subjected to any adverse employment action based on that person's pregnancy or parental leave. In addition, no one will be disciplined, intimidated, or otherwise retaliated against because that person exercised rights under this policy or applicable law.

The Company is committed to enforcing this policy against discrimination and retaliation. However, the effectiveness of our efforts depends largely on employees telling us about inappropriate workplace conduct. If employees feel that they or someone else may have been subjected to conduct that violates this policy, they should report it immediately. If employees do not report such conduct, the Company may not become aware of a possible violation of this policy and may not be able to take appropriate corrective action.

Administration of This Policy

The HR Manager is responsible for the administration of this policy. If you have any questions regarding this policy or if you have questions about pregnancy or parental leave that are not addressed in this policy, please contact the HR Manager.

Child School Activity Leave Policy

Employees are permitted to take off a total of up to 16 hours in each 12-month period to attend their child's school conferences or other school-related activities if the event cannot be scheduled outside their regular work schedule. This policy applies to time off where an employee's child receives childcare services, or attends a prekindergarten regular or special education program, for the employee to attend a conference or activity, or observe and monitor the services program. Employees may take this time unpaid or use any available accrued vacation.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Where the need for this leave is foreseeable, employees must give their supervisor reasonable notice of the upcoming absence and make a reasonable effort to schedule their time off so as to not unduly disrupt work.

Domestic Abuse Leave Policy

Employees may take reasonable paid time off using accrued vacation from work as necessary to obtain or attempt to obtain relief under Minnesota's domestic abuse laws. An employee who is absent from work shall give 48 hours' advance notice to the HR Manager, except in cases of imminent danger to the health and safety of the employee or the employee's child, or unless impracticable. The Company may request employees to provide verification that supports the employees' reasons for being absent from work.

The Company does not tolerate retaliation against employees who take time off under this policy. All information related to the employee's time off under this policy will be kept confidential.

Meal Periods

If you are scheduled to work six or more consecutive hours in a workday, you are entitled to take an unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period during which you are relieved of all duties.

Rest Periods

You are entitled to paid rest periods of 15 minutes rest time or enough time to utilize the nearest convenient restroom, whichever is longer, within each four consecutive hours. During your rest period, you will be relieved of all duties.

Meal and rest periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal and rest periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal and rest periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal or rest period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal or rest period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

Employees who take unauthorized meal or rest periods, or do not return on time from meal or rest periods, may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Meal Periods

If you work more than five hours in a workday, you are entitled to a 30-minute meal period. For nonexempt employees, uninterrupted meal periods of 30 minutes or more are unpaid.

Meal periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

Employees who take unauthorized meal periods, or do not return on time from meal periods, may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Leave of Absence to Attend Medical Appointments for Childbirth, Postpartum Care, and Infant Pediatric Medical Appointments

Employees are entitled to a total of 25 hours of leave to attend the employee's own medical appointments for childbirth, postpartum care, or the employee's child's pediatric medical appointments within the first year of the child's birth or adoption. In cases where both parents of a child are employed by the Company, the parents are collectively entitled to a total of 25 hours in their child's first year. Employees may be permitted to substitute any available paid time off for any leave taken pursuant to this section. Employees must provide reasonable notice to the Company prior to the leave and make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave so as not to unduly disrupt the Company's operations. The Company may ask for documentation from an employee taking leave to ensure the time is being used for its intended purpose.

SICK LEAVE

The Company provides Paid Sick Leave benefits to all eligible full-time and part-time employees in compliance with the New Jersey Paid Sick Leave Act ("Act"), N.J.S.A. 34:11D-1 et seq.

Sick Leave Accruals and the Benefit Year

All employees shall earn Sick Leave at a rate of 1 hour for every 30 hours of work, up to a maximum total of 40 hours earned in a "benefit year." The benefit year for the purpose of this policy is the calendar year, January through December. Employees are permitted to use time as it is earned, except that new employees will not be permitted to use any Paid Sick Leave accrued under this policy until after completing 120 calendar days of employment.

Maximum Use, Unused Time and Carry-over

In a given calendar year, employees may use no more than 40 hours of accrued sick leave regardless of whether or not they have more accrued leave available due to carrying over accrued time from a previous benefit year. Employees may carry over up to a maximum of 40 hours of accrued but unused Sick Leave into the next benefit year. Any accrued but unused time in excess of 40 hours of Paid Sick Leave remaining at the end of the benefit year shall be forfeited without payment. Employees shall not be paid for any unused Paid Sick Leave at the end of the benefit year or upon separation of employment for any reason.

Permitted Uses

Sick Leave may be used for the following purposes:

- Time needed for diagnosis, care, or treatment of, or recovery from, an employee's mental or physical illness, injury or other adverse health condition, or for preventive medical care for the employee;
- Caring for a family member who needs time for diagnosis, care, or treatment of, or recovery from, a mental or physical illness, injury or other adverse health condition, or for preventive medical care;
- Time needed as a result of an employee or a family member being a victim of domestic or sexual violence;
- Time needed because there is a closure of the workplace, or of a school or childcare facility by order of a public official because of a public health concern;
- Time needed to attend a school-related conference, meeting, function, or other event requested or required by a school responsible for the education of the employee's child; or
- Time needed to attend a meeting regarding care provided to an employee's child in connection with the child's health conditions or disability.

"Family member" means a child, grandchild, sibling, spouse, domestic partner, civil union partner, parent, or grandparent of an employee, or a spouse, domestic partner, or civil union partner of a parent or grandparent of the employee, or a sibling of a spouse, domestic partner, or civil union partner of the employee, chosen family of the employee, or any other individual related by blood to the employee or whose close association with the employee is the equivalent of a family relationship.

Use Increments

Employees must use Sick Leave in full shift increments.

Notices and Verification

Where the need for the use of Sick Leave is foreseeable, employees must provide advance notice of at least seven (7) calendar days before using Sick Leave.

If the need for Sick Leave is unforeseeable, then the employees must provide as much notice as practicable. Employees must notify their supervisor or the HR Manager, either by e-mail or by telephone or in person if necessary. The employee should, when possible, inform their supervisor or the HR Manager as to when he/she expects to return to work. Notification to a non-designated individual will not be sufficient notice. Failure to give the required notice without good cause may result in denial of sick leave and constitute cause for disciplinary action.

If an employee is absent for three (3) or more consecutive days, then reasonable documentation such as a physician's statement where applicable must be provided verifying the employee's need for the leave.

Fitness for Duty Certification May be Required in Certain Situations

Before returning to work from a sick leave absence of three consecutive days or more, and where the leave is due to an employee's physical or mental illness, injury or other adverse health condition, an employee may be required to provide a return to work or "fitness for duty" certification from the employee's health care provider showing that the employee is able to resume work.

NEW JERSEY FAMILY LEAVE

The New Jersey Family Leave Act ("NJFLA"), entitles covered workers to an unpaid leave of absence for a period not to exceed twelve (12) weeks in a twenty four (24) month period for: (1) the birth, adoption, or foster placement of a child, including a child born by a gestational carrier; or (2) a serious health condition of a family member (which includes any individual related by blood to the employee or any other individual that the employee shows to have a close association with the employee equivalent to that of a family relationship).

Not all Company employees are eligible for this leave benefit. New hires and some part time employees cannot be covered by this policy. Some executives may not be subject to reinstatement under the law. Eligibility requirements are similar, but not identical, for the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA") and NJFLA leave. Generally speaking, employees who have been with the Company for one (1) year and have worked at least one thousand (1,000) base hours (including overtime hours, hours which would have been worked but for military leave, and hours covered by worker's compensation benefits, but no other forms of paid or unpaid leave) in the prior twelve (12) months are eligible for NJFLA leave. Beginning July 17, 2026, NJFLA will cover employees who have been employed for three (3) months and have worked at least two hundred and fifty (250) hours.

The Company shall measure leave entitlement by using a rolling twelve (12) month period, beginning on the date the employee uses any leave and looking back through the preceding twenty-four (24) months. An employee may only take the maximum twelve (12) weeks NJFLA leave during this rolling period.

Note that where leave is requested for a reason which qualifies under both the FMLA and NJFLA, if applicable, leave under both laws run at the same time and cannot be "stacked." In certain circumstances, employees may be able to add NJFLA time to leave provided under the FMLA.

Leave granted may be taken consecutively, intermittently, or on a reduced leave (part time) schedule with certain restrictions. Leave for the birth, adoption or foster placement of a child must commence within one year of the birth, adoption or foster placement.

Eligible employees must provide thirty (30) days' advance written notice (or lesser reasonable notice in emergencies). Where written notice is impractical, employees should provide oral notice, and later confirm the notice in writing. This notice must be provided to the HR Manager. Employees must provide a certification issued by a licensed health care provider, depending on the type of leave, other professional, demonstrating the need for leave, prior to the start of leave, where possible. The failure to provide such certification may result in the denial of leave. The Company may also require, at the company's expense, a second or third opinion concerning the need for leave.

Upon completion of NJFLA, you will, in must circumstances, be restored to the position held when the leave began, or to an equivalent position with the same or substantially similar benefits, pay and working conditions. The failure to return from leave at the leave's expiration may result in termination of employment. An employee requesting an extension of leave must give at least two business days' notice where possible. Please note, NJFLA leave does not preclude job actions (e.g., discipline, transfer or discharge) to the extent the same action would have occurred in the absence of your having taken leave under the NJFLA.

Employees taking leave under the NJFLA which is not also covered by the FMLA will not continue to receive employer paid health insurance benefits, although employees may purchase continued coverage under COBRA, as applicable.

For more details about the type of leave, eligibility requirements, the type of certification needed, or any other aspect of the family and medical leave laws, please contact the HR Manager.

NEW JERSEY SAFE ACT

The New Jersey Security and Financial Empowerment Act (NJ SAFE Act) provides that certain employees may be eligible to receive an unpaid leave of absence, for a specified period, to address circumstances resulting from domestic violence or a sexually violent offense for themselves or for a family member who was the victim of sexual or domestic violence. An employee may elect to use any PTO, sick leave, or NJFLA, if the reason is covered by both the NJ SAFE Act and the respective type of leave. Such leave will run simultaneously. For additional information regarding eligibility, employees can contact the HR Manager.

NEW JERSEY FAMILY LEAVE INSURANCE

This law allows employees to receive salary benefits for up to twelve weeks each year if the employee must miss work to care for: (1) a newborn child; (2) a newly-adopted child; (3) a child born pursuant to a gestational agreement; (4) a family member (as defined under New Jersey law) with a "serious health condition" or (5) who is the victim of sexual or domestic violence. Generally, a serious health condition is an illness or injury which requires either inpatient care or continuing medical treatment or supervision by a health care provider.

To be eligible, employees must have worked 20 or more weeks in the preceding 12 months for any employer in New Jersey who is covered by the law.

For ill family members or the birth or adoption of a child, the leave can either be taken consecutively or intermittently.

Any leave for the serious health condition of a family member must be supported by a medical certification from a health care provider on a form provided by the New Jersey Department of Labor. The certification must state: (1) the date the health condition began; (2) the estimated length of the condition; (3) the health condition; (4) a statement that the family member needs care; and (5) an estimate of the amount of time needed for the care of the family member.

Employees are required to give reasonable advance notice of the leave and attempt to schedule leave to so as not to unduly interrupt Company's operations. Advance notice is not required in any emergency or unexpected situations.

An employee's application for Paid Family Leave benefits will be evaluated by the New Jersey Department of Labor and not by the Company. Employees may be subject to a one-week waiting period before being eligible to receive benefits.

Employees may use available paid time off provided by the Company before applying to receive any benefits from the State. This period will count as part of the twelve weeks of leave and benefits available to the employee. For example, if an employee uses one week of vacation time, he or she will only be eligible for a maximum of eleven weeks of family leave benefits.

Note: This is not a leave policy. An employee's job and/or any employment benefits are not guaranteed during a period of paid family leave and an employee remains an at-will employee while receiving paid family leave benefit.

NEW JERSEY STATE DISABILITY INSURANCE

Disability due to a non-work related injury/illness that renders an employee unable to perform the duties of employment for a period in excess of seven (7) consecutive calendar days may render employees eligible for reimbursement of lost wages in accordance with NJ State Temporary Disability Benefits Law. Employees who have been or anticipate being disabled in excess of seven (7) consecutive work days should contact the HR Manager for further information.

DOMESTIC OR SEXUAL VIOLENCE LEAVE (THE SAFE ACT)

An employee who is the victim of domestic or sexual violence may take up to 20 days unpaid leave in the 12-month period immediately following the triggering incident as needed for the purpose of attending to activities related to certain related reasons.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Leave may be taken for the employee or the employee's covered family member was a victim of domestic violence or a sexually violent offense, the employee may use leave to: (1) Seek medical attention; (2) Obtain services from a victim services organization; (3) Obtain counseling; (4) Participate in safety planning; (5) Seek legal assistance; or (6) Attend, participate, or prepare for court proceedings.

A covered family member includes:

1. Child (including a foster child)
2. Parent
3. Parent-in-law
4. Sibling
5. Grandparent
6. Grandchild
7. Spouse
8. Domestic Partner
9. Civil Union Partner
10. Any other individual related by blood to the employee
11. Any other individual "that the employee shows to have a close association with the employee which is the equivalent of a family relationship."

To be eligible, an employee must have worked for the Company for at least 12 months and have worked no less than 1,000 hours during the 12-month period preceding the leave request. Leave may be taken for a variety of reasons including seeking medical attention, recovering from physical or psychological injuries, obtaining victim services, safety planning, counseling, or attending court proceedings, for example. Where leave under this policy qualifies under federal or state medical leave (FMLA or NJFLA), the Company will designate it as such, and the leaves will run concurrently. An employee must elect whether to use any accrued sick or vacation time while on leave. Where the need for leave is foreseeable, the employee should provide the Company with written notice of the need for the leave as far in advance as reasonable and practicable under the circumstances. The Company may request documentation verifying the reason for leave for the employee or family member as defined above in accordance with applicable law.

Employees may apply for monetary benefits under FLI when using the leave described in this policy. Questions about this leave should be directed to your supervisor or the Company's Human Resources Manager.

MARIJUANA

Notwithstanding what is set forth elsewhere in the Company Substance Abuse and Alcohol Policy, for New Jersey employees, New Jersey law generally permits a New Jersey employee over the age of twenty-one (21) to use and possess marijuana /cannabis for recreational use, away from and outside of the workplace, subject to certain exceptions. Unless an exception does apply, the Company shall not take any adverse action against any such employee solely because the employee tests positive for marijuana metabolites or because the Company learns that the employee has used or possessed marijuana / cannabis away from and outside of the workplace. The exceptions are as follows:

a. Nothing shall be deemed to restrict the Company's ability to take disciplinary action for the possession, sale, transfer, use or being under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol while on Company property or during Company work time, based upon a drug test and a physical evaluation, as permitted by law.
b. Nothing shall require the Company as a recipient of a federal grant or party to a federal contract to tolerate marijuana use where prohibiting marijuana use is necessary to satisfy federal requirements of the grant or to comply with the contract.
c. Where complying with the New Jersey law regarding cannabis will require the Company to violate federal law or affect federal laws relating to employment.

New Mexico

Employees are eligible for one hour of paid sick leave for every 30 hours worked to a maximum of 64 hours of paid sick leave each benefit year, beginning January 1 and ending December 31 of each year. Employees may use paid sick leave for:

- Their own medical condition, including preventive care.
- A family member's medical condition, including preventive care.
- Reasons relating to an employee's or family member's status as a victim of domestic violence or sexual assault.
- Attendance at their child's school of place of child care related to the child's health or disability.

Employees must provide notice to the HR Manager that they will be taking paid sick leave as soon as reasonably possible before taking the leave. Whenever possible, the notice must include the expected duration of the leave. When the use of sick leave is foreseeable reasonable efforts should be made to schedule it in advance and in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the operations of the Company. After taking leave two or more consecutive days of paid sick leave, the HR Manager may require employees to provide certification for the leave.

New York

Sick Leave

Under New York's Paid Sick Leave (NYPSL) Act, you are eligible to take up to 56 paid hours of leave per any calendar year:

- For the employee's or employee's family member's mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition, regardless of whether it has been diagnosed or requires medical care at the time of the request for leave.
- For the employee's or employee's family member's diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition, or need for medical diagnosis or preventive care.
- For an absence from work when the employee or employee's family member has been the victim of domestic violence as defined by the New York State Human Rights Law, a family offense, sexual offense, stalking, or human trafficking due to any of the following as it relates to the domestic violence, family offense, sexual offense, stalking, or human trafficking:
    - to obtain services from a domestic violence shelter, rape crisis center, or other services program;
    - to participate in safety planning, temporarily or permanently relocate, or take other actions to increase the safety of the employee or employee's family members;
    - to meet with an attorney or other social services provider to obtain information and advice on, and prepare for or participate in any criminal or civil proceeding;
    - to file a complaint or domestic incident report with law enforcement;
    - to meet with a district attorney's office;
    - to enroll children in a new school; or
    - to take any other actions necessary to ensure the health or safety of the employee or the employee's family member or to protect those who associate or work with the employee.

For additional information, please contact the HR Manager.

The full amount of NYSPL leave is available to use at the beginning of each calendar year.

For purposes of this policy, child means your biological, adopted, foster, or stepchild, your legal ward, a child of your domestic partner, or a child to whom you stand in loco parentis. For the purposes of this policy, family members include your child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, spouse, or domestic partner. The definition of parents includes your biological, foster or adoptive parent, a parent-in-law, a stepparent, a legal guardian, or another person who stood in loco parentis to you when you were a child.

Retaliation against an employee who requests or takes leave under this policy is strictly prohibited.

Notice of Leave

If you wish to take NYPSL leave, you must provide an oral or written request for leave before taking leave. The Company may not require, as a condition of providing sick or safe leave, the disclosure of confidential information relating to:

- A mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition of the employee or the employee's family member.
- Absence from work due to domestic violence, a sexual offense, stalking, or human trafficking.

Using Leave

While on leave, you will collect compensation at your regular rate of pay.

Unused NYSPL leave carries over to the following calendar year, except that the Company limits use of NYSPL leave to 56 hours per calendar year.

Returning to Work

On your return from NYSPL leave, the Company will reinstate you to your same position with the same terms and conditions of employment, including pay and employment benefits.

New York Family Leave Policy
Under New York's Paid Family Leave Benefits Law (NYPFLBL), if you have completed 26 or more consecutive weeks of service with the Company, you are eligible to take up to 12 weeks of leave per any calendar year for:

- Participation in providing care, including physical or psychological care, for a family member with a serious health condition.
- Bonding with your child during the first 12 months after your child's birth, or the first 12 months after the child is placed with you for adoption or foster care.
- Any qualifying exigency under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), relating to when a military spouse, child, or parent is on covered active duty or called to active duty status. For additional information, please contact the HR Manager.

For purposes of this policy, child means your biological, adopted, foster, or stepchild, your legal ward, a child of your domestic partner, or a child to whom you stand in loco parentis. For the purposes of this policy, family members include your child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, spouse, or domestic partner. The definition of parents includes your biological, foster or adoptive parent, a parent-in-law, a stepparent, a legal guardian, or another person who stood in loco parentis to you when you were a child.

NYPFLBL leave runs concurrently with any leave under the federal FMLA, if applicable. However, if you are also eligible for disability benefits under New York law, you may take a combined maximum of 26 weeks of leave during any 52-week period.

Retaliation against an employee who requests or takes leave under this policy is strictly prohibited.

Notice of Leave
If you wish to take NYPFLBL leave and the need for your leave is foreseeable, you must give the Company at least 30 days' written notice before the date family leave is expected to begin. If your leave is foreseeable but must begin in less than 30 days, you must provide notice to the Company as soon as practicable. If the need for family leave is not foreseeable, you must provide written notice to the Company within 30 days after the period of disability begins.

Certification
You must provide the Company proof of the need for family leave within 30 days after the leave commences. The Company may require additional proof from time to time but not more often than once a week. Proof must include a statement of disability from your family leave care recipient's health care provider.

Pay During Leave
While on leave, you will collect 67% of your average weekly wage if it does not exceed 67% of the state's average weekly wage. If you are a recipient of the Company's health benefits, those benefits will continue for the duration of family leave. However, you will not accrue seniority or other employment benefits during leave.

Returning to Work
On your return from NYPFLBL leave, the Company will reinstate you to your original position, or if no longer available, an equivalent position with equivalent terms and conditions of employment, including pay and employment benefits.

Use of NYPFLBL leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued before the start of your family leave that was not used during your family leave.

Paid Prenatal Personal Leave (PPPL)
Employees are entitled to 20 hours of paid leave during any 52 week calendar period to receive health care services during their pregnancy or related to such pregnancy, including physical examinations, medical procedures, monitoring and testing, discussions with a health care provider related to pregnancy, end of pregnancy care, and fertility treatment. PPPL is in addition to the sick leave provided under the New York State Paid Sick Leave Law. An employee has the option to use Sick Leave, PPPL, or an existing employer leave policy to attend prenatal health care appointments.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

PPPL may be taken in hourly increments. PPPL will be paid at the employee's regular rate of pay. Unused PPPL will not be paid out upon an employee's separation from employment.

Only the employee directly receiving prenatal health care may use PPPL. A spouse, partner, or another support person attending prenatal appointments with a pregnant person is not entitled to Paid Prenatal Leave.

Notice of PPPL should be provided to their supervisor. If the absence is foreseeable, the employee must provide up to seven days' advance notice, unless the employee learns of the need to use PPPL within a shorter period of time. PPPL may be taken in 1 hour increments.

Sexual Harassment Policy

The Company is committed to maintaining a workplace free from harassment and discrimination. Sexual harassment is a form of workplace discrimination that subjects an employee to inferior conditions of employment due to their gender, gender identity, gender expression (perceived or actual), and/or sexual orientation. Sexual harassment is often viewed simply as a form of gender-based discrimination, but the Company recognizes that discrimination can be related to or affected by other identities beyond gender. Under the New York State Human Rights Law, it is illegal to discriminate based on sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, race, creed, color, national origin, military status, disability, pre-disposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, criminal history, or status as a victim of domestic violence. Our different identities impact our understanding of the world and how others perceive us. For example, an individual's race, ability, or immigration status may impact their experience with gender discrimination in the workplace. While this policy is focused on sexual harassment and gender discrimination, the methods for reporting and investigating discrimination based on other protected identities are the same. The purpose of this policy is to teach employees to recognize discrimination, including discrimination due to an individual's intersecting identities, and provide the tools to take action when it occurs. All employees, managers, and supervisors are required to work in a manner designed to prevent sexual harassment and discrimination in the workplace. This policy is one component of the Company's commitment to a discrimination-free work environment.

Goals of this Policy:

Sexual harassment and discrimination are against the law. After reading this policy, employees will understand their right to a workplace free from harassment. Employees will also learn what harassment and discrimination look like, what actions they can take to prevent and report harassment, and how they are protected from retaliation after taking action. The policy will also explain the investigation process into any claims of harassment. Employees are encouraged to report sexual harassment or discrimination by filing a complaint internally with the Company. Employees can also file a complaint with a government agency or in court under federal, state, or local antidiscrimination laws. To file an employment complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights, please visit https://dhr.ny.gov/complaint. To file a complaint with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, please visit https://www.eeoc.gov/filing-charge-discrimination.

Sexual Harassment and Discrimination Prevention Policy:

1. The Company's policy applies to all employees, applicants for employment, and interns, whether paid or unpaid. The policy also applies to additional covered individuals. It applies to anyone who is (or is employed by) a contractor, subcontractor, vendor, consultant, or anyone providing services in our workplace. These individuals include persons commonly referred to as independent contractors, gig workers, and temporary workers. Also included are persons providing equipment repair, cleaning services, or any other services through a contract with the Company. For the remainder of this policy, we will use the term "covered individual" to refer to these individuals who are not direct employees of the company.

2. Sexual harassment is unacceptable. Any employee or covered individual who engages in sexual harassment, discrimination, or retaliation will be subject to action, including appropriate discipline for employees. In New York, harassment does not need to be severe or pervasive to be illegal. Employees and covered individuals should not feel discouraged from reporting harassment because they do not believe it is bad enough, or conversely because they do not want to see a colleague fired over less severe behavior. Just as harassment can happen in different degrees, potential discipline for engaging in sexual harassment will depend on the degree of harassment and might include education and counseling. It may lead to suspension or termination when appropriate.

3. Retaliation is prohibited. Any employee or covered individual that reports an incident of sexual harassment or discrimination, provides information, or otherwise assists in any investigation of a sexual harassment or discrimination complaint is protected from retaliation. No one should fear reporting sexual harassment if they believe it has occurred. So long as a person reasonably believes that they have witnessed or experienced such behavior, they are protected from retaliation. Any employee of the Company who retaliates against anyone involved in a sexual harassment or discrimination investigation will face disciplinary action, up to and including termination. All employees and covered individuals working in the workplace who believe they have been subject to such retaliation should inform a supervisor, manager, or the HR Manager. All employees and covered individuals who believe they have been a target of such retaliation may also seek relief from government agencies, as explained below in the section on Legal Protections.

4. Discrimination of any kind, including sexual harassment, is a violation of our policies, is unlawful, and may subject the Company to liability for the harm experienced by targets of discrimination. Harassers may also be individually subject to liability and employers or supervisors who fail to report or act on harassment may be liable for aiding and abetting such behavior. Employees at every level who engage in harassment or discrimination, including managers and supervisors who engage in harassment or discrimination or who allow such behavior to continue, will be penalized for such misconduct.

5. The Company will conduct a prompt and thorough investigation that is fair to all parties. An investigation will happen whenever management receives a complaint about discrimination or sexual harassment, or when it otherwise knows of possible discrimination or sexual harassment occurring. The Company will keep the investigation confidential to the extent possible. If an investigation ends with the finding that discrimination or sexual harassment occurred, the Company will act as required. In addition to any required discipline, the Company will also take steps to ensure a safe work environment for the employee(s) who experienced the discrimination or harassment. All employees, including managers and supervisors, are required to cooperate with any internal investigation of discrimination or sexual harassment.

6. All employees and covered individuals are encouraged to report any harassment or behaviors that violate this policy. All employees will have access to a complaint form to report harassment and file complaints. Use of this form is not required. For anyone who would rather make a complaint verbally, or by email, these complaints will be treated with equal priority. An employee or covered individual who prefers not to report harassment to their manager or employer may instead report harassment to the New York State Division of Human Rights and/or the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Complaints may be made to both the employer and a government agency.

   Managers and supervisors are required to report any complaint that they receive, or any harassment that they observe or become aware of, to the HR Manager.

7. This policy applies to all employees and covered individuals, such as contractors, subcontractors, vendors, consultants, or anyone providing services in the workplace, and all must follow and uphold this policy. This policy must be provided to all employees in person or digitally through email upon hiring and will be posted prominently in all work locations. For those offices operating remotely, in addition to sending the policy through email, it will also be available on the organization's shared network.

What Is Sexual Harassment?

Sexual harassment is a form of gender-based discrimination that is unlawful under federal, state, and (where applicable) local law. Sexual harassment includes harassment on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, self-identified or perceived sex, gender expression, gender identity, and the status of being transgender. Sexual harassment is not limited to sexual contact, touching, or expressions of a sexually suggestive nature. Sexual harassment includes all forms of gender discrimination including gender role stereotyping and treating employees differently because of their gender.

Understanding gender diversity is essential to recognizing sexual harassment because discrimination based on sex stereotypes, gender expression and perceived identity are all forms of sexual harassment. The gender spectrum is nuanced, but the three most common ways people identify are cisgender, transgender, and non-binary. A cisgender person is someone whose gender aligns with the sex they were assigned at birth. Generally, this gender will align with the binary of male or female. A transgender person is someone whose gender is different than the sex they were assigned at birth. A non-binary person does not identify exclusively as a man or a woman. They might identify as both, somewhere in between, or completely outside the gender binary. Some may identify as transgender, but not all do. Respecting an individual's gender identity is a necessary first step in establishing a safe workplace.

Sexual harassment is unlawful when it subjects an individual to inferior terms, conditions, or privileges of employment. Harassment does not need to be severe or pervasive to be illegal. It can be any harassing behavior that rises above petty slights or trivial inconveniences. Every instance of harassment is unique to those experiencing it, and there is no single boundary between petty slights and harassing behavior. However, the Human Rights Law specifies that whether harassing conduct is considered petty or trivial is to be viewed from the standpoint of a reasonable victim of discrimination with the same protected characteristics. Generally, any behavior in which an employee or covered individual is treated worse because of their gender (perceived or actual), sexual orientation, or gender expression is considered a violation of the Company's policy. The intent of the behavior, for example, making a joke, does not neutralize a harassment claim. Not intending to harass is not a defense. The impact of the behavior on a person is what counts. Sexual harassment includes any unwelcome conduct which is either directed at an individual because of that individual's gender identity or expression (perceived or actual), or is of a sexual nature when:

- The purpose or effect of this behavior unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment. The impacted person does not need to be the intended target of the sexual harassment;
- Employment depends implicitly or explicitly on accepting such unwelcome behavior; or
- Decisions regarding an individual's employment are based on an individual's acceptance to or rejection of such behavior. Such decisions can include what shifts and how many hours an employee might work, project assignments, as well as salary and promotion decisions.

There are two main types of sexual harassment:

- Behaviors that contribute to a hostile work environment include, but are not limited to, words, signs, jokes, pranks, intimidation, or physical violence which are of a sexual nature, or which are directed at an individual because of that individual's sex, gender identity, or gender expression. Sexual harassment also consists of any unwanted verbal or physical advances, sexually explicit derogatory, or discriminatory statements which an employee finds offensive or objectionable, causes an employee discomfort or humiliation, or interferes with the employee's job performance.
- Sexual harassment also occurs when a person in authority tries to trade job benefits for sexual favors. This can include hiring, promotion, continued employment or any other terms, conditions, or privileges of employment. This is also called quid pro quo harassment.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Any employee or covered individual who feels harassed is encouraged to report the behavior so that any violation of this policy can be corrected promptly. Any harassing conduct, even a single incident, can be discrimination and is covered by this policy.

Examples of Sexual Harassment

The following describes some of the types of acts that may be unlawful sexual harassment and that are strictly prohibited. This list is just a sample of behaviors and should not be considered exhaustive. Any employee who believes they have experienced sexual harassment, even if it does not appear on this list, should feel encouraged to report it:

- Physical acts of a sexual nature, such as:
    - Touching, pinching, patting, kissing, hugging, grabbing, brushing against another employee's body, or poking another employee's body; or
    - Rape, sexual battery, molestation, or attempts to commit these assaults, which may be considered criminal conduct outside the scope of this policy (please contact local law enforcement if you wish to pursue criminal charges).
- Unwanted sexual comments, advances, or propositions, such as:
    - Requests for sexual favors accompanied by implied or overt threats concerning the target's job performance evaluation, a promotion, or other job benefits;
        - This can include sexual advances/pressure placed on a service industry employee by customers or clients, especially those industries where hospitality and tips are essential to the customer/employee relationship;
    - Subtle or obvious pressure for unwelcome sexual activities; or
    - Repeated requests for dates or romantic gestures, including gift-giving.
- Sexually oriented gestures, noises, remarks or jokes, or questions and comments about a person's sexuality, sexual experience, or romantic history which create a hostile work environment. This is not limited to interactions in person. Remarks made over virtual platforms and in messaging apps when employees are working remotely can create a similarly hostile work environment.
- Sex stereotyping, which occurs when someone's conduct or personality traits are judged based on other people's ideas or perceptions about how individuals of a particular sex should act or look:
    - Remarks regarding an employee's gender expression, such as wearing a garment typically associated with a different gender identity; or
    - Asking employees to take on traditionally gendered roles, such as asking a woman to serve meeting refreshments when it is not part of, or appropriate to, her job duties.
- Sexual or discriminatory displays or publications anywhere in the workplace, such as:
    - Displaying pictures, posters, calendars, graffiti, objects, promotional material, reading materials, or other materials that are sexually demeaning or pornographic. This includes such sexual displays on workplace computers or cell phones and sharing such displays while in the workplace;
    - This also extends to the virtual or remote workspace and can include having such materials visible in the background of one's home during a virtual meeting.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

- Hostile actions taken against an individual because of that individual's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, such as:
    - Interfering with, destroying, or damaging a person's workstation, tools or equipment, or otherwise interfering with the individual's ability to perform the job;
    - Sabotaging an individual's work;
    - Bullying, yelling, or name-calling;
    - Intentional misuse of an individual's preferred pronouns; or
    - Creating different expectations for individuals based on their perceived identities:
        - Dress codes that place more emphasis on women's attire;
        - Leaving parents/caregivers out of meetings.

Who Can be a Target of Sexual Harassment?

Sexual harassment can occur between any individuals, regardless of their sex or gender. Harassment does not have to be between members of the opposite sex or gender. New York Law protects employees and all covered individuals described earlier in the policy. Harassers can be anyone in the workplace. A supervisor, a supervisee, or a coworker can all be harassers. Anyone else in the workplace can also be harassers including an independent contractor, contract worker, vendor, client, customer, patient, constituent, or visitor.

Sexual harassment does not happen in a vacuum and discrimination experienced by an employee can be impacted by biases and identities beyond an individual's gender. For example:

- Placing different demands or expectations on black women employees than white women employees can be both racial and gender discrimination;
- An individual's immigration status may lead to perceptions of vulnerability and increased concerns around illegal retaliation for reporting sexual harassment; or
- Past experiences as a survivor of domestic or sexual violence may lead an individual to feel re-traumatized by someone's behaviors in the workplace.

Individuals bring personal history with them to the workplace that might impact how they interact with certain behavior. It is especially important for all employees to be aware of how words or actions might impact someone with a different experience than their own in the interest of creating a safe and equitable workplace.

Where Can Sexual Harassment Occur?

Unlawful sexual harassment is not limited to the physical workplace itself. It can occur while employees are traveling for business or at employer or industry sponsored events or parties. Calls, texts, emails, and social media usage by employees or covered individuals can constitute unlawful workplace harassment, even if they occur away from the workplace premises, on personal devices, or during non-work hours.

Sexual harassment can occur when employees are working remotely from home as well. Any behaviors outlined above that leave an employee feeling uncomfortable, humiliated, or unable to meet their job requirements constitute harassment even if the employee or covered individual is at home when the harassment occurs. Harassment can happen on virtual meeting platforms, in messaging apps, and after working hours between personal cell phones.

Retaliation

Retaliation is unlawful and is any action by an employer or supervisor that punishes an individual upon learning of a harassment claim, that seeks to discourage a worker or covered individual from making a formal complaint or supporting a sexual harassment or discrimination claim, or that punishes those who have come forward. These actions need not be job-related or occur in the workplace to constitute unlawful retaliation. For example, threats of physical violence outside of work hours or disparaging someone on social media would be covered as retaliation under this policy.

Examples of retaliation may include, but are not limited to:

- Demotion, termination, denying accommodations, reduced hours, or the assignment of less desirable shifts;
- Publicly releasing personnel files;
- Refusing to provide a reference or providing an unwarranted negative reference;
- Labeling an employee as "difficult" and excluding them from projects to avoid "drama";
- Undermining an individual's immigration status; or
- Reducing work responsibilities, passing over for a promotion, or moving an individual's desk to a less desirable office location.

Such retaliation is unlawful under federal, state, and (where applicable) local law. The New York State Human Rights Law protects any individual who has engaged in "protected activity." Protected activity occurs when a person has:

- Made a complaint of sexual harassment or discrimination, either internally or with any government agency;
- Testified or assisted in a proceeding involving sexual harassment or discrimination under the Human Rights Law or any other anti-discrimination law;
- Opposed sexual harassment or discrimination by making a verbal or informal complaint to management, or by simply informing a supervisor or manager of suspected harassment;
- Reported that another employee has been sexually harassed or discriminated against; or
- Encouraged a fellow employee to report harassment.

Even if the alleged harassment does not turn out to rise to the level of a violation of law, the individual is protected from retaliation if the person had a good faith belief that the practices were unlawful. However, the retaliation provision is not intended to protect persons making intentionally false charges of harassment.

Reporting Sexual Harassment

Everyone must work toward preventing sexual harassment, but leadership matters. Supervisors and managers have a special responsibility to make sure employees feel safe at work and that workplaces are free from harassment and discrimination. Any employee or covered individual is encouraged to report harassing or discriminatory behavior to a supervisor or the HR Manager. Anyone who witnesses or becomes aware of potential instances of sexual harassment should report such behavior to a supervisor or the HR Manager.

Reports of sexual harassment may be made verbally or in writing. A written complaint form is attached to this policy if an employee would like to use it, but the complaint form is not required. Employees who are reporting sexual harassment on behalf of other employees may use the complaint form and should note that it is on another employee's behalf. A verbal or otherwise written complaint (such as an email) on behalf of oneself or another employee is also acceptable.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Employees and covered individuals who believe they have been a target of sexual harassment may at any time seek assistance in additional available forums, as explained below in the section on Legal Protections.

Supervisory Responsibilities

Supervisors and managers have a responsibility to prevent sexual harassment and discrimination. All supervisors and managers who receive a complaint or information about suspected sexual harassment, observe what may be sexually harassing or discriminatory behavior, or for any reason suspect that sexual harassment or discrimination is occurring, are required to report such suspected sexual harassment to the HR Manager. Managers and supervisors should not be passive and wait for an employee to make a claim of harassment. If they observe such behavior, they must act.

Supervisors and managers can be disciplined if they engage in sexually harassing or discriminatory behavior themselves. Supervisors and managers can also be disciplined for failing to report suspected sexual harassment or allowing sexual harassment to continue after they know about it.

Supervisors and managers will also be subject to discipline for engaging in any retaliation.

While supervisors and managers have a responsibility to report harassment and discrimination, supervisors and managers must be mindful of the impact that harassment and a subsequent investigation has on victims. Being identified as a possible victim of harassment and questioned about harassment and discrimination can be intimidating, uncomfortable and re-traumatizing for individuals. Supervisors and managers must accommodate the needs of individuals who have experienced harassment to ensure the workplace is safe, supportive, and free from retaliation for them during and after any investigation.

Bystander Intervention

Any employee witnessing harassment as a bystander is encouraged to report it. A supervisor or manager that is a bystander to harassment is required to report it. There are five standard methods of bystander intervention that can be used when anyone witnesses harassment or discrimination and wants to help.

1. A bystander can interrupt the harassment by engaging with the individual being harassed and distracting them from the harassing behavior;

2. A bystander who feels unsafe interrupting on their own can ask a third party to help intervene in the harassment;

3. A bystander can record or take notes on the harassment incident to benefit a future investigation;

4. A bystander might check in with the person who has been harassed after the incident, see how they are feeling and let them know the behavior was not ok; and

5. If a bystander feels safe, they can confront the harassers and name the behavior as inappropriate. When confronting harassment, physically assaulting an individual is never an appropriate response.

Though not exhaustive, and dependent on the circumstances, the guidelines above can serve as a brief guide of how to react when witnessing harassment in the workplace. Any employee witnessing harassment as a bystander is encouraged to report it. A supervisor or manager that is a bystander to harassment is required to report it.

Complaints and Investigations of Sexual Harassment

All complaints or information about sexual harassment will be investigated, whether that information was reported in verbal or written form. An investigation of any complaint, information, or knowledge of suspected sexual harassment will be prompt, thorough, and started and completed as soon as possible. The investigation will be kept confidential to the extent possible. All individuals involved, including those making a harassment claim, witnesses, and alleged harassers deserve a fair and impartial investigation.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Any employee may be required to cooperate as needed in an investigation of suspected sexual harassment. The HR Manager will take disciplinary action against anyone engaging in retaliation against employees who file complaints, support another's complaint, or participate in harassment investigations.
The Company recognizes that participating in a harassment investigation can be uncomfortable and has the potential to retraumatize an employee. Those receiving claims and leading investigations will handle complaints and questions with sensitivity toward those participating.

While the process may vary from case to case, investigations will be done in accordance with the following steps. Upon receipt of a complaint, the HR Manager:

1. Will conduct a prompt review of the allegations, assess the appropriate scope of the investigation, and take any interim actions (for example, instructing the individual(s) about whom the complaint was made to refrain from communications with the individual(s) who reported the harassment), as appropriate. If complaint is verbal, request that the individual completes the complaint form in writing. If the person reporting prefers not to fill out the form, the HR Manager will prepare a complaint form or equivalent documentation based on the verbal reporting;
2. Will take steps to obtain, review, and preserve documents sufficient to assess the allegations, including documents, emails or phone records that may be relevant to the investigation. The HR Manager will consider and implement appropriate document request, review, and preservation measures, including for electronic communications;

3. Will seek to interview all parties involved, including any relevant witnesses;

4. Will create a written documentation of the investigation (such as a letter, memo or email), which contains the following:

    a. A list of all documents reviewed, along with a detailed summary of relevant documents;

    b. A list of names of those interviewed, along with a detailed summary of their statements;

    c. A timeline of events;

    d. A summary of any prior relevant incidents disclosed in the investigation, reported or unreported; and

    e. The basis for the decision and final resolution of the complaint, together with any corrective action(s).

5. Will keep the written documentation and associated documents in a secure and confidential location;

6. Will promptly notify the individual(s) who reported the harassment and the individual(s) about whom the complaint was made that the investigation has been completed and implement any corrective actions identified in the written document; and

7. Will inform the individual(s) who reported of the right to file a complaint or charge externally as outlined in the next section.

Legal Protections and External Remedies
Sexual harassment is not only prohibited by the Company, but it is also prohibited by state, federal, and, where applicable, local law.

The internal process outlined in the policy above is one way for employees to report sexual harassment. Employees and covered individuals may also choose to pursue legal remedies with the following governmental entities. While a private attorney is not required to file a complaint with a governmental agency, you may also seek the legal advice of an attorney.

New York State Division of Human Rights:

The New York State Human Rights Law (HRL), N.Y. Executive Law, art. 15, § 290 et seq., applies to all employers in New York State and protects employees and covered individuals, regardless of immigration status. A complaint alleging violation of the Human Rights Law may be filed either with the New York State Division of Human Rights (DHR) or in New York State Supreme Court.

Complaints of sexual harassment filed with DHR may be submitted any time within three years of the harassment. If an individual does not file a complaint with DHR, they can bring a lawsuit directly in state court under the Human Rights Law, within three years of the alleged sexual harassment. An individual may not file with DHR if they have already filed a HRL complaint in state court.

Complaining internally to the Company does not extend your time to file with DHR or in court. The three years are counted from the date of the most recent incident of harassment.

You do not need an attorney to file a complaint with DHR, and there is no cost to file with DHR.

DHR will investigate your complaint and determine whether there is probable cause to believe that sexual harassment has occurred. Probable cause cases receive a public hearing before an administrative law judge. If sexual harassment is found at the hearing, DHR has the power to award relief. Relief varies but it may include requiring your employer to take action to stop the harassment, or repair the damage caused by the harassment, including paying of monetary damages, punitive damages, attorney's fees, and civil fines.

DHR's main office contact information is: NYS Division of Human Rights, One Fordham Plaza, Fourth Floor, Bronx, New York 10458. You may call (718) 741-8400 or visit: www.dhr.ny.gov.

Go to dhr.ny.gov/complaint for more information about filing a complaint with DHR. The website has a digital complaint process that can be completed on your computer or mobile device from start to finish. The website has a complaint form that can be downloaded, filled out, and mailed to DHR as well as a form that can be submitted online. The website also contains contact information for DHR's regional offices across New York State.

Call the DHR sexual harassment hotline at 1(800) HARASS3 for more information about filing a sexual harassment complaint. This hotline can also provide you with a referral to a volunteer attorney experienced in sexual harassment matters who can provide you with limited free assistance and counsel over the phone.

The United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission:

The United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) enforces federal anti-discrimination laws, including Title VII of the 1964 federal Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. An individual can file a complaint with the EEOC anytime within 300 days from the most recent incident of harassment. There is no cost to file a complaint with the EEOC. The EEOC will investigate the complaint and determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe that discrimination has occurred. If the EEOC determines that the law may have been violated, the EEOC will try to reach a voluntary settlement with the employer. If the EEOC cannot reach a settlement, the EEOC (or the Department of Justice in certain cases) will decide whether to file a lawsuit. The EEOC will issue a Notice of Right to Sue permitting workers to file a lawsuit in federal court if the EEOC closes the charge, is unable to determine if federal employment discrimination laws may have been violated, or believes that unlawful discrimination occurred by does not file a lawsuit.

Individuals may obtain relief in mediation, settlement or conciliation. In addition, federal courts may award remedies if discrimination is found to have occurred. In general, private employers must have at least 15 employees to come within the jurisdiction of the EEOC.

An employee alleging discrimination at work can file a "Charge of Discrimination." The EEOC has district, area, and field offices where complaints can be filed. Contact the EEOC by calling 1-800-669-4000 (TTY: 1-800-669-6820), visiting their website at www.eeoc.gov or via email at info@eeoc.gov.

If an individual filed an administrative complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights, DHR will automatically file the complaint with the EEOC to preserve the right to proceed in federal court.

Local Protections

Many localities enforce laws protecting individuals from sexual harassment and discrimination. An individual should contact the county, city or town in which they live to find out if such a law exists. For example, employees who work in New York City may file complaints of sexual harassment or discrimination with the New York City Commission on Human Rights. Contact their main office at Law Enforcement Bureau of the NYC Commission on Human Rights, 22 Reade Street, 1st Floor, New York, New York; call 311 or (212) 306-7450; or visit www.nyc.gov/html/cchr/html/home/home.shtml.

Contact the Local Police Department

If the harassment involves unwanted physical touching, coerced physical confinement, or coerced sex acts, the conduct may constitute a crime. Those wishing to pursue criminal charges are encouraged to contact their local police department.

Conclusion

The policy outlined above is aimed at providing employees at the Company and covered individuals an understanding of their right to a discrimination and harassment free workplace. All employees should feel safe at work. Though the focus of this policy is on sexual harassment and gender discrimination, the New York State Human Rights law protects against discrimination in several protected classes including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, race, creed, color, national origin, military status, disability, pre-disposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, criminal history, or domestic violence survivor status. The prevention policies outlined above should be considered applicable to all protected classes.

Meal Periods

If you work more than six (6) hours in a workday, you are entitled to an unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period, between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., and a 45-minute meal break at the time midway between the beginning and end of the shift for all shifts of more than six hours starting between 1:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., during which you are relieved of all duties.

Meal periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work.

Nonexempt employees who do not take meal periods, take unauthorized meal periods, or do not return on time from meal periods may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

Parent Involvement in School Leave Policy

Employees who are parents or guardians of school-aged children (daycare through high school) will be granted up to four hours of unpaid leave per calendar year to attend or otherwise be involved at their child's school when the following conditions are met:

- The leave shall be at a mutually agreed upon time between you and your supervisor.
- You must provide a written request at least 48 hours before you take leave.
- The HR Dept. may require written verification from the school that you attended or were otherwise involved at the school at the time of leave.

Domestic Violence Leave Policy

Employees who have been injured or threatened by a third party will be given reasonable unpaid time off to obtain or attempt to obtain a civil no-contact order or domestic violence protective order, as required by law.

Company employees may be eligible for Military Family Leave. To be eligible for Military Family Leave, an employee must have been employed with the Company for 12 consecutive months and must have worked 1,250 hours or more in the 12 months before leave. In addition:

- The employee must be the parent, spouse, or legal guardian of the person in uniformed services who:
  - has been called to active duty for the uniformed services for more than 30 days; or
  - has been injured, wounded, or hospitalized while serving on active duty in the uniformed services.
- The employee must have no other leave available except for sick leave or disability leave.

For Military Family Leave, uniformed services are defined as:

- The Armed Forces.
- The Ohio organized militia when engaged in full-time National Guard duties.
- Commissioned members of the corps of public health service.
- Other categories of persons designated by the President in time of war or emergency.

Employees eligible under this policy may take up to 10 days or 80 hours of unpaid leave, whichever is less, in each calendar year. If leave is based on a deployment to active duty, the leave is to be taken either two weeks before deployment or one week after deployment.

The Company will continue to maintain an employee's benefits while on leave.

An employee must provide at least 14 days' notice for leave taken because of a call to active duty or two days' notice if a family member has been injured, wounded, or hospitalized. If the injury is critical or life-threatening, no notice is required.

When returning from leave, employees must submit a certification form signed by the appropriate military authority certifying that the leave was taken for a qualifying purpose.

Meal Periods

If you work six or more consecutive hours in a workday, you are entitled to an unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period during which you are relieved of all duties. If your shift is at least six hours but less than seven hours, the meal period is to be taken after the second hour worked and prior to the commencement of the fifth hour worked. If the work period is more than seven hours, the meal period is to be taken after the third hour worked and prior to the commencement of the sixth hour worked.

Rest Periods

If you work more than two consecutive hours in a workday, you are entitled to at least one 10-minute paid rest period. Insofar as feasible, rest periods are to be taken by an employee approximately in the middle of each four hour (or major part thereof) shift. The rest period may not be added to the usual meal period or deducted from the beginning or end of the work period to reduce the overall length of the total work period.

Nursing mothers may take a reasonable unpaid rest period to express milk each time the employee has a need to express milk.

Required rest and meal periods based on length of work period

Meal and rest periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal and rest periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal and rest periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work and must report the time worked. Employees do not need to record paid rest periods.

Nonexempt employees who do not take meal or rest periods, take unauthorized meal or rest periods, or do not return on time from meal or rest periods may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

Rhode Island

Rhode Island Parental and Family Medical Leave Act

Eligible employees are full-time employees who work an average of at least 30 hours per week and have been employed by the Company for 12 consecutive months.

Eligible employees may take leave for:

- The employee's serious illness.
- The serious illness of the employee's family member, including in-laws.
- The birth of the employee's child.
- Adoption of a child aged 16 years or younger.
- School conferences or other school-related activities for the employee's child.

Eligible employees may take up to:

- 13 consecutive weeks of leave in any two calendar years.
- Ten hours of leave in a 12-month period for school conferences or other school activities.

Eligible employees who require personal, parental, or family medical leave must provide appropriate notice as follows:

- In the case of school-related leave, the eligible employee must give 24 hours' prior notice of the need for leave and make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave so that it does not unduly disrupt business operations.
- In the case of personal, parental, or family leave, the eligible employee must give at least 30 days' notice of the intended dates when such leave will begin and end, unless a medical emergency prevents the employee from giving such notice. The Company may request the employee to provide a written certification, including the probable length of leave, from the physician caring for the person who is the reason for the employee's leave.

Sick Leave

Full time employees earn up to 40 hours of sick leave per year. Employees accrue one hour of earned sick time for every 35 hours worked.

Employees can use sick and safe leave time if they are too sick to work, are injured or have a routine medical appointment. They may also use sick and safe leave to deal with the impact of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking. In addition, employees may use sick and safe leave to assist a family member or a member of their household for the same purposes. This includes a child, including biological, adopted, step, legal ward, child of a domestic partner, or in loco parentis relationships, parent, spouse, mother-in-law, father-in-law, grandparents, grandchildren, domestic partner, sibling, care recipient (as defined by law), or member of the employee's household (including dependents for federal income tax purposes).

Employees must provide advance notice where the need for sick leave is foreseeable (planned at least 24 hours in advance) and to schedule the use of sick and safe leave time in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the operations of the Company. In instances of unforeseeable leave, such as emergencies, notice must be provided to the HR Manager as soon as it is reasonable.

The Company may request a doctor’s note if an employee misses more than three (3) consecutive workdays.

Sunday and Holiday Pay

Employees who work on Sundays or holidays will be paid at least one and one-half times the employee's normal rate of pay for the work performed. "Holidays" in this section means New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Juneteenth National Freedom Day, July 4th, Victory Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterans' Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.

This policy does not apply to accountants, or employees exempt from overtime under an executive, administrative or professional exemption.

Meal Periods

If you work more than six (6) hours in a workday, you are entitled to an unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period, between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., and a 45-minute meal break at the time midway between the beginning and end of the shift for all shifts of more than six hours starting between 1:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., during which you are relieved of all duties.

Meal periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work.

Nonexempt employees who do not take meal periods, take unauthorized meal periods, or do not return on time from meal periods may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

Sick Leave

An employee can use sick time:

- When the employee or employee's child, parent, grandparent, spouse, or parent-in-law is sick or injured. This includes helping a family member:
    - obtain health care;
    - travel to an appointment related to the family member's long-term care; or
    - to address the effects of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- To care for a family member because the school or business where the family member is located is closed for public health or safety reasons.

An employee earns one hour of earned sick time for every 52 hours of actual work, including overtime. An employee will be entitled to use up to 40 hours of sick leave per year.

Employees may take earned sick leave that they have accrued in increments of 1 hour. Employees must notify the HR Manager as soon as practicable of the employees' intent to take leave and state the expected duration of the leave.

Contact the HR Manager for more information or questions about earned sick time.

Sexual Harassment

The Company is committed and obligated under state and federal law to ensure that this workplace is free from sexual harassment. This policy protects and applies to all persons engaged to perform work or services for the Company, regardless of employment classification.

What is "sexual harassment"?

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination and means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

(1) submission to that conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment;

(2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a component of the basis for employment decisions affecting that individual; or

(3) the conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to the following, when such acts or behavior fall under one of the above definitions:

- either explicitly or implicitly conditioning any term of employment (e.g. continued employment, wages, evaluation, advancement, assigned duties or shifts) on the provision of sexual favors;
- touching or grabbing a sexual part of a person’s body;
- touching or grabbing any part of a person's body after that person has indicated, or it is known, that such physical contact was unwelcome;
- continuing to ask a person to socialize on or off-duty when that person has indicated they are not interested;
- displaying or transmitting sexually suggestive pictures, objects, cartoons, or posters if it is known or should be known that the behavior is unwelcome;
- continuing to write sexually suggestive notes or letters if it is known or should be known that the person does not welcome such behavior;

- referring to or calling a person a sexualized name if it is known or should be known that the person does not welcome such behavior;
- regularly telling sexual jokes or using sexually vulgar or explicit language in the presence of a person if it is known or should be known that the person does not welcome such behavior;
- retaliation of any kind for having filed or supported a complaint of sexual harassment (e.g. ostracizing the person, pressuring the person to drop or not support the complaint, adversely altering that person's duties or work environment, etc.);
- derogatory or provoking remarks about or relating to an person's sex or sexual orientation;
- harassing acts or behavior directed against a person on the basis of his or her sex or sexual orientation; or
- off-duty conduct which falls within the above definition and affects the work environment.

What the Company will do if it learns of possible sexual harassment

In the event the Company receives a complaint of sexual harassment, or otherwise has reason to believe that sexual harassment is occurring, it will take all necessary steps to ensure that the matter is promptly investigated and addressed. The Company is committed, and required by law, to take action if it learns of potential sexual harassment, even if the aggrieved person does not wish to formally file a complaint.

Every supervisor is responsible for promptly responding to, or reporting, any complaint or suspected acts of sexual harassment. Supervisors should report to the HR Manager. Failure by a supervisor to appropriately report or address such sexual harassment complaints or suspected acts shall be considered to be in violation of this policy.

Care will be taken to protect the identity of the person with the complaint and of the accused party or parties, except as may be reasonably necessary to successfully complete the investigation. It shall be a violation of this policy for any person who learns of the investigation or complaint to take any retaliatory action which affects the working environment of any person involved in this investigation.

If the allegation of sexual harassment is found to be credible, the Company will take appropriate corrective action. The Company will inform the complaining person and the accused person of the results of the investigation and what actions will be taken to ensure that the harassment will cease, and that no retaliation will occur. Any employee, supervisor, or agent found by the Company to have committed harassment will be subject to sanctions appropriate to the circumstances, ranging from a verbal warning up to and including dismissal. If the allegation is not found to be credible, the person with the complaint and the accused person shall be so informed, with appropriate instruction provided to each, including the right of the complainant to contact any of the state or federal agencies identified in this policy notice.

What you should do if you believe you have been harassed

Any person who believes that she or he has been the target of sexual harassment, or who believes they have been subjected to retaliation for having brought or supported a complaint of harassment, is encouraged to directly inform the offending person or persons that such conduct is offensive and must stop. If the person subjected to the harassment does not wish to communicate directly with the alleged harasser or harassers, or if direct communication has been ineffective, then the person with the complaint is encouraged to report the situation as soon as possible to the HR Manager or to her or his supervisor.

A person need not be the subject of the sexual harassment to report the offensive conduct to the Company. Persons reporting or participating in an investigation of sexual harassment will be protected by this policy and by state and federal law.

It is helpful to an investigation if the person keeps a diary of events and the names of people who witnessed or were told of the harassment, if possible.

The Company is committed to ensuring rights are preserved and will not require individuals to waive their rights to be free from sexual harassment under federal and state law.

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the Company's action, or is otherwise interested in doing so, she or he may file a complaint by writing or calling any of the following state or federal agencies:

- Vermont Attorney General's Office, Civil Rights Unit, 109 State Street, Montpelier, VT 05609, ago.civilrights@vermont.gov, tel:(888)745-9195 (Toll Free VT) or (802)828-3657 (voice/TDD). Complaints should be filed within 360 days of the adverse action.

- Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, John F. Kennedy Federal Building, 475 Government Center, Boston, MA 02203, https://www.eeoc.gov/employees/charge.cfm, tel:1-800-669-4000 (voice), 1-800-6696820 (TDD). Complaints must be filed within 300 days of the adverse action.

Each of these agencies may conduct impartial investigations, facilitate conciliation, or pursue a civil action in state or federal court. Although individuals are encouraged to file their complaint of sexual harassment through the Company's complaint procedure, an individual is not required to do so before filing a charge with these agencies. In addition, a complainant also has the right to hire a private attorney and to pursue a civil action in Superior Court.

Where can I get copies of this policy?
A copy of this policy will be provided to every employee, and extra copies will be available upon request to the HR Manager. Additionally, written copies of this policy will be provided to every employee whenever this policy is updated. Reasonable accommodations will be provided for persons with disabilities who need assistance in filing or pursuing a complaint of harassment, upon advance request.

Parental and Family Leave

An employee who has worked for an average of 30 hours a week for a year is entitled to Parental and Family Leave. During any 12 month period, an employee is entitled to up to 12 weeks of unpaid leave:

- Parental Leave: during the pregnancy and/or after childbirth; or, within a year following the initial placement of a child 16 years of age or younger with the employee for the purpose of adoption;
- Family Leave: for the serious illness of the employee, employee's child, stepchild, ward, foster child, party to a civil union, parent, spouse, or parent of the employee's spouse; and, in addition to the leave provided in 21 V.S.A. Sec. 472, an employee is entitled to short-term family leave of up to 4 hours in any 30 day period (but not more than 24 hours in any 12 month period) of unpaid leave:

> Short-Term Family Leave: to participate in preschool or school activities directly related to the academic advancement of the employee's child, stepchild, foster child or ward who lives with the employee; to attend or to accompany the employee's child, stepchild, foster child or ward who lives with the employee or the employee's parent, spouse or parent-in-law to routine medical or dental appointments; to accompany the employee's parent, spouse, or parent-in-law to other appointments for professional services related to their care and well-being; to respond to a medical emergency involving the employee's child, stepchild, foster child or ward who lives with the employee or the employee's parent, spouse or parent-in-law.

The employee must give reasonable written notice of intent to take family or parental leave, including the anticipated dates the leave will start and end. If serious illness is claimed, the Company may require certification from a physician. For short-term family leave, an employee must give notice as early as possible, at least seven days before the leave is to be taken unless waiting seven days could have a significant adverse impact on the employee's family member.

An employee may choose to use sick leave, or vacation leave, or any other accrued paid leave time during the leave, up to six weeks. Use of paid leave does not extend the overall leave time to which the employee is entitled.

The employee will be provided all employee benefits unchanged during the leave period, but will require the employee to contribute to the cost at the existing rate of employee contribution.

Upon return from leave, an employee will generally be offered the job held previously or a comparable one at equal pay, benefits, seniority, and other terms and conditions, subject to certain exceptions.

The Company will not discriminate or retaliate against you for exercising any right to which you are entitled under the Vermon Parental and Family Leave Law.

Washington State

SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

The Company is committed to providing a workplace that is free from all forms of discrimination, including sexual harassment. The Company's policy on sexual harassment is part of its overall efforts to provide a workplace free from discrimination and retaliation, pursuant to local, state and federal laws prohibiting discrimination based on age, race, color, creed/religion, national origin, honorably discharged veteran and military status, marital status, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, and sex, or any other characteristic that is protected by law. This policy is also part of the Company's commitment to diversity and inclusion, and a workplace that is free from harassment, disrespect, and divisiveness.

Sexual harassment and retaliation are prohibited by the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended in 1991, and the Washington State Law Against Discrimination, RCW 49.60.

Policy General Provisions

- This policy applies to all employees, applicants for employment, executives, owners, board members, managers, supervisors, interns and volunteers (whether paid or unpaid), contractors, vendors, customers and all persons conducting business with the Company. This policy applies to all persons regardless of their immigration status. In the remainder of this document, the term "covered persons" refers to this collective group.

- Sexual harassment will not be tolerated. Sexual harassment includes harassment on the basis of sex (including pregnancy, related medical conditions, and breastfeeding, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, or any other category protected by applicable local, state or federal laws). Any person covered by this policy who engages in sexual harassment or retaliation will be subject to corrective action, up to and including termination from employment.

- Sexual harassment is offensive, is a violation of our policies, can be unlawful, and may subject the Company to legal liability. Harassers may also be individually subject to liability, as can supervisor and managers who fail to take action. Covered persons who engage in sexual harassment, including owners, executives, managers, and supervisors, will be subject to corrective action for such misconduct. Owners, executives, managers, and supervisors will be subject to corrective action if they fail to take appropriate action when they receive a complaint of, observe, or otherwise become aware of sexual harassment.

- the Company has an obligation to investigate and conduct a prompt and thorough investigation that ensures a fair process for all parties, whenever the Company receives a complaint about sexual harassment, or otherwise becomes aware of possible sexual harassment. The Company will keep the complaint and investigation confidential to the extent possible. When there is a determination that it is likely that sexual harassment occurred, effective corrective action will be taken. All covered persons are required to cooperate with any internal investigation of sexual harassment.

- Harassing behavior does not need to be illegal harassment in order for the Company to take corrective action. The Company will strive to create a workplace free from disrespect, divisiveness, incivility, and inappropriate behavior. Therefore, behavior that could create a harassing environment should the behavior continue or escalate will not be tolerated, and will lead to corrective action.

- Retaliation is prohibited: The Company will not tolerate retaliation against anyone who reports or provides information about possible sexual harassment. Any owner, executive, manager or supervisor who takes retaliatory action against anyone who has reported sexual harassment or who has provided information about possible harassment will be subject to corrective action. Anyone covered by this policy who engages in retaliatory harassment will be subject to corrective action.

- There will be no barriers to accessing the policy or participating in enforcement. All employees will receive training on this policy and the policy will be made available in a variety of languages when necessary so that it can be used and understood by all employees. The policy will also be communicated orally to any person who does not read.

Sexual Harassment Definition

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome language or conduct of a sexual nature, or language or conduct that is because of sex, when:

- Such language or conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment (this can happen even if the complaining party is not the intended target of the sexual harassment);

- Such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment; or,

- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for employment decisions.

Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, derogatory comments, jokes, or statements; sexual advances; sexually explicit language or stories; or visual, verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. This definition includes many forms of offensive behavior and includes gender-based harassment of a person even when the harassment is not sexual in nature, but rather is because of the person's gender. Sexual harassment can include language or conduct against a person of the same sex as the harasser.

Any sexually harassing conduct or language will be addressed under this policy, even if it is not a violation of the law. The list below is of examples of harassing behavior; however, it does not cover every type of harassment that will be considered to be a violation of this policy.

Examples of Language and Conduct that is Considered Prohibited Harassment

- Physical conduct including but not limited to: sexual assault; grabbing, poking, pressing or intentionally brushing up against another person's body; blocking someone's movement or invading their space; touching someone's breast, buttocks, or between their legs; or any other unwanted and intentional physical contact.

- Visual conduct including but not limited to: leering; sexual gestures; displaying of sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons, posters, screen-savers, or websites.

- Verbal conduct including but not limited to: sexually derogatory comments, epithets, slurs and jokes; verbal abuse of a sexual nature; graphic verbal comments about an individual's body; derogatory comments related to gender or stereotypical gender roles; subtle or obvious pressure for unwelcome sexual activities; sexually suggestive or obscene letters, notes, emails, or texts; conversations, stories, comments or jokes about a person's sexuality or sexual experience; unwelcome questions about a person's sexuality or gender identity or expression.

- Asking a co-worker on a date multiple times if the request was unwelcome;

- Verbal abuse or joking concerning a person's gender characteristics such as vocal pitch, facial hair or the size or shape of a person's body.

- Offering an employment benefit (such as a raise, bonus, promotion, assistance with one's career or better working conditions) in exchange for sexual favors, or threatening an employment detriment (such as termination, demotion, worse working conditions, or disciplinary action) when a person refuses to engage in sexual activity.

- Sending sexually related, sexually derogatory, or sexually suggestive text messages, videos or messages via social media.

- Physical or verbal abuse concerning an individual's gender or the perception of the individual's gender.

- Making or threatening retaliatory action after receiving a negative response to sexual advances.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

- Hostile actions taken against an individual because of that individual's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or the status of being transgender, such as:
    - Interfering with, destroying or damaging a person's work, workstation, tools or equipment, or other interference with the individual's ability to perform the job;
    - Ignoring or ostracizing them;
    - Yelling or name-calling.
- Degrading comments in the form of sex stereotyping, which occurs when conduct or personality traits are considered inappropriate simply because they may not conform to other people's ideas or perceptions about how persons of a specific sex should act or look.
- Other actions not listed above could constitute sexual harassment and/or a violation of this policy and be subject to corrective action.

Location and Timing of Behavior

Sexual harassment is not limited to the physical workplace. It can occur during travel, at events sponsored by the Company, or via phone, email, text, or social media. Such behavior can also occur outside of scheduled work time. Covered persons who engage in sexually harassing conduct outside of the workplace or outside of work hours will be subject to corrective action.

Responsibilities of Persons Covered by this Policy

- Each covered person has the responsibility to refrain from sexual harassment that impacts the workplace. The harasser will be subject to corrective action up to and including termination from employment in accordance with the Company's disciplinary policy.
- Any covered person who believes they have been the target of sexual harassment or witnesses sexual harassment, is encouraged to follow the Company's Reporting Procedure to report the sexual harassment.
- The covered person does not need to confront the harasser in order for a complaint, investigation, and corrective action to take place. A covered person who experiences sexual harassment may, if they choose to and can do so safely, inform the harassing person that such conduct is unwelcome and offensive and must stop.
- Employees shall familiarize themselves with this Policy and the Reporting Procedure, and attend all required sexual harassment trainings.

The Company's Responsibilities

- The Company, including owners, executives, managers, and supervisors, are ultimately responsible for maintaining a workplace free from sexual harassment.
- Owners, executives, managers and supervisors must take sexual harassment seriously, and take prompt and effective action when they receive a complaint, observe harassment, or otherwise become aware of possible harassment. All management and supervisory personnel will follow the Company's Investigation Procedures, and all management and supervisory personnel will cooperate with an investigation.
- Managers and supervisors are required to follow the Company's Investigation Procedures when they receive a complaint, see possible harassment, or otherwise become aware of possible harassing behavior. In such circumstances where a person discloses sexual harassment but does not want to make a formal complaint, or when the complaining party changes their mind and retracts the complaint, the manager or supervisor is still obligated to act upon the information and follow the Investigative Procedures.

- Retaliation against those who report sexual harassment or who participate as a witness to a complaint is prohibited. If a supervisor or manager sees any retaliation or retaliatory harassment toward an employee, they must report this conduct to the HR Manager. If an owner, executive, supervisor, or manager engages in retaliation, they will be subject to corrective action.

- Owners, executives, managers, and supervisors shall familiarize themselves with this Policy and the Reporting Procedure, and attend all sexual harassment training for managers and supervisors. Owners, executives, managers, and supervisors shall be able to understand and recognize sexual harassment, and should be able to provide information and direction to employees regarding sexual harassment, the Policy, and the Reporting Procedure.

Distribution of Policy

This Policy and Reporting Procedure shall be distributed annually to all employees and will be provided to employees upon hire and promotion. This Policy and Reporting Procedure will be distributed and displayed in multiple languages when necessary for the policy to be understood and used by everyone, and provided orally to persons who cannot read.

Reporting information will be prominently posted in all work locations, shall be posted in the break room, and will be available online at company website.

External Process

Reporting harassment to the Company does not stop a covered person from also making a complaint in a different forum. All covered persons have the right to file a discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation complaints with outside agencies, such as the Washington State Human Rights Commission (WSHRC) and the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). There may also be applicable local laws preventing harassment and county or city agencies that can investigate claims of harassment.

Retaliation

Retaliation is unlawful under federal, state and applicable local laws. The Washington State Law Against Discrimination (RCW 49.60) protects any individual who has engaged in "protected activity". Protected activity occurs when a person has:

- Made a complaint of sexual harassment, either internally, with an administrative anti-discrimination agency, or filed a lawsuit about harassment;

- Provided information, testified or assisted in a proceeding involving sexual harassment;

- Opposed sexual harassment by making an oral or informal complaint to management, or by simply informing a supervisor or management of harassment; or

- Reported that another employee has been sexually harassed.

Employees are protected from retaliation and retaliatory harassment from all persons covered by this Policy. Even if the alleged harassment does not rise to the level of a violation of law or of this Policy, the individual is protected from retaliation if the person who engaged in protected activity believed that the behavior was unlawful or a policy violation. However, someone who makes a complaint of harassment that they know is false may be subject to discipline.

Retaliation is any action that could discourage an employee from coming forward to make or support a sexual harassment claim. The action need not be job-related or occur in the workplace to constitute unlawful retaliation (e.g., threats of physical violence for reporting sent via social media or outside of work hours).

Examples of retaliation include but are not limited to:

- Termination or demotion;
- A decrease in hours, removing work, or denying a promotion;
- Being given more work, more difficult work, or undesirable tasks;
- Isolation or transfer to a less desirable location;
- Hyper scrutiny by a supervisor or manager or poor performance reviews;
- Threatening messages sent via social media or text;
- Retaliatory harassment by supervisors or managers, or by co-workers when the harassment is reported to or witnessed by a supervisor or manager. Examples are:
    - Leaving the person out of meetings or work-related events;
    - Refusing to communicate with the person;
    - Spreading rumors about the person;
    - Interacting with the person in a hostile manner that is different from interactions prior to the complaint;
- Disciplinary action based on pretextual reasons;
- Threatening the safety or livelihood of the complaining party's family members;
- Taking a purposefully unreasonable amount of time to investigate the complaint;
- Giving a negative reference.

The Company's Sexual Harassment Reporting Procedure

To ensure a workplace free from sexual harassment, everyone should take collective responsibility for ending sexual harassment in the workplace, and is encouraged to report sexual harassment. The Company will not be able to prevent or correct sexual harassment unless it is aware of what is happening.

Please review the Policy and definition of sexual harassment found within it. All references to "sexual harassment" below are based on that definition.

Reporting Methods

1. If an employee feels that they are being sexually harassed or witnesses sexual harassment by another employee, owner, executive, manager, supervisor, or any other person covered by this Policy, they are encouraged to immediately contact one of the following to make a complaint:
    a. The HR Manager at [email] or via phone #[phone number].
    b. The employee's direct supervisor.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

c. An employee can make an anonymous report. Anonymous reports will be investigated with the same procedure and timeliness as other reports. However, the Company's ability to investigate and respond to allegations and to provide feedback may be limited in a situation involving an anonymous complaint.

2. Any owner, executive, manager, supervisor, or human resources representative can also receive the complaint.

3. All complaints of sexual harassment, including an oral complaint, or a complaint in a language other than English, will be investigated. The Company will make a complaint form available for employees to report and file complaints. However, a complaint will still be investigated when the form is not used.

4. Any complaining party or witness who believes that they are being retaliated against for making a complaint or participating in an investigation is encouraged to follow the Reporting Procedure set forth above to make a complaint of retaliation.

Sick Leave

Accrual

Employees accrue one hour of paid sick leave for every 40 hours worked. Employees are not entitled to accrue paid sick leave for hours paid while not working (such as vacation, paid holidays, or while using paid sick leave).

Availability

Employees are entitled to use their accrued, unused paid sick leave beginning on the 90th calendar day after the start of their employment. After this 90-day period, employees may begin using accrued paid sick leave.

Authorized Uses of Paid Sick Leave

Employees may use their accrued, unused paid sick leave hours to care for themselves or a family member (definition below) for:

- Mental or physical illnesses, injuries, or health conditions;
- The need for medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of mental or physical illnesses, injuries, or health conditions; or
- The need for preventive medical care.

For the use of paid sick leave for an employee's family member, family member is defined as:

- A child, including a biological, adopted, or foster child, stepchild, or a child to whom the employee stands in loco parentis, is a legal guardian, or is a de facto parent, regardless of age or dependency status
- A parent, including a biological, adoptive, de facto, or foster parent, stepparent, or legal guardian of an employee or the employee's spouse or registered domestic partner, or a person who stood in loco parentis when the employee was a minor child
- A spouse;
- A registered domestic partner;
- A grandparent;
- A grandchild; or
- A sibling.

Closure of Company or Child's School or Place of Care

Employees may use their accrued, unused paid sick leave when the Company has been closed by order of a public official for any health-related reason, or when an employee's child's school or place of care has been closed by order of a public official for any health-related reason. Please see the definition of "child" in the previous section.

Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

Employees may use their accrued, unused paid sick leave to:

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

- Seek legal or law enforcement assistance or remedies to ensure the health and safety of the employee and their family members including, but not limited to: Preparing for, or participating in, any civil or criminal legal proceeding related to or derived from domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
- Seek treatment by a health care provider for physical or mental injuries caused by domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
- Attend health care treatment for a victim who is the employee's family member;
- Obtain, or assist the employee's family member(s) in obtaining, services from: A domestic violence shelter; a rape crisis center; or a social services program for relief from domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- Obtain, or assist a family member in obtaining, mental health counseling related to an incident of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking in which the employee or the employee's family member was a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- Participating, for the employee or for the employee's family member(s), in: safety planning; or temporary or permanent relocation; or other actions to increase the safety from future incidents of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

For purposes of leave related to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, family member is defined as any individual whose relationship to the employee can be classified as a child, spouse, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, or person with whom the employee has a dating relationship.

Notice of Leave
If an employee wishes to take leave and the need for a leave is foreseeable, the Employee must give the Company at least 30 days' written notice before the date that the employee's leave is expected to begin by notifying the Employee's supervisor. If an employee's leave is foreseeable but must begin in less than 30 days, the employee must provide notice to the Company as soon as practicable. If the need for family leave is not foreseeable, the Employee must provide written notice to the Company within 30 days after the period of disability begins.

Verification
If an employee uses sick leave for more than three consecutive scheduled shifts, the Company may require employees to provide verification that the leave use was appropriate.

Increments of Use
Leave may be taken in hourly increments. Leave will be paid at the employee's regular rate of pay. Unused leave will not be paid out upon an employee's separation from employment.

Carryover of Unused Sick Leave
Accrued, unused paid sick leave balances of 40 hours or less carry over to the following year. If an employee carries over unused paid sick leave to the following year, accrual of paid sick leave in the subsequent year would be in addition to the hours accrued in the previous year and carried over. The Company will require the employee to forfeit the paid sick leave for paid sick leave balances in excess of 40 hours at the end of a year.

The accrual year is January 1 – December 31.

Retaliation Prohibited
Any discrimination or retaliation against an employee for the lawful exercise of paid sick leave rights is not allowed. The Company will not discriminate or retaliate against an employee for the lawful use of paid sick leave. If an employee feels they are being discriminated or retaliated against for the exercise of their paid sick leave, the employee may contact the HR Dept.

If an employee is not satisfied with the Company's response, the employee may contact the Washington State Department of Labor & Industries.

Washington Family and Medical Leave Policy

Eligible employees are entitled to apply for Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) benefits through the PFML program administered by the Washington Employment Security Department (ESD).

Eligibility and Benefits

To be eligible for PFML benefits, an employee must have worked for an employer in Washington for at least 180 calendar days before taking the leave leave. An eligible employee may receive PFML benefits for the following amounts of time within a one-year period:

- Family Leave. Up to 12 weeks of leave to bond with the employee's newborn child, newly adopted child, or newly placed foster child within the 12 months following the birth, adoption, or placement of the child; care for a family member with a serious health condition; or prepare for a family member's pre- and post-deployment activities, as well as time for childcare issues related to a family member's military deployment.
- Medical Leave. Up to 12 weeks for the employee's own serious health condition.
- Combined Family and Medical Leave. Up to 16 weeks of leave for a combination of Medical Leave and Family Leave (with up to an additional two weeks of leave if the employee experiences a pregnancy-related disability).

Leave during the six-week postnatal period must be allowed as medical leave unless the employee chooses to use family leave.

An employee may use paid family leave as bereavement leave during the seven calendar days following the death of a family member for whom the employee would have qualified for medical or family leave.

For purposes of PFML benefits, a family member is defined as the employee's child (including step-child, adopted child, foster child, child's spouse, or child to whom the employee stands in loco parentis, is a legal guardian, or is a de facto guardian), grandchild, grandparent, parent (including parent-in-law, adoptive, de facto, or foster parent, step-parent, or legal guardian), sibling, spouse, or registered domestic partner.

While on PFML leave, employees will be entitled to partial wage replacement, receiving a portion of their average weekly pay, up to a maximum of $1,647 per week in 2026. An employee desiring to take PFML leave must apply to the ESD, which pays the benefits. Employees may use accrued paid leave to supplement their PFML benefits during PFML leave, but are not required to do so.

Payment of Premiums

The PFML program is funded by premiums paid by both employees and employers and is administered by the ESD. A small percentage of wages is withheld from each employee's paycheck and submitted quarterly to the ESD to cover the employee's portion of the premiums.

Employee Protections

Employees who return from PFML leave will be restored to the same or an equivalent job if they have worked for the Company for at least 12 months and worked at least 1,250 hours in the 12 months before taking leave. Employees should consult with Human Resources regarding whether their health insurance will continue during leave.

The Company will not discriminate or retaliate against employees for requesting or taking PFML.

Washington Family Care Leave Policy

Employees may use their earned paid time off, subject to the terms in those policies, to care for:

- A child with a health condition that requires supervision or treatment.
- A spouse, domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, or grandparent who has a "serious or emergency health condition" as that term is defined below.

The Company may require medical verification of your stated reason for requesting leave.

For purposes of this policy, the following definitions apply:

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

- A child is a biological, adopted or foster child, a stepchild, legal ward, or child of a person standing in loco parentis who is either:
    - under 18; or
    - 18 or over and incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability.
- A health condition requiring treatment or supervision is:
    - a medical condition requiring treatment or medication that the child cannot self-administer;
    - any medical or mental health condition that would endanger the child's safety or recovery without the presence of a parent or guardian; or
    - any condition warranting treatment or preventive health care when a parent must be present to authorize the treatment and when sick leave may otherwise be used for this purpose.
- A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that requires either:
    - inpatient care (overnight stay in hospital or other medical facility), resulting in a period of incapacity, treatment, or recovery; or
    - continuing treatment under the care of a health care services provider and includes a period of incapacity.
- Incapacity means inability to work, attend school or perform other regular daily activities.
- An emergency health condition is a health condition that:
    - is typically sudden and unexpected;
    - demands immediate action; and
    - is short-term in nature.

Meal Periods

If you work more than five consecutive hours in a workday, you are entitled to an unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period during which you are relieved of all duties. If you work more than eleven hours in a workday, you are entitled to an additional unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted meal period during which you are relieved of all duties.

Rest Periods

You are entitled to paid rest periods based on total hours worked daily at a rate of ten minutes rest time for every four hours worked. During your break, you will be relieved of all duties.

Meal and rest periods are intended to provide employees an opportunity to be away from work. Nonexempt employees are not permitted to perform any work during meal and rest periods. Employees are encouraged to take meal and rest periods away from their immediate work area. Any nonexempt employee who performs work during their meal period is entitled to payment for the time they performed work and must report the time worked. Employees do not need to record paid rest periods.

Nonexempt employees who do not take meal or rest periods, take unauthorized meal or rest periods, or do not return on time from meal or rest periods may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Nonexempt employees who perform work during their meal period without receiving advanced approval from their manager will be paid for the time they performed work, but may be subject to discipline for performing unauthorized work.

Wisconsin

Wisconsin Family and Medical Leave Act

The Company provides unpaid leaves of absence to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- The birth or placement of a child for adoption.
- To care for your spouse, child, or parent with a serious health condition.
- To care (for up to two workweeks) for your domestic partner with a serious health condition or for the parent of your spouse or domestic partner with a serious health condition.
- Your own serious health condition that renders you unable to perform your job.
- For military exigencies, which are various short-term matters requiring your attention when your spouse, son, daughter, or parent has been called to active duty or is on active duty in the armed forces (including the National Guard or Reserves) in a foreign country. Qualifying exigencies include matters such as:
    - childcare and a child's school activities;
    - financial or legal arrangements;
    - attending certain counseling sessions;
    - attending certain military events such as post-deployment re-integration briefings; and
    - any matters arising out of a short-term deployment (a deployment for which your spouse, son, daughter, or parent receives seven or fewer calendar days of notice).
- For care of a spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin (a covered service member), who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness that was incurred in or aggravated by service in the line of duty while on active duty in the armed forces (including the National Guard or Reserves), and who either:
    - is currently in the armed forces; or
    - was in the armed forces and was discharged under other than dishonorable conditions within five years of the date of receiving medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy.

A serious health condition means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves:

- Inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility.
- A period of incapacity of more than three consecutive calendar days (including any subsequent treatment or period of incapacity relating to the same condition) that also involves either:
    - treatment by or under the orders of a health care provider on at least two occasions within the first 30 days of incapacity, with the first treatment occurring within the first seven days of the incapacity; or
    - treatment by a health care provider on at least one occasion within the first seven days of incapacity that results in a regimen of continuing treatment under the supervision of a health care provider.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

- Outpatient care, if it requires continuing treatment or supervision by a health care provider (generally defined as requiring two direct, continuous, and first-hand contacts by a health care provider).

- Any period of incapacity due to pregnancy or for prenatal care.

- Chronic conditions requiring periodic visits (defined as at least twice per year) by or under the supervision of a health care provider that continue over an extended period of time and may cause an episodic rather than a continuing period of incapacity (for example, asthma, diabetes, or epilepsy).

- Permanent or long-term conditions requiring supervision for which treatment may not be effective (for example, Alzheimer's Disease, a severe stroke, or the terminal stages of a disease).

- Multiple treatments by or under the supervision of a health care provider, either for restorative surgery after an accident or other injury or for a condition that would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three calendar days in the absence of medical intervention or treatment, including cancer (chemotherapy), severe arthritis (physical therapy), or kidney disease (dialysis).

Definition of Domestic Partner

For this policy, a domestic partner refers to an individual of either the same or the opposite sex to whom you are not:

- Married but with whom you share a common residence.

- So closely related that marriage to the individual would be prohibited under Wisconsin law (including siblings and, generally, first cousins).

To qualify as a domestic partnership, you and the individual must consider yourselves to be members of each other's immediate families and otherwise comply with Wisconsin's legal definition of domestic partners.

In some situations, Wisconsin state law defines individuals as domestic partners after they comply with their resident county's registration requirements. The Company may require additional certification or documents to show that you and another individual are domestic partners within the meaning of applicable law.

Eligible Employees

Employees may be eligible for leave under the Wisconsin FMLA once you have:

- Been employed for at least 52 consecutive weeks.

- Worked at least 1,000 hours in the preceding 12-month period.

Maximum Duration of Leave

- Under the Wisconsin FMLA, you are entitled to:

    - At least six weeks of leave for a birth, placement, or adoption, if leave begins within 16 weeks of the birth or placement of that child.

    - Two weeks of leave for your own serious health condition.

    - Two weeks of leave for the care of a child, spouse, domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, or the parent of a domestic partner with a serious health condition.

Leave taken under the Wisconsin FMLA runs concurrently with leave taken under the federal FMLA, if applicable, for the same qualifying reason. Workers' compensation absences also run concurrently with leaves taken under both state and federal FMLA law.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Partial leave, intermittent leave, or leave on a reduced leave schedule basis may be available based on your reason for leave and the amount of leave used.

Benefits During Leave

- All benefits will continue throughout approved leave periods, up to the maximum leave time allowed, in the same manner as they would have had you been working, except that uncompensated time off on leave will not be considered "time worked" for purposes of accruing any benefit.

- Medical insurance coverage will continue only so long as you continue to pay your portion of the premium in a timely fashion. Your health care coverage will cease if your premium payment is more than 30 days late. If your payment is more than 15 days late, we will send a letter to this effect. If we do not receive your premium payment within 15 days after the date of this letter, the coverage may cease. If you choose not to continue coverage during a leave period or fail to timely pay your portion of the medical or dental insurance premiums under this policy and your leave is less than the maximum leave time allowed (see Maximum Duration of Leaves), then the medical insurance will be reinstated when you return to work.

Pay During Leave

- Leaves are generally unpaid. In many instances, eligible employees may substitute other paid leaves provided by the Company for portions of otherwise unpaid family or medical leave. In some instances the Company may require employees to substitute certain accrued paid leave for unpaid family or medical leave.

- If you wish to substitute any paid leave for unpaid family or medical leave, you must do so when leave is requested. You will then be promptly informed whether you are eligible to do so. Similarly, if the Company will require you to substitute any paid leave for unpaid family or medical leave, you will be informed promptly when you request the leave.

Application for Leave

- Eligible employees requesting family or medical leave must provide 30 days' advance notice if the need is foreseeable, or as much notice as possible under the individual circumstances if 30 days' advance notice is not possible. If the need for leave is not foreseeable, notice of leave must be provided as soon as possible, generally on the same day and in conformity with company policy for providing notice of an unforeseen absence.

- Leave related to planned medical treatment of you or your family member should be scheduled so as not to unduly disrupt company operations.

- Failure to comply with these notice standards, or to follow applicable company procedures on giving notice of an absence, will result in the delay or denial of your leave request and may result in discipline.

Certification

- Before the Company can approve any medical leave request due to your own or a qualifying family member's serious health condition, or due to a qualifying family military leave, you must supply the Company with satisfactory certification of the serious health condition. Required certification forms are available from the Company.

- Certifications relating to leave requests involving your own or your family member's serious health condition must be completed by a designated health care provider. The Company retains the right to require certification from a second or third health care provider, at the company's expense, as well as periodic re-certification, at your expense.

- You must submit a completed certification form within 15 days. If the certification is incomplete, ambiguous, or vague, you may be required to provide supplemental information within seven additional days. If you do not provide the required certification or supplemental information by the designated deadline, the leave will not be designated as FMLA leave and you may be subject to discipline.

- If a leave is approved by the Company, you must make clear that your absence is because of the specific approved reason when you call in for any absence related to that reason. Absent unusual circumstances, failure to do so will result in a delay or in the denial of the following absences as FMLA leave.

Return to Work

- Eligible employees are expected to return to work at the planned expiration date of their leave, or if they are able to return earlier, when they are able to return. Notification of availability to return to work before the planned expiration of leave should be made to your supervisor or the HR Manager before your return. No employee may return to work before expiration of leave unless specifically authorized by the Company.

- Except in extraordinary circumstances, if you do not either report back to work or request an extension of the leave by the first day after the approved leave ends, you will be considered to have voluntarily terminated employment.

- The Company reserves the right to require eligible employees on leave to report periodically their status and intent to return to work. Similarly, eligible employees returning from medical leave may be required to obtain and present medical certification from their designated health care provider making clear that they are able to resume work and perform the core functions of their jobs.

Reinstatement on Return from Leave

- When you return from an approved family or medical leave up to the maximum leave period allowed (see Maximum Duration of Leaves), you will be returned to your former position or a substantially equivalent position, absent extraordinary circumstances. Reinstatement for certain eligible highly compensated key employees may be more restricted. If you fall within the category of highly compensated key employees, you will be advised of your status when you request leave or when leave begins.

- Consistent with all applicable law, eligible employees seeking to return from approved family or medical leave after their leave has been exhausted will be returned based on business requirements. If your former position is still open, you will be reinstated when you return. If your former position has been filled or eliminated, the Company will help you identify whether there are other vacant positions for which you are qualified and for which you would wish to be considered. If no position is available, you will be placed on layoff status.

- If you fail to accept a subsequently offered position, or if one year passes from the date on which your original leave began without you returning to work, you will, absent unusual circumstances, generally be separated from employment.

Miscellaneous

Work for any other employer during a period in which you are on family or medical leave from the Company may be cause for discipline, up to and including discharge for the first offense.

Premierlifesciences

MUTUAL ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

1. Application of this Agreement. This Mutual Arbitration Agreement ("Agreement") is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. and evidences a transaction involving commerce. Except as otherwise stated, this Agreement applies to any dispute arising out of or related to Employee's (sometimes also referred to as "you" or "your") employment with Premier Life Sciences LLC., or one of its parent companies, affiliates, subsidiaries, or related entities, ("the Company"). Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Parties acknowledge this Agreement applies to any dispute, past, present, or future, related to your application for employment, employment, or termination of employment, which the Company may have against you or you may have against: (1) Company; (2) its officers, directors, principals, shareholders, members, owners, employees, or agents; (3) Company's benefit plans or the plan's sponsors, fiduciaries, administrators, affiliates, or agents; and (4) all successors and assigns of any of them. Each and all of the entities or individuals listed in (1) through (4) of the preceding sentence are expressly acknowledged by the parties to be able to enforce this Agreement. All disputes covered by this Agreement will be decided by a single arbitrator through final and binding arbitration and not by way of court or jury trial.

Unless specifically excluded in Section 2, this Agreement applies to employment-related claims based on or related to background checks, privacy, trade secrets, unfair competition, breach of contract (express or implied), compensation, classification, minimum wage, expense reimbursement, overtime, breaks and rest periods, or retaliation, discrimination, or harassment and claims arising under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, Defend Trade Secrets Act, Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 1981, Rehabilitation Act, Civil Rights Acts of 1866 and 1871, Civil Rights Act of 1991, 8 U.S.C. § 1324b (unfair immigration related practices), 41 U.S.C. § 4712, Pregnancy Discrimination Act, Equal Pay Act, Americans With Disabilities Act, Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Older Workers' Benefit Protection Act, Occupational Safety and Health Act, Family and Medical Leave Act, Fair Labor Standards Act, Employee Retirement Income Security Act (except for claims for employee benefits under any benefit plan sponsored by the Company and covered by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or funded by insurance), Affordable Care Act, Genetic Information Non-Discrimination Act, Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, the False Claims Act, and state statutes or regulations, if any, addressing the same or similar subject matters, and all other federal or state legal claims (including without limitation torts or common law actions) arising out of or relating to your application, selection, employment, or termination of employment.

The Arbitrator, and not any court, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the validity, applicability, enforceability, unconscionability, or waiver of this Agreement including, but not limited to, any claim that all or any part of this Agreement is void or voidable. However, the preceding sentence does not apply to the Class and Collective Action Waiver or California Private Attorneys General Act Individual Action Requirement below. Notwithstanding any other language in this Agreement or the JAMS Rules (discussed below), any claim that all or part of the Class or Collective Action Waiver or California Private Attorneys General Act Individual Action Requirement are unenforceable, inapplicable, unconscionable, or void or voidable, will be determined only by a court of competent jurisdiction and not by an Arbitrator.

2. Limitations On How This Agreement Applies. The following claims are not covered under this Agreement: (i) Workers' Compensation benefits, state disability insurance benefits or unemployment insurance benefits; however, the Agreement applies to discrimination or retaliation claims based upon seeking such benefits; and (ii) disputes that an applicable federal statute expressly states cannot be arbitrated or subject to a pre-dispute arbitration agreement. If any claim(s) not covered under this Agreement above are combined with claims that are covered under this Agreement, to the maximum extent allowed under applicable law, the covered claims will be arbitrated and continue to be covered under this Agreement.

This Agreement also does not apply to claims between you and the Company pending in a state or federal court or arbitration as of the date of your receipt of this Agreement ("pending claim"). However, if the pending claim is subject to a prior or existing agreement to arbitrate, that agreement will remain in full force and effect and continue to apply to the pending claim.

Nothing in this Agreement prevents you from making a report to or filing a claim or charge with a government agency including, without limitation, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, U.S. Department of Labor, National Labor Relations Board, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, or law enforcement authorities. Nothing in this Agreement prevents the investigation by a government agency of any report, claim or charge otherwise covered by this Agreement. This Agreement also does not prevent federal administrative agencies from adjudicating claims and awarding remedies based on those claims, even if the claims would otherwise be covered by this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement prevents or excuses a party from satisfying any conditions precedent and/or exhausting administrative remedies under applicable law before bringing a claim in arbitration. The Company will not retaliate against you for filing a claim with an administrative agency or for exercising rights (individually or in concert with others) under Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act. This Agreement also does not prevent or prohibit you in any way from reporting, communicating about, or disclosing claims for discrimination, harassment, retaliation, or sexual abuse.

A party may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for temporary or preliminary injunctive relief in connection with an arbitrable controversy in accordance with applicable law, and any such application shall not be deemed a waiver of this Agreement. The court to which the application is made is authorized to consider the merits of the arbitrable controversy to the extent it deems necessary in making its ruling, but only to the extent permitted by applicable law. All determinations of final relief, however, will be decided in arbitration.

3. Class And Collective Action Waiver. The Company and you agree to bring any claim on an individual basis and not on a class and/or collective action basis. Accordingly,

(a) There will be no right or authority for any dispute to be brought, heard or arbitrated as a class action and the Arbitrator will have no authority to hear or preside over any such claim ("Class Action Waiver"). The Class Action Waiver shall be severable from this Agreement if there is a final judicial determination that the Class Action Waiver is invalid, unenforceable, unconscionable, void or voidable. In such instances, the class action must be litigated in a civil court of competent jurisdiction—not in arbitration—but the portion of the Class Action Waiver that is enforceable shall be enforced in arbitration.

(b) There will be no right or authority for any dispute to be brought, heard or arbitrated as a collective action and the Arbitrator will have no authority to hear or preside over any such claim ("Collective Action Waiver"). The Collective Action Waiver shall be severable from this Agreement if there is a final judicial determination that the Collective Action Waiver is invalid, unenforceable, unconscionable, void or voidable. In such instances, the collective action must be litigated in a civil court of competent jurisdiction—not in arbitration—but the portion of the Collective Action Waiver that is enforceable shall be enforced in arbitration.

4. California Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") Individual Action Requirement. The Company and you agree to arbitrate PAGA claims on an individual basis only. Therefore, any claim by you under PAGA to recover unpaid wages, civil penalties, or any other individual relief must be arbitrated under this Agreement. The Company and you also agree your non-individual PAGA claims will be stayed and you will not pursue any such claims in Court until after the Arbitrator, and not any court, issues a final and written determination as to your status as an "aggrieved employee," and, then, only if the determination is that you were "aggrieved." The preceding sentence applies even if you seek to assert only a representative claim without including an individual PAGA claim and/or if you disclaim the individual PAGA claim. The Arbitrator is without authority to preside over any PAGA claim by you on behalf of any other person or joined by or consolidated with another person's PAGA claim. This PAGA Individual Action Requirement clause will be severable from this Agreement if there is a final judicial determination that it is invalid, unenforceable, unconscionable, void or voidable. In such case, the PAGA action must be litigated in a civil court of competent jurisdiction—not in arbitration—but the portion of the PAGA Individual Action Requirement that is enforceable will be enforced in arbitration.

5. Notice Of Arbitration Demand, Cooling Off Period, and Settlement Conference: You and the Company agree the party initiating the claim must make a written demand for arbitration of the claim to the other party no later than the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (deadline for filing) for the claim. The demand for arbitration shall identify the claims asserted, the facts upon which such claims are based, and the relief or remedy sought. The demand for arbitration must be signed by the party making the demand for arbitration (Employee personally or authorized representative of the Company, as applicable). Written demand for arbitration to the Company must be sent hr@premierlifesciences.com. You will be given notice of any demand for arbitration by the Company at the last home address contained in the Company's records. The Arbitrator will apply the statute of limitations that would have applied if the claim(s) had been brought in court.

The parties mutually agree after a party initiates the claim by making a written demand for arbitration to the other, unless otherwise mutually agreed to in writing by both parties, there will be a (30) day "Cooling Off Period". During the Cooling Off Period, the parties may attempt to resolve the claim. The parties may also mutually agree to extend the Cooling Off Period. During the Cooling Off Period, either party may request an informal meeting to discuss a potential informal resolution of the dispute, without the need to go forward in an arbitration ("Informal Settlement Conference"). If timely requested by either party, the Informal Settlement Conference will take place at a mutually agreeable time by telephone or videoconference. Employee and a Company representative must both personally participate; any counsel representing Employee or the Company also may participate. The requirement of personal participation in an Informal Settlement Conference may be waived only if both Employee and the Company agree in writing. The intent of the Cooling Off Period and Informal Settlement Conference is to allow You and the Company a meaningful opportunity to resolve disputes internally. At the end of the Cooling Off Period or if an Informal Settlement Conference is timely requested, 30 days after completion of the Informal Settlement Conference, and unless the parties have resolved the claim, the parties will commence the Arbitrator selection process pursuant to the Arbitration Procedures and Selection Section. In addition, unless prohibited by law, an arbitrator or JAMS may not accept, administer, assess, or demand fees in connection with an arbitration that has been initiated without compliance with the Cooling Off Period and, if requested by either party, the Informal Settlement Conference. If the arbitration is already pending, it shall be administratively closed. If any aspect of the requirements in this Section has not been met, a court of competent jurisdiction may enjoin the filing or prosecution of an arbitration. Nothing in this paragraph limits the right of a party to seek damages for non-compliance with the procedures in this Section.

6. Arbitration Procedures and Selection. Unless you and the Company mutually agree otherwise, the Arbitrator shall be an attorney experienced in arbitrating employment law disputes and licensed to practice law in the state in which the arbitration is convened or a retired federal or state judicial officer from any jurisdiction. The location of the arbitration proceeding shall take place in the same county and state where your home office for the Company was located, unless each party to the arbitration agrees in writing otherwise.

The arbitration will be administered by JAMS, and except as provided in this Agreement, will be under the then current JAMS Employment Rules and Procedures ("JAMS Rules"), which are available through Human Resources or via the internet at https://www.jamsadr.com/adr-rules-procedures/ or by using a service such as www.google.com to search for "JAMS Employment Rules and Procedures;" provided, however, that if there is a conflict between the JAMS Rules and this Agreement, this Agreement shall govern.

The parties shall attempt to mutually choose an Arbitrator, but in the event the parties do not mutually choose an arbitrator, the Arbitrator will be selected pursuant to the JAMS Rules as follows: JAMS will give each party a list of nine (9) arbitrators (who are subject to the qualifications listed in the preceding paragraph) drawn from its panel of arbitrators. Each party will have ten (10) calendar days to strike all names on the list it deems unacceptable. If only one common name remains on the lists of all Parties, that individual will be designated as the Arbitrator. If more than one common name remains on the lists of all Parties, the Parties will strike names alternately from the list of common names by telephone conference administered by JAMS with the party to strike first to be determined by a coin toss conducted by JAMS until only one remains. If no common name remains on the lists of all Parties, JAMS will furnish an additional list of nine (9) arbitrators from which the Parties will strike alternately by telephone conference administered by JAMS with the party to strike first to be determined by a coin toss conducted by JAMS until only one name remains. That person will be designated as the Arbitrator. If the individual selected cannot serve, JAMS will issue another list of nine (9) arbitrators and repeat the alternate striking selection process. If for any reason JAMS will not administer the arbitration consistent with this Agreement, either party may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction with authority over the location where the arbitration will be conducted for appointment of a neutral Arbitrator.

The Arbitrator may award any remedy to which a party is entitled under applicable law, and remedies will be limited to those that would be available to a party in his or her individual capacity for the claims presented to the Arbitrator, and no remedies available to an individual under applicable law will be forfeited. The Arbitrator shall apply the substantive federal, state, or local law applicable to the claims asserted. Either party may file dispositive motions including, without limitation, a motion to dismiss and/or a motion for summary judgment, and the Arbitrator will apply the standards governing such motions under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A party may make an offer of judgment in a manner consistent with, and within the time limitations, consequences, and effects provided in Rule 68 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

7. Discovery and Subpoenas. Each party may take the deposition of two individual fact witnesses and any expert witness designated by another party. Each party may also propound ten (10) interrogatories, ten (10) requests for admission, and requests for production of documents, and each party may subpoena witnesses and documents for discovery or the arbitration hearing, including testimony and documents relevant to the case from third parties. The subpoena shall be issued in accordance with any applicable state or federal law. Additional discovery may be conducted by mutual stipulation, and the Arbitrator will have exclusive authority to entertain requests for additional discovery, and to grant or deny such requests based on the circumstances of a particular case. The Arbitrator will have exclusive authority to resolve discovery disputes.

8. Paying For The Arbitration. You and the Company shall follow the JAMS Rules applicable to initial filing fees, but in no event will you be responsible for any fees in excess of the filing or initial appearance fees applicable to court actions in the jurisdiction where the arbitration will be conducted. After you pay your portion of any initial filing fee, the Company shall pay any remaining portion of the initial fee and also will pay all costs and expenses unique to arbitration including, without limitation, the arbitrator's fees. Unless the parties agree to any extension of time for the payment due date, the parties must pay their respective required fees or costs within 60 days of the date that the arbitrator issues the invoice to the parties. Each party will pay for its own costs and attorneys' fees, if any, but if any party prevails on a claim which affords the prevailing party attorneys' fees, the Arbitrator is authorized to award reasonable fees to the prevailing party as provided by law. The Arbitrator will resolve any disputes regarding costs/fees associated with arbitration.

9. The Arbitration Hearing And Award. The Arbitrator will issue a decision within 30 days from the date the arbitration hearing concludes or the post-hearing briefs (if requested by both parties) are received, whichever is later. The decision will be in writing and include the factual and legal basis for the award. The parties agree, however, any arbitration decision will have no preclusive effect on issues or claims in any other legal proceeding between any other employee and the Company. Either party may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to confirm, enforce, correct, or vacate the Arbitrator's opinion and award.

10. Non-Retaliation. It is against Company policy for any Employee to be subject to retaliation if he or she exercises his or her right to assert claims under this Agreement. If you believe that you have been retaliated against by anyone at the Company, you should immediately report this to Human Resources at hr@premierlifesciences.com.

11. Enforcement Of This Agreement. This Agreement does not alter Employee's at-will employment status. The mutual obligations by the Company and you to arbitrate provide consideration for this Agreement. Your offer of employment and/or continued employment after receiving this Agreement provide separate consideration for this Agreement. If there is a conflict between this Agreement and any other Company contract, including any Employment Agreement, regarding any issue related to arbitration, this Agreement shall govern. This Agreement is the full and complete agreement relating to the resolution of disputes covered by this Agreement and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements relating to such disputes; however, should this Agreement be found to be unenforceable, for any reason, then such prior agreement(s) shall remain in place and survive to afford the Company the greatest protection allowed by law. Any contractual disclaimers the Company has in any other documents do not apply to this Agreement. This Agreement will survive the termination of your employment, and it will continue to apply upon your transfer to any parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of the Company or re-employment by the Company, with respect to any claim arising out of or relating to your employment with the Company. Subject to Sections 3 and 4 (which include their own severability provisions), in the event any portion of this Agreement is deemed unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement will be enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Benefit Basics

Premier Life Sciences offers innovative curated benefit plans to help team members thrive. Invest in your health by choosing the plan that works best for your needs.

Who Is Eligible

If you are employed on a full-time basis and work for at least 30 hours a week, you are entitled to participate in the health plan offered by your employer. This health plan is typically a comprehensive medical insurance policy that covers various health-related expenses, such as doctor visits, hospitalization, prescription drugs, and diagnostic tests.

Who You Can Cover

Only eligible dependents can be enrolled in the plan. Eligible dependents are:

- Spouse
- Domestic Partner (Opposite or Same Sex)
- Your Child(ren)up to age 26

Who is NOT an eligible dependent?

- An ex-spouse, ex-common-law spouse, an ex-domestic partner, a parent or parent-in-law is not an eligible dependent.
- Grandchildren, siblings, nephews, nieces, cousins, aunts, uncles, and grandparents are not eligible.

Qualified Life Events

A qualifying life event is a change in your status that allows you to enroll in the plan outside of the annual enrollment period. “Qualifying life events” include:

- Marriage
- Legal Separation
- Divorce
- Birth or adoption of a child
- Death of a spouse or child
- Loss of coverage
- Change eligibility status for benefits

You have 30 days from the date of the qualifying event/change of status to submit a change in coverage or you must wait until the next annual open enrollment period.

When You Can Enroll

Open Enrollment for our Medical, Dental & Vision Insurance plans will start from June 18th to 30th, 2026. The plans will be effective July 1st, 2026. In order to provide the best and cost-effective plans, we need all full-time eligible employees to complete the online enrollment process. (Refer to instructions for online enrollment). As a benefit-eligible member, you and your family may elect from Medical Plans. Refer to plan summaries attached for more info on your Medical Plans.

During Open Enrollment period, all eligible employees can elect to Medical Plans

- Add Eligible dependent/s not currently covered
- Remove currently Enrolled dependent/s
- Disenroll or Waive from the plan

It is critical for employees to make changes / elections latest by June 30th, 2026.
Newly hired employees have up to 30 days from their date of hire to enroll in the plan. Your coverage begins on 1st of the month following date of hire. If you are not enrolled within 30 DAYS of your eligibility, under the terms of this Plan you may only request Plan coverage during the next open enrollment period unless you experience a qualifying event as outlined below. All other employees must wait until the open enrollment period to enter the plan or make changes.

Employees who are already enrolled in the health insurance plan, DO NOT have to fill up the online enrollment again. Their benefits will automatically rollover to the new plan.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

Waiving Medical Coverage

Waving medical coverage typically refers to the act of voluntarily choosing to waive or decline medical insurance coverage that is offered by an employer or other organization. When individuals wave their medical coverage, they are essentially opting out of the benefits and protections provided by the insurance plan.

Employees who are currently NOT participating in our insurance plan, will still need to fill in the "Waiver" by June 30th 2026.

Things you need to know, before enrolling for Health Insurance.

Termination of Benefits & Cobra Rights

Medical, Dental and Vision are the only plans that are eligible for COBRA coverage. COBRA coverage is offered to employees whose employment at the company terminates or if you cease to be a benefits-eligible employee. In the event of termination, your termination date is the last date of coverage. Your portion of the contribution for the month, in which your benefits terminate, will be charged for the full month (or refunded back to you on a pro-rata basis). Your HR manager will inform you of the last day of coverage under the plan.

The Federal Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) provides insured employees and their qualified beneficiaries the opportunity to continue their medical, dental and vision insurance, when a "qualifying event" would normally result in the loss of eligibility. Common qualifying events include resignation or termination of employment, the death of an employee, a reduction in employee's hours, an employee's divorce and dependent children no longer meeting eligibility requirements. Under COBRA, the employee and/or dependent pays the full cost of coverage at the current rates plus 2% administrative fee. If plan rate changes, then new rates will apply.

Individual Mandate Under ACA

Beginning in 2014, the ACA required all full-time employees and their eligible dependents to be covered by qualified health insurance or will be subject to a penalty. If you are covered under a health plan offered by your employer, or if you are currently covered by a government program such as Medicare, you are considered to have appropriate coverage.

Individuals who do not obtain qualifying healthcare coverage will be required to pay a penalty as part of their annual income tax returns and as high as high as 2.5% of their income. All medical plans offered by your employer will satisfy the individual mandate and it is essential for everyone to be enrolled in an employer/spouse policy to be considered as a qualifying healthcare coverage.

Note: For 2023, the penalty was rescinded but the mandate remains in place. Certain States may still apply an Individual Penalty.

The plans offered by your employer meets the minimum value threshold as set by the ACA. Therefore, if you decide to get a plan through the individual marketplace instead of through your employer, you will not be eligible for a federal subsidy as these plans meet guideline for affordable coverage.

Provider Network Search

It's easy to find doctors and hospitals in your network

When you and your family need care, you can look for doctors and hospitals in the Aetna Choice POS II network. It's easy when you use the Find Care online directory from Aetna.* With up-to-date listings, you can search for providers by name, specialty, gender, hospital affiliations and more.

Find Aetna providers online in just a few quick steps

1 Go to https://www.aetna.com/dsepublic/#/mymeritain

2 Enter your location (ZIP code, city, county, or state) and click Search.

3 Select your plan:
Type or choose Aetna Choice® POS II (Open Access) and click Continue.

4 Search for providers:
- Use the guided search by selecting a category, or
- Use the search bar to type a provider name, specialty, or condition.

5 Browse results:
Click on a provider's name to view details.

6 Refine your search:
Use the Filter & Sort option. Choices include Gender, Languages, Hospital Affiliations, Office Detail, Individual Practice Association Affiliations, Group Affiliations and Provider Type.

Find providers by phone

Need a provider when you're not near a computer? No problem. Simply call the Aetna Provider Line at 1.800.343.3140 from 8:00 AM–9:00 PM ET, Monday through Friday.

Understand Your Benefits

DEDUCTIBLE ACCUMULATION & CARRYOVER

The Deductible, Coinsurance and Out of Pocket Maximums will be a Calendar Year accumulation. The deductible carryover is when a portion of the calendar year deductible is satisfied under another plan; some of that amount may be eligible under the new plan to count towards the current year's deductible. Co-insurance is NOT included in the carryover.

WHAT IS OUT-OF-NETWORK or NON-PPO

This level offers coverage for employees and family members who select a provider not participating in the network with whom Meritain Health has contracted. This Out-of-Network option is the most expensive for you and your family, as there are no discounted rates or an expedited claims payment system.

If you choose to seek care outside the Network, the Plan generally pays Benefits at a lower level. You are required to pay the amount that exceeds the Eligible Expense. The amount in excess of the Eligible Expense could be significant, and this amount does not apply to the Out-of-Pocket Maximum. You may want to ask the non-Network provider about their billed charges before you receive care.

INTERNATIONAL CLAIMS

Health services provided in a foreign country are EXCLUDED from the plan, unless required as Emergency Health Services. Travel and/or transportation expenses even though prescribed by a Physician is also EXCLUDED from the plan. Some travel expenses related to Covered Health Services received from a Designated Provider may be reimbursed at UnitedHealthcare's discretion.

VIRTUAL VISITS - TELADOC

You have access to a network of virtual visit provider groups. A Virtual Visit lets you see a doctor on your phone or computer. Use it when:

- Your regular doctor isn't available
- You're sick while traveling
- You have a non-emergency and are thinking about going to the ER.

To get started: Visit TeladocHealth.com, call 1.800.835.2362 or download the app.
(See Member Flyer for more info on registration)

REMINDER

Do not Forget! You are REQUIRED to complete the enrollment process even if you are waiving the health insurance. If you have any questions or need assistance, please reach out to HR Department.

Employee Contributions

Coverage under the Plan after enrollment. Employee's contribution will be charged based on monthly amounts with deductions through your payroll. Please reach out HR Department for your payroll deductions.

Legal Notices

The Newborns' and Mothers' Health Protection Act of 1996

Group health plans and health insurance issuers generally may not, under federal law, restrict benefits for any hospital length of stay in connection with childbirth for the mother or newborn child to less than 48 hours following a vaginal delivery, or less than 96 hours following a cesarean section. However, federal law generally does not prohibit the mother's or newborn's attending provider, after consulting with the mother, from discharging the mother or her newborn earlier than 48 hours (or 96 hours as applicable). In any case, plans and issuers may not, under federal law, require that a provider obtain authorization from the plan or the insurance issuer for prescribing a length of stay not in excess of 48 hours (or 96 hours).

Women's Health & Cancer Rights Act

If you have had or are going to have a mastectomy, you may be entitled to certain benefits under the Women's Health and Cancer rights Act of 1998 (WHCrA). For individuals receiving mastectomy-related benefits, coverage will be provided in a manner determined in consultation with the attending physician and the patient, for:

- All stages of reconstruction of the breast on which the mastectomy was performed;
- Surgery and reconstruction of the other breast to produce a symmetrical appearance;
- Prostheses; and
- Treatment of physical complications of the mastectomy, including lymphedema.

These benefits will be provided subject to the same deductibles and coinsurance applicable to other medical and surgical benefits provided under the plan.

HIPAA Special Enrollment Rights

Our records show that you are eligible to participate in Premier Life Sciences's group health plan (to actually participate, you must complete an enrollment form and pay part of the premium through payroll deduction).

A federal law called HIPAA requires that we notify you about an important provision in the plan - your right to enroll in the plan under its "special enrollment provision" if you acquire a new dependent, or if you decline coverage under this plan for yourself or an eligible dependent while other coverage is in effect and later lose that other coverage for certain qualifying reasons.

- If you or your dependents (including your spouse) lose Medicaid or State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP) coverage, you may be eligible to enroll in this plan. To do so, you must request enrollment within 60 days of losing that coverage.
- If you gain a new dependent due to marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, you may also qualify to enroll yourself and your new dependent(s). This request must be made within 31 days of the qualifying event.
- Additionally, if you or your dependents become eligible for a state-funded premium assistance program under Medicaid or SCHIP, you may have the option to enroll in this plan. However, you must request enrollment within 60 days of being determined eligible for such assistance.

To request special enrollment or to obtain more information about the plan's special enrollment provisions, contact your HR at Premier Life Sciences.

HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices Reminder

Premier Life Sciences is committed to the privacy of your health information. The administrators of Premier Life Sciences's health plan (the "Plan") use strict privacy standards to protect your health information from unauthorized use or disclosure. The plan's policies protecting your privacy rights and your rights under the law are described in the Plan's Notice of Privacy Practices. you may receive a copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices by contacting Premier Life Sciences.

Medicaid / CHIP Premium Assistance Notice

If you or your children qualify for Medicaid or CHIP and you're eligible for health insurance through your employer, your state may help pay part of your monthly premium.

What This Means for You

Eligible for Medicaid or CHIP?

You may qualify for help paying for your employer's health plan.

Not eligible for Medicaid or CHIP?

You won't qualify for this assistance, but you can shop for coverage at www.healthcare.gov.

How to Apply or Get Help

If you're already enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP, contact your State Medicaid or CHIP office to ask about premium assistance.

If you're not enrolled but think you may qualify:

Call 877-KIDS-NOW (877-543-7669)

Visit www.insurekidsnow.gov

If approved, ask your state whether it can help pay premiums for your employer's health plan.

Special Enrollment Right

If you qualify for premium assistance, your employer must allow you to enroll in the health plan—even outside the normal enrollment period.

You must request enrollment within 60 days of being approved.

For questions about enrolling:

www.askebsa.dol.gov

GLOSSARY

Definitions of Terms

Annual Deductible (or Deductible) - the amount you must pay for Covered Health Services in a calendar year before the Plan will begin paying Non-Network Benefits in that calendar year.

Benefits - Plan payments for Covered Health Services, subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and any Addendums and/or Amendments.

COBRA - see Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA).

Coinsurance - the charge, stated as a percentage of Eligible Expenses, that you are required to pay for certain Covered Health Services as described in Section 3, How the Plan Works and Section 15, Outpatient Prescription Drugs.

Complications of Pregnancy - a condition suffered by a Dependent child that requires medical treatment before or after Pregnancy ends.

Copayment (or Copay) - the charge, stated as a set dollar amount, that you are required to pay for certain Covered Health Services Deductible - see Annual Deductible.

Definitive Drug Test - test to identify specific medications, illicit substances and metabolites and is qualitative or quantitative to identify possible use or non-use of a drug.

Dependent - an individual who meets the eligibility requirements specified in the Plan, as described under Eligibility. A Dependent does not include anyone who is also enrolled as a Participant. No one can be a Dependent of more than one Participant.

Emergency - a medical condition manifesting itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity (including severe pain) so that a prudent layperson, who possesses an average knowledge of health and medicine, could reasonably expect the absence of immediate medical attention

EOB - see Explanation of Benefits (EOB) a statement provided by UnitedHealthcare to you, your Physician, or another health care professional Freestanding Facility - an outpatient, diagnostic or ambulatory center or independent laboratory which performs services and submits claims separately from a Hospital.

Inpatient Stay - an uninterrupted confinement, following formal admission to a Hospital, Skilled Nursing Facility or Inpatient Rehabilitation Facility.

Medically Necessary - health care services that are all of the following as determined by the Claims Administrator or its designee, within the Claims Administrator's sole discretion.

Network Benefits - for Benefit Plans that have a Network Benefit level, this is the description of how Benefits are paid for Covered Health Services provided by Network providers.

Non-Network Benefits - for Benefit Plans that have a Non-Network Benefit level, this is the description of how Benefits are paid for Covered Health Services provided by non-Network providers. Refer to Summary Plan Description to determine if your Benefit plan offers Non-Network benefits.

Open Enrollment - the period of time, determined by Employer/ Plan Sponsor, during which eligible Participants may enroll themselves and their Dependents under the Plan.

Out-of-Pocket Maximum - for Benefit plans that have an Out-of-Pocket Maximum, this is the maximum amount you pay every calendar year. Refer to Refer to Summary Plan Description for the Out-of-Pocket Maximum amount.

Participant - a full-time Participant of the Employer who meets the eligibility requirements specified in the Plan. A Participant must live and/or work in the United States.

Physician - any Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathy who is properly licensed and qualified by law.
Please note: Any podiatrist, dentist, psychologist, chiropractor, optometrist or other provider who acts within the scope of his or her license will be considered on the same basis as a Physician. The fact that a provider is described as a Physician does not mean that Benefits for services from that provider are available to you under the Plan.

Primary Physician - a Physician who has a majority of his or her practice in general pediatrics, internal medicine, family practice or general medicine.

Specialist Physician - a Physician who has a majority of his or her practice in areas other than general pediatrics, internal medicine, obstetrics/gynecology, family practice or general medicine.

Urgent Care - Care that requires prompt attention to avoid adverse consequences but does not pose an immediate threat to a person's life. Urgent care is usually delivered in a walk-in setting and without an appointment. Urgent care facilities are a location, distinct from a hospital emergency department, an office or a clinic. The purpose is to diagnose and treat illness or injury for unscheduled, ambulatory patients seeking immediate medical attention.

Prescription Drug List (PDL) Management Committee - the committee that UnitedHealthcare designates for, among other responsibilities, classifying Pharmaceutical Products into specific tiers.

ERISA 404 retirement plan and investment information

06/15/2023

The retirement savings plan offered by Intellectt Inc is a great way to help you save for the life you want in retirement. INTELLECTT INC 401(k) Plan (the Plan) has fees associated with the services and resources provided by the Plan.

Plan Fiduciary

The Plan Fiduciary is the individual(s) who has authority over the operation and administration of the Plan and its retirement funds. The Plan Fiduciary is typically your employer, and may also be called the Plan Sponsor.

Plan Administrator

The Plan Administrator, who is also a Plan Fiduciary, has the authority over the operation and administration of the Plan. If you have questions about the investment options available under the Plan or would like paper copies of additional investment information, you can obtain this information on principal.com or by contacting the Plan Administrator:

INTELLECTT INC
517 ROUTE 1 SOUTH
SUITE 1115
ISELIN, NJ 08830
804-380-2997

Information about ERISA Section 404(c)

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) provides rules on the investment of retirement funds. Intellectt Inc has chosen to qualify the Plan as an ERISA 404(c) plan and intends to comply by providing information for you to make educated investment decisions and by letting you:

- Direct the investment of individual retirement accounts
- Choose from at least three diverse investment options
- Change investment choices at least quarterly

This means the Plan Fiduciary should not be liable for any investment losses that result from a participant's investment control, including a participant's election to use Target My Retirement®.

Your future, your choice

The Plan Fiduciary makes certain investment options available to you under the Plan. But you are responsible for directing the retirement funds to the options available in the Plan that work best for you. You can make changes to your investment mix by logging into your account at principal.com. Learn more about the investment options available under the Plan online and in the Investment Option Summary.

Directing or transferring between investment options

Certain investment options may have restrictions. See the Investment Option Summary for details.

Docusign Envelope ID: C36AEBC5-758C-817F-816A-1A7B7B775AA7

You can direct or transfer retirement funds between the different investment options at least quarterly, but the Plan may allow for more frequent transfers and changes. To update investment elections for your current balance or future contributions, log in to your account at principal.com or call us at 800.547.7754.

Voting rights

A description of the exercise of voting, tender and similar rights for an investment alternative and any restrictions on these rights can be found in the relevant Plan document or trustee powers section of the trust agreement. If you would like copies of these documents, contact the Plan Administrator, if applicable.

Fees and expenses+

For the current year, an annual Plan administrative expense of 1.22% applies to your account balance. One-twelfth of the total amount will be deducted from your account balance each month.

Plan administrative expenses typically cover items such as recordkeeping, participant website access, participant statements, Plan compliance services and financial professional services.

Occasionally, there may be additional Plan expenses during normal Plan operation for services such as legal, auditing, other service provider, consulting or investment advice. The Plan Fiduciary determines how these expenses are allocated at the time the expenses are paid. These expenses are typically allocated among participants based on participant account balance, but may be allocated by dividing the total expenses to be deducted by the total number of participants in the Plan. You can view the dollar amount of applicable expenses under your account at principal.com and on your statement.

Participant-level fees

Participant transaction fees will be charged to your account balance for the services you choose to use. Participant transaction fees for the Plan include:

- Distribution fee: $50.00
- Qualified Domestic Relations Order processing fee: $350.00 for each Domestic Relations Order processed. The fee is divided equally between the participant and the alternate payee involved unless specified differently within the Domestic Relations Order or the Plan's Administrative Procedures.
- Wire transfer fee: $25.00
- Fee for overnight mailing a check: $25.00
- Stop payment fee: $25.00
- 402(g) refund fee (deferral contributions made in excess of IRS limit): $50.00

An annual $50.00 fee will apply to new installment elections, if available under the Plan. The fee will be broken down and deducted from your account every three months unless you have established another collection method.

Target My Retirement®

You may elect to enroll in Target My Retirement. With Target My Retirement, Morningstar Investment Management LLC manages the investment mix of your account by tailoring an ongoing investment strategy for your unique circumstances. This service is right there with you as you prepare for retirement by monitoring, rebalancing and adjusting your investment strategy as you move through different stages of life.

The below “Information about Target My Retirement” describes the Target My Retirement service in more detail, including the investment objective, risk and return characteristics, and fees and expenses.

Target My Retirement is a managed account service and is subject to the same risks as the underlying asset class. The principal value of the account is not guaranteed. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate with market conditions, and participants may lose money. Please carefully review the disclosure document before investing. This may be accessed here or by requesting a copy from the Compliance department at Morningstar Investment Management at 312-696-6000.

Information about Target My Retirement

Description: The Target My Retirement service is a managed account program that provides you with a personalized investment strategy. Morningstar Investment Management LLC, a registered investment adviser and subsidiary of Morningstar, Inc., will act as the fiduciary within the program and will invest and manage your retirement account based on your personal information, including age, gender, years to retirement, current salary, current savings rate and account balance, and other personal and financial information that you provide to Morningstar Investment Management. The investment strategy is regularly monitored and rebalanced as you approach retirement, as your financial needs change, and as you update information about you through the Morningstar Investment Management website. While in the service, you will be unable to make transfers among the plan's eligible investment options (as defined in the Participant Agreement) and direct how new contributions are allocated. You may stop participation in the service at any time by calling 800.547.7754 or by logging into your account at principal.com.

Investment Objective: The Target My Retirement service seeks to achieve varying degrees of capital appreciation and capital preservation through a mix of equity and fixed income investments consistent with your circumstances.

Risks and Return: The program, and each allocation within the program, may be subject to equity market, foreign equity market, real estate market, foreign bond market, and domestic bond market risks, any of which could cause an investor to lose money. While the allocation for each individual may vary, the investments made for participants who are further from their anticipated retirement may involve greater risks than investments made for participants who are closer to retirement, due to the fact that investments made for participants who are further from retirement typically include a greater allocation to equity securities. Participants whose account assets are invested more heavily in equity securities are also subject to greater risk of market fluctuations. The actual allocation for each individual depends on several demographic and account factors. The factors include age, anticipated retirement age, the participant's current account balance, the participant's eligible income, the participant's current savings rate, gender (for life expectancy) and any additional assets held outside the Plan that the participant expects to use for retirement income purposes and that the participant has provided to Morningstar Investment Management.

Fees and Expenses: The fees and expenses associated with Target My Retirement consist of an asset-based program fee of .5% of Eligible Investment Options* per year. The program fees are accrued daily and charged to your retirement accounts managed under the Target My Retirement service on a monthly basis. These fees are in addition to investment advisory and other fees charged by mutual funds and other investment options in which participant account balances are invested. Note: This fee is waived through 07/29/2023.

* Investment options generally not eligible for inclusion in the service include but are not limited to company stock or other stock investments, self-directed brokerage account investments, and guaranteed interest accounts. You have responsibility for managing these retirement funds. Therefore, the fee will not apply to investment options that are not eligible for the service.

+ If you have a balance in an investment that is excluded from the collection of expenses, we will collect the expense from the balances in other investments, beginning with the investment with the largest balance.

The following information is available upon request from the Plan Administrator (at no charge):

- Copies of prospectuses (or any short-form or summary prospectuses) for the investment options
- Copies of any financial statements or reports, such as statements of additional information and shareholder reports, and of any other similar materials relating to the Plan's designated investment options
- A statement of the value of a share or unit of each designated investment option and the date of the valuation
- A list of the assets comprising the portfolio of each investment option which constitute Plan assets and the value of each asset (or the proportion of the investment which it comprises)
- The following information about each investment option (including fixed-return investment options) available under the Plan: issuer name, investment objective, principal strategies and risks, turnover rate, performance, and fee and expense information
- To the extent a group annuity contract under the Plan permits you to select an annuity guaranteed by an insurance company, a statement that the guarantee provided by the insurance company is subject to its long-term financial strength and claims-paying ability

Investment Option Summary

As of 03/31/2023

This document provides important information to help you compare the investment options available to you under the retirement plan.

Investment results shown represent historical performance and do not guarantee future results. Investment returns and principal values fluctuate with changes in interest rates and other market conditions so the value, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than original costs. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data shown. For additional information on the investment options, including most recent month-end performance, log in to the Principal Financial Group® website at principal.com or call our automated phone system at 1-800-547-7754.

Additional information available online includes, if applicable, the name of the investment option's issuer; the investment option's objectives or goals; the investment option's principal strategies, including a general description of the types of assets held by the investment option; the portfolio turnover rate; and the investment option's performance data and fee and expense information.

In situations where the net and gross total investment expense figures are different, the mutual fund or the underlying fund in which a Separate Account invests has waived/capped a portion of its management fees through the date displayed in the waiver expiration date or contractual cap expiration date column. Differences may also be shown due to the fund family choosing to pay certain expenses that would normally be payable by the fund. Returns displayed are based on total investment expense net.

Total Investment Expense - Gross is the current maximum expense ratio, as a percentage of assets that can be applied to this investment option. This does not represent the recordkeeping or individual transactional fees that can be deducted from or reduce the earnings for an investment under your account. However, it does include operating expenses, management fees, including 12b-1 fees, and administrative fees.

Total Investment Expense - Net; you will be responsible for this expense and it will be automatically taken prior to calculating performance. Total Investment Expense -Net is the Total Investment Expense - Gross expense ratio less any fee waivers, reimbursements or caps, if applicable. The expenses ratio, as a percentage of net assets, includes operating expenses, management fees, including 12b-1 fees, and administrative fees.

Expense Waiver/Contractual Cap - When gross and net expense ratios differ, the investment adviser may have agreed to waive certain expenses that would normally be payable by the fund or contractually agreed to limit the investment option's expenses.

Fees and expenses are only one of several factors that participants and beneficiaries should consider when making investment decisions. The cumulative effect of fees and expenses can substantially reduce the growth of a participant's or beneficiary's retirement account. Participants and beneficiaries can visit the Employee Benefit Security Administration's website for an example demonstrating the long-term effect of fees and expenses.

Asset Class: Fixed Income

This asset class is generally composed of investment options that invest in bonds, or debt of a company or government entity (including U.S. and Non- U.S.). It may also include real estate investment options that directly own property. These investment options typically carry more risk than short-term fixed income investment options (including, for real estate investment options, liquidity risk), but less overall risk than equities. All investment options in this category have the potential to lose value.

Description: The investment option normally invests the majority of assets in common stocks of companies that compose the S&P 500 Index. Management attempts to mirror the investment performance of the index by allocating assets in approximately the same weightings as the S&P 500 Index. Over the long-term, management seeks a very close correlation between the performance of the Separate Account before expenses and that of the S&P 500 Index.

Asset Class: Small/Mid U.S. Equity

This asset class is generally composed of investment options that invest in stocks, or shares of ownership in small- to medium-sized U.S. companies. These investment options typically carry more risk than larger U.S. equity investment options but have the potential for higher returns. They may be an appropriate choice for long-term investors who are seeking the potential for growth. All investment options in this category have the potential to lose value.

Description: The investment option normally invests the majority of assets in common stocks of companies that compose the S&P MidCap 400 Index. Management attempts to mirror the investment performance of the index by allocating assets in approximately the same weightings as the S&P MidCap 400 Index. Over the long-term, management seeks a very close correlation between the performance of the Separate Account before expenses and that of the S&P MidCap 400 Index.

Asset Class: Short-Term Fixed Income

This asset class is generally composed of short-term, fixed-income investment options that are largely liquid and are designed to not lose much value. These investment options may include stable value, money market, short-term bond, and guaranteed interest accounts. They are considered to be among the least risky forms of investment options. However, they typically have a lower rate of return than equities or longer-term fixed income investment options over long periods of time. Depending on the objectives of the investment options, they may experience price fluctuations and may lose value.

Investment Option Name: Principal Guaranteed Option[28,30,37,38,39]

Description:

This group annuity contract provides an interest rate guaranteed for a set period of time by Principal Life Insurance Company® (Principal Life). It is backed by the multi-billion-dollar general account of Principal Life, which invests in corporate bonds, asset-backed securities, commercial real estate mortgages, government bonds and short-term cash equivalents. However, money allocated to the Principal® Guaranteed Option (PGO) does not entitle you to participate in the investment experience or performance of the general account. The composite crediting rate (crediting rate) applied to accounts is a weighted average of underlying guarantees provided in the contract. Each underlying guarantee has a final maturity date determined when the guarantee is established. That date can range between 2 and 10 years from the date the guarantee is established. The Term column below provides the targeted average maturity of the underlying guarantees. The crediting rate is reset every 6 months based on the changing weighted average of the underlying guarantees and is announced in advance for the upcoming period. The crediting rate is an effective annual rate and is displayed below net of the Rate Level Service Fee and, if applicable, the Crediting Rate Reduction amount illustrated below. The crediting rate, before fees, is subject to a minimum guaranteed rate defined in the contract. When the crediting rate is reset, the minimum guaranteed rate is also recalculated in accordance with state insurance regulations which utilize U.S. Treasury rates. The formula is further outlined in the group annuity contract. The minimum guaranteed rate will range between 0.15% and 3% depending on market conditions. Benefit payments to participants for plan benefit events, including retirement, termination of employment, disability, plan termination, death, loans, and withdrawals, as allowed by the plan, are made without any surrender charge applying. There are no restrictions or surrender charges on investment transfers initiated by a participant from PGO to non-competing investment options. If the retirement program provides access to PGO and Competing Investment Options, investment transfers directly to Competing Investment Options are not allowed. Competing Investment Options include other guaranteed investment options, stable value, money market, or other short-term fixed income investment options with an average duration of less than two years. Indirect transfers from the PGO to a Competing Investment Option will be subject to an Equity Wash. An Equity Wash requires that transfers be directed to a non-competing investment option for 90 days before a subsequent transfer can be made to Competing Investment Options. A termination of the Plan's Interest, Plan Sponsor's Interest (in the case of a nonqualified deferred compensation plan), or Participating Employer's Interest in the contract, elected by an authorized plan representative, will be paid out in six installment payments over 5 years (subject to additional contractual limitations), or as a single sum payment subject to an Early Termination Charge, whichever the authorized plan representative chooses. PGO may make available higher crediting rates. If these are available and the plan is eligible to move to a higher crediting rate, an authorized plan representative may request to transfer the plan's interest in the contract to a higher crediting rate. The effective date of the transfer will be 24 months after the request. An authorized plan representative may choose an earlier effective date for the transfer, subject to a charge that is equal to a portion (between 45-75%) of the Early Termination Charge. If an authorized plan representative provides termination notice and the single sum payment or first installment payment is within 24 months of the transfer to a higher crediting rate, then the plan's interest or employer's interest may only be made in installment payments. Before directing retirement funds to a separate account, investors should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses of the separate account as well as their individual risk tolerance, time horizon and goals. For additional information, contact us at 1-800-547-7754.

An investment's past performance is not necessarily an indication of how the investment will perform in the future.

Since inception benchmark returns are displayed on the Investment Option Summary for investments that are less than 10 years old. The benchmark reflecting the Since Inception return is the Morningstar Category index. For some Sub-Advised investment options, two benchmarks will be displayed on the Investment Option Summary and the secondary index reflecting the Since Inception Return is the Morningstar Category index.

Investment Options may charge a short-term trading or redemption fee to protect the interests of long-term Contractholders.

[A] Separate Accounts are available through a group annuity contract with Principal Life Insurance Company. Insurance products and plan administrative services, if applicable, are provided by Principal Life Insurance Company, a member of the Principal Financial Group, Des Moines, IA 50392. See the fact sheet for the full name of the Separate Account. Certain investment options may not be available in all states or U.S. commonwealths. Principal Life Insurance Company reserves the right to defer payments or transfers from Principal Life Separate Accounts as described in the group annuity contracts providing access to the Separate Accounts or as required by applicable law. Such deferment will be based on factors that may include situations such as: unstable or disorderly financial markets; investment conditions which do not allow for orderly investment transactions; or investment, liquidity, and other risks inherent in real estate (such as those associated with general and local economic conditions). If you elect to allocate funds to a Separate Account, you may not be able to immediately withdraw them.

Returns shown for periods of less than one year are not annualized. All returns displayed here are after net Total Investment Expense of the investment option.

Insurance products and plan administrative services are provided by Principal Life Insurance Company, a member of the Principal Financial Group® (The Principal®), Des Moines, IA 50392.

For a Separate Account investment option, Total Investment Expense net equals the sum of these expenses: (a) the amount of money, expressed as a percentage, deducted for the costs of managing a separate account where applicable, fees for plan administrative services and agent compensation, plus (b) if the separate account invests in an underlying mutual fund, the total fund operating expenses of the underlying mutual fund, plus (c) if an underlying mutual fund invests in other mutual funds, the weighted-average management fee of those other mutual funds, as listed in the most recent prospectus. The actual gross Total Investment Expense may change if an underlying mutual fund's allocation of assets to other mutual funds changes.

Several investment companies have decided to impose redemption fees and/or transfer restrictions on certain plan and/or participant transactions. One or more of the investment options in your employer's retirement plan may be impacted. For more information, visit The Principal Web site at principal.com.

These results are for the investment options available through your Plan Sponsor's retirement plan, and may be different from the results for other retirement plans. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. Principal values and investment returns will fluctuate so that values upon redemption may be worth more or less than original costs. Total returns illustrated are net of investment expenses and management fees.

Principal Life is an investment manager as defined in ERISA with regard to its Separate Accounts.

Since inception returns are only shown for funds/accounts in existence for less than 10 years.

[1] Small-cap and mid-cap investment options are subject to more fluctuation in value and may have additional risks than other investment options with stocks of larger, more stable companies.

[2] Each index based investment option is invested in the stocks or bonds of the index it tracks. Performance of indexes reflects the unmanaged results for the market segment the selected stocks or bonds represent. There is no assurance an index based investment option will match the performance of the index tracked.

[3] This Separate Account invests solely in the least expensive share class of the Principal Funds. All voting rights associated with ownership of shares in the mutual fund are the rights of the Separate Account, not of contract holders investing in the Separate Account. For further information on the underlying mutual fund, see the prospectus of the fund.

[4] International and global investment options are subject to additional risk due to fluctuating exchange rates, foreign accounting and financial policies, and other economic and political environments.

[5] High yield investment options are subject to greater credit risk and volatility that is associated with high yield bonds.

[6] Real Estate investment options are subject to investment and liquidity risk and other risks inherent in real estate such as those associated with general and local economic conditions. Property values can decline due to environmental and other reasons. In addition, fluctuation in interest rates can negatively impact the performance of real estate investment options.

[10] These calculated returns reflect the historical performance of the oldest share class of the fund, adjusted to reflect a portion of the fees and expenses of this share class. For time periods prior to inception date of the fund, predecessor performance is reflected. Please see the fund's prospectus for more information on specific expenses, and the fund's most recent shareholder report for actual date of first sale. Expenses are deducted from income earned by the fund. As a result, dividends and investment results will differ for each share class.

[11] Equity investment options involve greater risk, including heightened volatility, than fixed-income investment options. Fixed-income investment options are subject to interest rate risk, and their value will decline as interest rates rise.

[12] Asset allocation does not guarantee a profit or protect against a loss. Investing in real estate, small-cap, international, and high-yield investment options involves additional risks.

[13] Fixed-income investment options are subject to interest rate risk, and their value will decline as interest rates rise. Neither the principal of bond investment options nor their yields are guaranteed by the U.S. government.

[14] Fixed-income and asset allocation investment options that invest in mortgage securities are subject to increased risk due to real estate exposure.

[15] This Separate Account invests solely in the least expensive share class of a mutual fund (Fund) from Principal Funds, Inc. Principal Global Investors, LLC invests up to 30% of the Fund's assets in equity securities in an attempt to match the performance of the Fund's benchmark index. The Fund's remaining assets are managed by the sub-advisors.

[16] Asset allocation and diversification do not ensure a profit or protect against a loss. Additionally there is no guarantee this investment option will provide adequate income at or through retirement.

[17] The Investment Advisor will display "Multiple Sub-Advisors" for certain target-date, target-risk and specialty investment options where the assets are directed by the Investment Manager to multiple underlying investment options. These underlying investment options may use multiple sub-advisors who are responsible for the day-to-day management responsibilities.

[18] The International Equity Index investment option described herein is indexed to an MSCI index.

[19] The Statement of Additional Information for the underlying mutual fund contains a more detailed description of the limited relationship MSCI has with Principal and any related investments.

[20] For investment options, returns for all time periods, except the Since Inception time frame, may include the historical performance of the oldest share class of the investment, adjusted to reflect a portion of the fees and expenses of this share class. Since Inception returns display the actual return of this share class and do not reflect the adjusted returns of the oldest share class. Please see the fund's prospectus or if CIT, the offering document for more information on specific expenses, and the investment options most recent shareholder report for actual date of first sale. For a CIT, you may need to contact the plan sponsor or plan advisor, if applicable. Expenses are deducted from income earned by the investment option. As a result, dividends and investment results will differ for each share class.

[21] The risks associated with derivative investments include that the underlying security, interest rate, market index, or other financial asset will not move in the direction the Investment Adviser and/or Sub-Advisor anticipated, the possibility that there may be no liquid secondary market, the risk that adverse price movements in an instrument can result in a loss substantially greater than a fund's initial investment, the possibility that the counterparty may fail to perform its obligations; and the inability to close out certain hedged positions to avoid adverse tax consequences.

[22] International and global investing involves greater risks such as currency fluctuations, political/social instability and differing accounting standards.

[23] For the Principal LifeTime Hybrid Collective Investment Funds (CITs), Total Investment Expense Net equals the sum of these expenses: (a) the amount of money, expressed as a percentage, deducted for the cost of managing the collective investment trust, and where applicable, plus (b) if the collective investment trust invests in an underlying mutual fund, separate account, or collective investment trust, the total investment operating expenses of the underlying investment option, as listed in the most recent prospectus if applicable.

[24] The Principal LifeTime Hybrid Collective Investment Funds (CITs) are collective investment trusts maintained by Principal Global Investors Trust Company, (the Trust Company). The Trust Company has retained Principal Global Investors, LLC (the Adviser), to serve as investment adviser with respect to the CITs, subject to the Trust Company's supervision and review. The Adviser is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Principal Financial Group. Inc. and is under common control with the Trust Company. The Adviser also manages portfolios which may be included as underlying investments in the CITs. The Adviser receives management fees from these portfolios. The Adviser or other affiliates of the Trust Company may provide services to the CITs and may receive fees for such services. The CITs are available only to certain qualified retirement plans and governmental 457(b) plans.

[25] The Trust Company is regulated by the State of Oregon. Units of the CITs are not deposits or obligations of, guaranteed by, or insured by the Trust Company or any affiliate, and are not insured by the FDIC or any other federal or state government agency. The value of the CITs will fluctuate so that when redeemed, units may be worth more or less than the original cost. A copy of the participation agreement can be obtained from your plan administrator or investment contact.

[26] Investment manager/sub-advisor means either the Investment Advisor or Sub-Advisor to the investment option or the underlying asset(s). Principal Life Insurance Company is the Investment Manager as defined by ERISA, with regard to the assets of the Separate Accounts. Principal Global Investors is a member of the Principal Financial Group.

[27] Investment manager/sub-advisor means either the Investment Advisor or Sub-Advisor to the investment option or the underlying asset(s).

[28] Principal Guaranteed Option is not FDIC insured and is not an obligation or deposit for any bank nor guaranteed by a bank. The guarantees provided with regard to the Principal Guaranteed Option are supported by the general account of Principal Life. Principal Guaranteed Option is the Custodial Guaranteed Option Group Annuity Contract available through Principal Life Insurance Company, a member of the Principal Financial Group®, Des Moines, Iowa, 50392.

[30] The Principal Guaranteed Option is a guarantee backed by the general account of Principal Life Insurance Company. As a guaranteed contract, it does not have an investment management fee or expense ratio; those are concepts unique to investment products. The Rate Level Service Fee illustrated here represents a part of the overall fee arrangement that the plan pays for recordkeeping and administrative services provided to the plan, as elected by an authorized plan representative.

[32] For the NE Rate level, Principal Life Insurance Company (Principal Life) 1. pays the Sub-Adviser the management fee and compensation for services provided to the separate account, and 2. pays the separate account the expected operating expenses proportionally attributable to the NE Rate level in the maintenance of the Separate Account. Operating expenses may be greater or less than expected in any given period. The NE Rate level is only available to Contract holders who meet certain requirements and select certain additional products and services made available by Principal Life or an affiliate. Ask your Principal representative for additional details.

[33] Additional target date portfolios may be added to the Principal LifeTime portfolios series to accommodate plan participants with later normal retirement dates as they enter the workforce. Participants may also choose a portfolio with a target date that does not match the intended retirement date. Compare the different portfolios to see how the mix of investments might shift.

[34] This investment option is considered non-diversified, which means it, or the underlying mutual fund, can invest a higher percentage of its assets in of fewer individual issuers than a diversified investment. As a result, changes in the value of a single investment could cause greater fluctuations, gain or loss, in the net asset value than would occur if it was more diversified.

[35] Selecting a target date fund series is also authorizing any additional vintage which is launched by the investment provider for the series, and included in their associated materials, to be added to the plan after proper notification.

[36] There is no guarantee that a target date investment will provide adequate income at or through retirement. A target date fund's (TDF) glidepath is typically set to align with a retirement age of 65, which maybe your plan's normal retirement date (NRD). If your plan's NRD/age is different, the plan may default you to a TDF based on the plans NRD/Age. Participants may choose a TDF that does not match the plan's intended retirement date but instead aligns more to their investment risk. Compare the different TDF's to see how the mix of investments shift based on the TDF glide path.

[37] Nonqualified plan sponsors may include Principal Guaranteed Option as an available investment option to reference when measuring a nonqualified participant's benefits, as described in certain nonqualified plan materials. The guarantee of principal and interest through the group annuity contract is not a representation that a nonqualified plan sponsor holds any assets for paying these benefits.

[38] An interest in Principal Guaranteed Option may be obtained by a nonqualified plan sponsor to use that interest as a corporate asset to aid in financing liabilities to nonqualified plan participants. Participants in a nonqualified plan do not own an interest in the contract, although a liability owed to a nonqualified participant may be tracked by an interest attributed to such nonqualified participant. All limitations on transfers and withdrawals, including surrender charges and early termination charges, apply to the Plan Sponsor's Interest in the contract with respect to a nonqualified plan.

[39] Participating Employer's Interest applies where the retirement plan that has an interest in Principal Guaranteed Option is a Pooled Employer Plan or a Multiple Employer Plan.

[F] Investment option limits transfer activity. Once the number of allowed transfers is met, participants are not allowed to transfer back into an investment option which they have transferred out of until the holding period elapses. All participant investment transfers and non-scheduled rebalancing activity are counted toward the number of transfers allowed. Contributions into the investment option are not impacted. Participants may still transfer out to different investment options or to money market or Guaranteed options.

[--] Principal Life works with each fund family to implement each funds' policy and establish frequent trading guidelines that best mirror Prospectus language. Mutual Fund Network investment managers have the ability to monitor for excessive trading and may enforce frequent purchase limitations in addition to or in lieu of policy monitored by Principal Life Insurance Company. Please refer to the Prospectus for verification.
